REQUESTS all persons indebted to him, to make immediate payment, otherwise he will be obliged to their accounts in the hands of an attorney without partiality.—It is with much reluctance he informs those gentlemen whose accounts became due at the close of the last year, that the time has elapsed without a fulfilment of their engagements; he therefore gives this notice will be an inducement for them immediately to discharge their respective accounts.
