

quality of each witness to be written against his name.

The acknowledgement may be taken before any judge of a court of the United States, or of a superior court of law or equity in any state, or of a county court, or before the mayor or other chief magistrate of any place; or before a notary public.

In the acknowledgments, if the seal of a court, or corporation is to be affixed, the words "caused to be" may precede the word "affixed," the blank immediately following to be filled with a designation of the seal; as, that it is the seal of a certain court, naming it; or the seal of a certain corporation, naming it; or the seal of office of the party before whom the acknowledgement is taken, if he has one; or if he has none, with the words "my seal."

If there be no public or official seal to the acknowledgement, proof of the execution of the power must be made by oath or affirmation of one of the witnesses, to be taken before some person duly authorized at the place where the transfer is to be made.

FAYETTEVILLE.

ON Wednesday last the honorable the general assembly of this state proceeded to the balloting for a governor, public treasurer, &c. for the ensuing year, when his excellency ALEXANDER MARTIN, esquire, was unanimously re-elected governor, and the honorable JOHN HAYWOOD, esquire, public treasurer.

On Friday the balloting for holding the next general assembly was taken, when the votes were declared equal.

For Fayetteville, 75
For Newbern, 75

APPOINTMENTS.

Samuel Benton, colonel of the cavalry for Hillsborough district.

Robert Smith, colonel of the cavalry for Salisbury district.

Thomas Harvey, major of the cavalry for Edenton district.

The honorable Charles Bruce, and Philamon Hawkins, esquires, are chosen members of the general council.

In the county of Chatham, in this state, there is a kid, belonging to Henry Lewis Lutterick, esquire, of nearly the following description: It has but one eye, which is in the middle of its forehead, which appears to have the humours and coats of two eyes adhering together, having two pupils, and the whole being of an oval form, about twice as large as one eye ought to be; it has a large eye brow, a high forehead projecting considerably over the eye; it has no nose or nostrils appearing externally, breathing only through its mouth, about two inches broad, situate about half way between the eye and the chin, which projects forward, the mouth appearing like that of a person with a long chin, without any teeth; the body properly formed, of the common size, fleshy and strong; it did not at first suck its dam, but would drink milk from a spoon.

The following is a copy of an address transmitted to the President of the United States, from the Governor and Council of this state, at their last meeting.

To the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES.

S I R,

THE governor and council of the state of North-Carolina embrace the earliest opportunity afforded them since the accession of this state to the constitution, and the completion of the union by all the states, of congratulating you on this most auspicious event, by which all causes of future dissention among the states will be obviated—the impost, that great branch of revenue and support of public credit, collected with more facility, and our finances more properly arranged.

We congratulate ourselves with equal sincerity on beholding you, sir, in the highest department which your virtues merited, and to which your country unanimously and gratefully appointed you.

The importance of your situation receives additional dignity by the veneration your country bestows for your character, and from a confidence that every power vested in you by the constitution, will be exerted for the happiness and prosperity of your country, by giving efficacy to such a system as will secure the general welfare, and contribute to the public mind—a confidence shared by none more powerfully than the citizens of this state.

We have just received the information of your resignation, and in order to give effect to the same, we may truly say,
