

NOTICE.

Custom-house, London, March 26, 1790.

WHEREAS, upon a misconstruction of the order of council, of the 3d of April 1789, for regulating the trade with the United States of America, mahogany and other articles, not the growth or produce of the territories belonging to the said states, have been imported into this kingdom, both in British and American ships:

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons concerned, that under the said order, the several articles enumerated therein, "being the growth or production of the territories belonging to the United States of America, and no other," can be brought and imported into this kingdom from the countries belonging to the said United States, either in British or American shipping.

By order of the commissioners,
JOHN GALE, Secretary.

INFORMATION WANTED.

IF FRANCIS TRUAN, a native of France, who came to America, and served in the army commanded by the count d'Estaing in Georgia, or some of the Southern States, will apply to Monsieur d'Gamble, at New-Orleans, he will be informed of a considerable sum of money which he may command for his services in the army, for his pension, and bravery in the service of his most christian majesty. The last accounts I had of him was, that he lived in Richmond, Virginia, and carried on business as a merchant.

PHILL. LAUCZE.

Georgia, June 2, 1790.

The printers of the United States will be paid by Francis Boloroun, for inserting the above advertisement, by sending their accounts to him, Charleston, N^o. 19, Queen-Street, near the old battery, next door to the governor's.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

ARE taken in this office for a work now printing by Francis Xavier Martin, at Newbern, entitled, "The Office and Authority of a Justice of the Peace, and also of Sheriffs, Coroners, Constables &c according to the laws of North-Carolina, collected from different authorities; but chiefly from a work of this kind, published in 1774, by James Davis, Esquire. It will contain from 4 to 60 pages, neatly bound and lettered; price 25/10 paid on subscribing; a list of 10 numbers will be bound in the book.—A specimen of the work may be seen.

THE Public is hereby informed, that agreeable to law, we the subscribers are appointed inspectors of beef, pork, flour and butter, for the town of Fayetteville: All persons offering for sale in this town any of said articles, must have them put up as follows, viz. Beef or pork in good 32 gallon white oak barrels, hooped with twelve good hoops, the heads doweled, and 3-4 of an inch thick, and the staves half an inch thick, sufficiently tight to secure the pickle, and to contain 220lb. of clean, well cured beef or pork. Flour to be put in good sufficient barrels, fit for exportation, with eight good hoops, and to contain 196lb. of good merchantable flour; the length of the staves ought to be twenty-seven inches; and the diameter of the head seventeen inches. Butter to be put in good, tight firkins, that will hold pickle.
