

VENDUE STORE.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he has opened a VENDUE STORE in this town, where he has purposes disposing on commission, all kinds of merchandize, lands, stock, negroes, &c. &c. He flatters himself the particular attention he will pay to the interests of those who favour him with their commands, and punctuality in executing them, will entitle him to their future countenance.

JAMES BAKER.

N. B. On hand a good assortment of DRY GOODS and WEST-INDIA ARTICLES, which he will sell low for cash or produce.

Fayetteville, Nov. 4, 1790. 61—

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Salisbury, a likely NEGRO FELLOW, named ABRAHAM, about thirty years old, about five feet six inches high, and very lusty; is much pitted with the small pox, and of a yellow complexion; has a defect in his right hand, occasioned by a burn which he received when young, and which is very conspicuous. I will give THREE POUNDS to any person who will secure him so that I may get him again.

CONROD BREAM.

Salisbury, Oct. 28, 1790. 61—64

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscribers have taken that commodious and pleasantly situated house in this town, lately occupied by Mr. DORSEY, and improve the same as a

COFFEE-HOUSE and TAVERN;

and, for the accommodation of travellers, have provided a good set of stables. Those ladies and gentlemen who favour them with their company, may depend on their utmost exertions to give satisfaction.

They also carry on their VENDUE and COMMISSION business as usual, in which they prefer their services to such gentlemen as may have business to transact in this town.

JOCELIN & D'HERBEE.

Wilmington, November 22, 1790.

FOR SALE,

THAT valuable plantation, about three miles below Fayetteville, commonly known by the name of

Spring Hill,

now in the occupation of James Elsdorff, esquire, containing, with the lands adjoining, about sixteen hundred acres. The front on the river is above three quarters of a mile, and the lands for a considerable distance back, have a strong clay foundation, after which there is about two hundred acres of marsh and swamp, very rich, and part of it at all times dry enough for a corn field, with a quantity of valuable slave timber.—Through the swamp and marsh there is a never-failing stream, which formerly turned an overhot mill near the house; and on the back lands there is good pine timber, and a much larger stream of water, on which there was for a short time a saw-mill. The houses may be repaired at a small expense.

Produce or Public Securities will be taken in payment; and proposals will be received by John Hay, John Ingram, or William Barry Grove, esquires, in Fayetteville, who are severally empowered to make contracts—or by me in Wilmington.

A. Maclaine.

On the back parts of the lands there is a large quantity of stone convenient to the town, and generally preferred for building cellars.

November 20, 1790.

WHEREAS in the year 1771, I gave five obligations to Frederick Gobble, each containing the sum of seven pounds ten shillings, Maryland currency, (dollars at 7/6) and the first bond became due in August, 1772, and the next in August, 1773, and one became due in each year afterwards. I have paid and taken up all but the last obligation, which I have been always ready and willing to discharge; and being informed, that the said obligation was sent to this state, I take this method to give public notice to whomsoever may have such obligation, to apply to Ensil Gathier, living in the Forks of the Nadenkin rivers, in the county of Rowan, having requested him to discharge such obligation, as I am about removing to the state of Georgia.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

September 9, 1790.

INFORMATION is hereby given to all the military invalids of the United States, that the sums to which they are annually entitled, and which will become due on the 4th day of March ensuing, will be paid on the said day by the Commissioners of Loans within the states respectively, under such regulations as the President of the United States may direct.

H. KNOX,

Secretary of the Department of War.

General Skinner is Commissioner of Loans for the state of North Carolina.

Notice.

THE building of a goal for the district of Fayetteville, will be let to the lowest bidder, on the 27th instant at the court-house in Fayetteville, when the plan and dimensions may be seen. The person undertaking this work, must enter into bond with sufficient security for the true and faithful performance of the contract. Part of the tax for defraying this work is now collected, and ready to be paid to the undertaker.

The different sheriffs within the district of Fayetteville are hereby requested to stand in readiness to account with and pay the commissioners for building said goal, all monies in their hands levied for the above purposes, on or before the 26th instant.
