THE NORTH-CAROLINA

ALMANAC

For the year of our Lord 1791.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Iredell county, North-Carolina, on the first day of July last, a negro fellow named FRANK: he is of a yellow complexion, shews some marks of the small pox, is about 5 feet 8 inches high; has by running away before, and getting frost bitten, lost two of the little toes of his left foot, and part of the third one; I expect he will change his cloaths and name, and pass for a free man as he has done before, and endeavour to make his way to Fayetteville or Wilmington, and get on board some vessel, as he has often threatened so to do. Captains of vessels and others are cautioned on their peril not to harbour said fellow. Any person who will take up said fellow and bring him to me, or secure him so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges.

JOHN WORK.

October 18, 1790.

☞ The above mentioned fellow was taken and confined in Robinson county gaol, from which he made his escape on or about the 10th instant. Should he be taken again, it is particularly requested he may be so ironed as to prevent him again getting away.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscribers have taken that commodious and pleasantly situated house in this town, lately occupied by Mr. DORSEY, and improve the same as a

COFFEE-HOUSE and TAVERN;

and, for the accommodation of travellers, have provided a good set of stables. Those ladies and gentlemen who favour them with their company, may depend on their utmost exertions to give satisfaction.

They also carry on their VENDUE and COMMISSION business as usual, in which they proffer their services to such gentlemen as may have business to transact in this town.

JOCELIN & D'HERBE.

Wilmington, November 22, 1790.

For PRIVATE SALE,

Pursuant to the last will of Francis Clayton, Esq. deceased,

THAT well known valuable plantation and parcel of land, called Rocky Point, on the North-East river, in New-Hanover county, containing, by the original grants, 1920 acres, with a large brick house and other buildings—One hundred and ninety acres of this has been under crop this year, and is enclosed with new fence; and there are several hundreds of acres clear, and fit for immediate cultivation. These lands are some of the best in the State, both for tillage and pasture.

ALSO, the plantation and lands on the Sound, where Mr. Clayton usually resided (formerly Mr. Harnett's) containing about 800 acres, with a commodious dwelling house, and other necessary buildings—A considerable part of this is clear and under good fences, having been planted this present year, and is excellent for corn and indigo: with this, or separate, will be sold, an extensive range of banks, between the Sound and the Sea, esteemed valuable for stock and the timber, and on which is some good plantable land.

Credit will be given, and the payments received by installments; but in addition to personal security, mortgages on the premises will be required.

Proposals will be received in Wilmington, by Archibald Maclaine, Henry Urquhart, or Henry Toomer, the acting executors, to whom the lands are devised for sale.

N. B. On the first of January next, the negroes, consisting of above forty workers, will be hired in families for one year. Wilmington, Oct. 14. 59—
