This meeting was addressed by Captain J. D. Radeliffe, Rev. D. B. Cayton, Dr. R. G. Barham, Col. M. Moye, J. S. Barn es and J. W. SAMPSON.

The following preamble and resolutions were unimously adopted by the citizens of this county, at a large meeting held in Clinton, and were forwarded to their Senator Col. Thomas I. Faison, with the request that they be laid before

WHEREAS, The uncertain condition of our civil flairs threatening alike the liberty of our citizens, and the destruction of our property, in our ôpinion, calls for prompt action on the part of the ci izens of North Carolina. And deeming this a proper time for a fair expression of our rights, we maintain, that North-Carolina, in common with the t lirteen independent colonies, entered into a compact for mutual protection and defence, reserving to themselves the absolute right to control, each one for herself, her domestic institutions: That in violation of the compact, many of our sister States have refused to protect the property of the Southern States, and have passed laws by their State Legislatures contrary to the Constitution, and nullifying the laws passed by Congress for the protection of the property of many of the States: That the citizens of a part of the States have been, and, we have every rean to believe, are still, making every effort, by he means in their power, to incite our slaves rebellion and murder: That citizens of the Southern States in pursuit of their property have been murdered, and the soil of a Sovereign Stats stained with the blood of her citizens attempting to defend themselves and their property from the invasion of an armed band from States belonging to the same Government with ourselves: That all this and more has been done against the earnest protestation of the Southern States: That against our solemn protest they have elected a President whose whole course of conduct and expressions of opinion have been, and are at war with the nearest and dearest rights of the Southisses a convention of the people ought to be orn people : That as an example of their opinions, aims and purposes he, and his supporters, have endorsed the sentiments, and contributed freely by money and labor to the circulation of an inamous publication, the design of which, if carjied out, would set the slaves as bloodhounds, apon the white race of the Southern States: That we have borne all this for our love and ventration for the Union and Constitution, until we believe the Union and Constitution have been berverted to a caus of oppression by designing

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGE. - There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expresssive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the wo d Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as for-eign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "Lative and to the manor born."

ARDLY REALIZED .- Hi 'ad 'n orrible 'edache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache ?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand up-on that 'e gave me a Cephalic P.II, hand 'pon me ' nor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an & HEADACHE is the favorite eign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguar! in ended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz : Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all lebric diseases. In its servous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constinution and other d sorders of the lowels, as well as u renal and uterine affections. D seases of the heart are very fequently attended with Headaches; Anomia and ple-thora are also affections which frequently occasion head-ache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acceptity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both, eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting ; under this class may also be named Neuralgia. For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and sale nemedy, receiving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its ubtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box o Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills, but I'm thinking t at's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be af-ther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist .- You mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills. Bridget .- Och ! sure now and you've sed it, here's the CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS .- No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedemary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the presursor and companion of many of the most tatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early cradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which c stiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breat', Piles and other of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentery, Diarrhoa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hyste is, Hypothondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming sym tom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whe ever it occurs, and no person should neglect to estabox of Cepha ie Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A REAL BLESSING .- Physician, - Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache? Mrs. Jones .- Gone ! Doctor, all gone ! the pills you sent cured me in ju t twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy. Physician. - You can get them at any drugists. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I commend them in all cases of Heatlache. Mrs. Jones .- I shall send for a box directly, and shall ell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing. TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED .- Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total oss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposen to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety neident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Herdache. The disorder ed state of mind and body incident to this distressing complant is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distresing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symtom's appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves; and relaxes the tension of the stmoach which always accompantes and aggravates the disordered condition of the braine

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained. They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whoe system. The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegitable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders itemsy to administer them to children. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!
