GASTON.

At a meeting of the citizens of Gaston, held at Dallas, on the 1st inst., Col. Richard Rankin in the chair, and W. M. Ferguson and James M. Reed acting as secretaries, the following were adopted with one dissenting voice:

WHEREAS. We have heard with unfeigned sorrow that a Black-Republican has been elected President of the United States, by an entirely sectional vote, whose principles as announced are that a war of extermination must be made on our institutions, and that the negro must be the equal of the white man in this government, therefore, Resolved, That we fully and cordially endorse the message of Gov. Ellis on "Federal Relations," and especially that portion recommending an appeal to the people in convention to devise the best means for our safety

Resolved. That we will not submit to the tyranny of "higher law principles," and if, such be the issue submitted to the South she will fall back on her constitutional rights for protection. David Schenck, James Quinn, J. G. Lewis. Wm. McKee and Col. Rankin addressed the meeting.

WILSON

At a meeting of the citizens of Wilson, held n the town of Wilson, on the 24th ult., Joshua Barnes in the chair, and B. H. Bardin, acting as secretary, the following were adopted without a dissenting voice:

We, the citizens of the county of Wilson, N. C', ignoring all party names and views, cordially unite in the following resolutions:

Resolved. That the election of Abraham Lincoln and Hanmbal Hamlin to the Presidency and to be, and will not be submitted to.

Resolved. That we respectfully suggest to the Legislature to take immediate steps to organize the present General Assembly now in session. and arm the forces of the State.

Reslved. That we respectfully recommend to the our immediate Representatives in Congress. Legi lature, to take into immediate consideration the passage of such laws as will, be likely to alleviate any unusual embarrassment of the commercial interests of the State censequent upon the present political emergency.

Resolved, That copies of the foregoing resolutions be sent without delay to our Senator and Representatives in the General Assembly of the State, who are hereby requested to lay them before the Houses of which they are respectively members.

This meeting was addressed by Captain J. D. Radcliffe, Rev. D. B. Cayton, Dr. R. G. Bariham, Col. M. Moye, J. S. Barn es and J. W.

SAMPSON.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the citizens of this county, at a large meeting held in Clinton, and were forwarded to their Senator Col. Thomas I Faison, with the request that they be laid before the Senate:

WHEREAS. The uncertain condition of our civil affairs threatening alike the liberty of our citizens, and the destruction of our property, in our opinion, calls for prompt action on the part of the ci izens of North Carolina. And deeming this a proper time for a fair expression of our rights. we maintain, that North-Carolina, in common with the thirteen independent colonies, entered into a compact for mutual protection and defence. reserving to themselves the absolute right to control, each one for herself, her domestic institutions: That in violation of the compact, many of our sister States have refused to protect the property of the Southern States, and have passed laws by their State Legislatures contrary to the Constitution, and nullifying the laws passed of Congress for the protection of the property of many of the States: That the citizens of a part of the States have been, and, we have every reason to believe, are still, making every effort, by all the means in their power, to incite our slaves to rebellion and murder: That citizens of the Southern States in pursuit of their property have been murdered, and the soil of a Sovereign Stats stained with the blood of her citizens attempting to defend themselves and their property from the invasion of an armed band from States belonging to the same Government with ourselves: That following resolutions adopted by an overwhelming all this and more has been done against the earnest protestation of the Southern States: That Resolved. ## , CATAWBA

One of the largest meetings ever held in Ca tawba, was held, irrespective of party, at Newton, on the 8th inst. E. P. Coulter; occupied the chair and C. W. Harmon and G. P. Shuford acted as secretaries. The meeting was addressed by Capt. Jno. F. Hoke, Locke McCorkle, Maj. J Bost, Col. H. L. Robards, and others, and the following resolutions were unatimously adopted:

Whereas, Abraham Lincoln has lately been chosen President of the United States, exclusively by the suffrages of the Northern States, hecause of his declared opinion to the effect that the enslavement of the negroe is a sin and a crime, and slavery must be extinguished, and negroes placed upon an equality with white men; now, therefore, Be it Resolved, By the people of Catawba, that North Carolina, as a sovereign State, has a right to withdraw from the Union, whenever in her opinion, the Constitution has been violated by her confederated States, or any of them, or by their mutual agent, the Government at Washington, and upon the withdrawal of North Carolina or any other State, the Federal Government has no power under the Constitution, to coerce or subjugate such seceding State. Resolved, further, That it is the duty of the present Legislature to arm a volunteer force, and Vice Presidency of the United States, ought not | organize the militia, and place the State in a condition to maintain and defend her rights, and to Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting, | call a convention of the people, to consider the that we have a reserved right as a sovereign mode and measure of redress at this crisis of im-

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGE. - There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foras Electrotype and many others whose distinction as for-eign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ARDLY REALIZED.—Hi 'ad 'n orrible 'edache this af-ternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e ?"Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'nor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an CHEADACHE is the favorate sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard in ended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two remedied; by a transport to the discussion of the precursor of a great variety of discuss, among which are Apoplexy, Goul, Rheumatism and all tebrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of headath disease constituting history headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other desorders of the owels, as well as u renal and uterine affections. D seases of the heart are very fequently attended with Headaches; Afaemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physound hearth and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accretity of temper.— In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both, eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

phalic Pills have been found a sure and sate remedy, receiving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its ubtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET .- Miss us wants you to send her a box o. Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills, but I'm' thinking t at's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be af-ther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist .- You mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills. Bridget. - Och ! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and give me the Pills and dont be all day about it CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS .- No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neclected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or seden ary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the recursor and companion of maearly eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave: Among the lighter evils of which c stiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breat', Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant. Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentery, Diarrhoa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hyste ia, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the systemby this alarming sym tom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independeat existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whe ever it occurs, and no person should neglect to , tabox of Cepha ie Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their simely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A REAL BLESSING .- Physician,- Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache Mrs. Jones .- Gond! Doctor, all gone! the pills you sent ured me in ju t twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy. Physician .- You can get them at any drugists. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I commend them in all cases of Headache Mrs. Jones .- I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED .- Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposen to do the world still greater service by curi ig all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety cident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disorder ed state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distresing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symtoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stmoach which always accompames and aggravates the disordered condition of the braine

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all person of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whoe system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system of from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegitable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.
