[For the State Journal. CAMP JOHNSTON, MARTIN'S BRIGADE,) Lenoir County, July 9, 1862.

Messrs. Editors: I notice that whenever the editor of the Raleigh Standard publishes an editorial condemnatory of the State and Confederate Government. or Col. Johnston, the candidate for Governor, Loring of the Goldsboro' Tribune and Daily Bulletin, is very sure to copy the same into his paper.

But Loring is a Yankee, he is a native of Massachusetts—therefore we cannot expect anything better A VOTER.

> [For the State Journal, LENGIR, 18th July, 1862.

Messrs Editors, -Sirs: Our company went into the fight at the Seven Pines, near Richmond, with about one hundred men. In that fight we lost 42 killed and wounded-our gallant Captain, T. D. Jones, among the killed. In the recent fight near Richmond, our loss was heavy. We have now only eight men on duty. Two other companies went from this county, under Col. Vance, and in that great charge of "one mile and a quarter," spoken of by Holden, the two companies lost one man killed, and several wounded. It will be remembered that we are Company A, 22nd Regt. N. C. T. Our officers are all killed or wounded, except Lieut. W. B. Clark, who is still in command of the company, with one finger shot off. I know full well that our other companies from this county did their whole duty, but I find that if the N. C. Standard is to be the record of events in this war, we must be in Col. Vance's Regt. to have the name of good fighting. ROUGH AND READY, 22nd N. C. T. If our troops expect to get justice done by Holden, they will be awfully deceived. No one but Col Vance can fight-no (regiment but his knows how, or have the pluck to fight or to charge. Boys look to your own laurels.

Regiment went into the fight at Coal Harbor with 850 guns and charged alone and unsupported upon the battery on the extreme right of the enemy's lines, supported by the 12th and 14th U.S. Regulars and a regiment of Volunteers. The infantry were driven in and the battery carried. The Colonel was shot down before reaching it. The Lieut. Colonel was killed sitting on one of the guns. At this moment either the enemy or some dastard gave the order to retreat, which the Lieut.-Colonel hearing. repeated, and the regiment fell back, losing heavily in their retreat to the woods. Both officers and men agree that they could have held the battery but for the order to retreat. The distance charged over was 400 yards, across an open field up hill. When other troops afterwards charged and carried the battery, the regiment joined them. Since the fight the regiment has been engaged again in the battle on Tuesday evening, suffering severe losses, but they are not yet reported.

It will be so!

We do not care how earnestly the friends of Mr. Vance may attempt to free him from the odium of being the nominee, the mouth-piece, the tool of a certain clique about Raleigh. They may deny thisthey may persuade others that it is not so,-they may even go so far as to think themselves that it is not so. All this they may do, and thus succeed in freeing Mr. Vance from the evil effects of Holdenism in the canvass, but suppose that they do so-that they elect Mr. Vance, then comes the time of trial. Does any reasonable man suppose for a moment that Governor Vance could free himself from the control, the influence of the clique at Raleigh which has moved heaven and earth to get up a partizan contest in this State, which is now working the wires to add bitterness to this contest; which, as part of the machinery, has brought forward Zeb. B. Vance, of Buncombe, that he may be the screen for the powers behind the throne, greater than the throne itself? If any man thinks so. he is destined to an awful disapointment, should Mr. Vance be elected.

And Mr. Vance may be elected. He is a gentleman of popular manners ;-very popular "in a crowd." He is in the army, and his army position will be used by experienced masters in the art of electioneering. The corks have set and the wires worked a good way ahead, so as to stock the cards in his favor. While the mild "conservatives" have thus been working like beavers to affect their ends, the terrible "distructives" have thought any such movements at this time unpatriotic and improper-have avoided electioneeringhave called no meetings-have deprecated all excitement or division among ourselves. They have thought the war now going, afforded sufficient occupation for the thoughts and energies of all, without partizan quarrels or demagoguical appeals. Under these circumstances Mr. Vance may be elected, for he has all the advantages that electioneering can give him. But we warn those about to vote for Mr. Vance to pause and think whether, upon the whole, they approve the course of the Raleign Standard and its affiliated politicians; for, although by voting for Mr. Vance, they may not mean to endorse the course of this clique, they will find after it is done, that they have in effect, done so. Their votes for Vance will be referred to as so many endorsements of Holdenism, and more than that, they will find that, substantially, by electing Mr. Vance, they have placed in power the clique which rotates and gyrates somewhere in and around Raleigh, and does its publishing through the Standard. Mr. Vauce if elected, cannot and will not free himself from that influence. It is right that the citizens and soldiers alike should know this .- W U. Journal

