

Notice.

AT a meeting of the Commissioners for the town of Wilmington, held at Dorsey's on the twenty-eighth of January, 1789,

RESOLVED, That the Commissioners will meet weekly, every Wednesday evening at Six o'clock, at Dorsey's.

ORDERED, That the following places be the receptacles for all kinds of dirt or rubbish from the streets of the town:—In Second-street, the hollow between the house occupied by Mr. Alexander Hostler and the house of Mrs. Boyd. In the same street, the hollow between the East end of the lot formerly belonging to Mr. John Lyon and the West end of Mr. Archibald Maclaine's lot. The hollow in Dock street, below the intersection of Front street: And that all persons having dirt or rubbish lying before their doors or lots in the streets or alleys of this town, do remove the same to some one of those places on or before the twentieth day of February next.

ORDERED, That Mr. John Allan be appointed to take charge of the Fire Engine, and that he do have the same worked the first Monday in the months of February, March, April, November, and December, and the first and third Mondays in the other months; and that he be allowed the sum of eight pounds for the same, and for keeping said Engine in good order; and that he have two additional keys made to the lock of said Engine-House, one of which to be kept by Mr. Robert Wilkings, one by Mr. John Campbell, and that the other key of said house be kept by Mr. John Allan.

ORDERED, That at the meeting subsequent to the next meeting, viz. on the eleventh day of February, will be taken under consideration, the expediency of letting an assize of bread, when the respective bakers may attend if they think proper.

ORDERED, That in case of a fire happening in the town, during the night, every householder shall immediately, upon the first alarm, place a lighted candle in a window of their house fronting any street or alley, and in case of failure thereof to be subject to a penalty of forty shillings.

ORDERED, That the Constable be directed to have the bell rung every night at nine o'clock, during the winter, and at ten o'clock, during the summer; and that all Negroes found in the streets after the ringing of the bell, without a pass or a lanthorn, shall be committed to the stocks.

RESOLVED, That the Commissioners will visit every house in town, on the third Monday in February, for the purpose of inspecting the Fire Buckets and Bags, when all defaulters may expect to be fined as the ordinance in that case directs.

By Order,

ISAAC BERNARD, T. Clerk.