Augusta, July 19. A special dispatch to the Savannah Republican of this morning, dated Knoxville, 17th, says the ball is at last open in Tennessee and the Confederates have no cause to complain. A dispatch has been received from Colonel Forrest, giving an account of the engagement at Murlreesboro'. A dash was made on the town on Saturday last and our success was complete. Colonel Forrest states that he captured twelve hundred prisoners, including two brigadier generals, four pieces cannon, beside a half million worth of army stores, which he destroyed. The Confederate loss was sixteen killed and thirty wounded, while the Yankees lost between two and three hundred.

After the capture of the town and securing the prisoners, Colonel Forrest fell back to McMinnville for fear of being surprised by a greater force. The Atlanta Confederacy of this morning says the Federals numbered eighteen thousand, and the battle lasted five hours. Colonel Forrest burned three locomotives, with freight trains attached, and the depot. All the prisoners have been paroled, except the officers, who were retained.

NOTICE.

N a former notice I stated that vegetables. fruits, clothing, &c., contributed for the sick and wounled in the hospitals in and around Richmond would receive prompt attention if sent to the Commissary and Quartermaster here and in Greensboro'. Since then it has occurred to me that many persons living below this point along the lines of our roads leading through Weldon would gladly send on things if they felt assured of their being received. To all such persons I would state that I have established a North Carolina Agency in Richmond to receive and distribute such contributions, and indeed, to receive and distribute anything intended for North Carolinians in the service about Richmond. Let everything intended for special distribution be so marked that it can be certainly known for whom it is intended, and it will be given out accordingly. Cotton taken in Payment for Land.

T HAVE FOR SALE A TRACT OF LAND BELONG. ing to the estate of James H. Fitts, containing 640 acres, lying upon the waters of the Roanoke River, about four or five miles below St. Tammany, and some 20 miles above Gaston. The most of the Tract lies in Mecklenburg county, Virginia, bordering on Warren county, N. C., adjoining the lands of A. G. Boyd, Capt. Hunt, Dr. Wm. . Howard and others, and is said to be by those who knew t best a very valuable tract of land. It produces well the crops usually grown in this country, Tobacco, Corn, Wheat and Oats, and I think is well located, being immediately on the waters of the Roanoke, by which all the produce raised on the farm for market might be delivered on the navigation line of boats and landed in market in less than 24 hours, a very great advantage when there is a rise in the market on wheat and tobacco; or, if desired, might be sent along one of the best country roads I ever saw seven miles to Warrenton Depot, on the Raleigh and Gaston Road, and from thence to Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk or Wilmington, giving the planter a choice of markets after reaching Weldon, N. C. The improvements on this place are of a very plain, substantial order, consisting of a dwelling house with four rooms and a passage, stables, tobacco barns, and houses for 30 or 40 negroes. The tract has a plenty of wood and water, and cleared lands on it for 15 or 20 hands, and lies in the immediate neighborhood of Nathan Malone, F. A. Thornton, P. Hinton and A. Boyd's saw and grist mills. I should be pleased to sell the above lands immediately, to pay the debts of the estate, and having learned from the principal creditor of the estate that he is willing to take cotton in payment of his debt. I will here state that cotton will be received in payment for this valuable property. Persons who may wish to purchase will address me at Henderson, N. Carolina. JOS.S. S. J ONE July 2, 1862.

MESSES. EDITORS-Dear Sirs: We, the citizens and soldiers of Craven county, do hereby request of you to an nounce the name of our worthy friend, NATHAN WHITFORD, Esq., of Craven county, as a candidate for a seat in the Senate of the next General Assembly of North Carolina. Mr. Whitford is a citizen of Craven county, and was the second choice of the people two years ago. He is and ever has been a true Southern rights man and has, during this war, remained at home, and has been not only assisting our army, but has done all that was necessary for our pickets—on account of which when the Yankees went to Swift Creek, they not only destroyed his THE Commissioners for Indigent families for property but carried off his negroes, and he had to fee his home to save his life. It would be useless to say anything in regard to Mr. Whittord's character and standing in Craven county, where he is known. Suffice it to say Mr. W is a worthy and honorable man, and one who, if electck, will discharge the duties imposed upon him with hon-or to himself, to his county and to the old North State.
