

YOUNG PILGRIM,

WILL stand at my stable within two miles of Salisbury, to cover mares the ensuing season at two and a half dollars the season, one dollar the single leap, and four dollars to insure a colt. The season will begin the 20th of March, and end the first of August; and if the money is paid down, two dollars will be received for each mare in full for the season.

MAX: CHAMBERS.

March 13, 1800.

State of North-Carolina.

SECRETARY'S-OFFICE, February 15, 1800.

BY an act of the last General Assembly entitled, "An act to perfect the titles of the officers and soldiers of the continental line of this state, and of claims under entries made in the office of John Armstrong," the Secretary is authorized to issue grants upon issued warrants to soldiers that appears entitled by the muster roll, and such as may appear to be just by the report of the commissioners appointed in 1792; and in all cases where the soldier's right has been assigned to any other person, the Secretary shall not issue a grant to the assignee unless evidence shall be produced to him of the fairness of such transfer from the original claimant; and that no evidence shall be produced to the Secretary (or if produced shall be by him admitted) but such as may have been given by persons in his estimation disinterested and worthy of credit: Therefore, the Secretary, conceiving himself unable to judge of the disinterestedness and credibility of strangers, persons who may be introduced as evidence, and having no power given him by any law to administer oaths, and also for the convenience of persons living at a distance, Requires, That each and every person applying for a grant upon a military warrant, or on a warrant issued from the office of John Armstrong, and claiming the same by an assignment or assignments, must produce a certificate from under the hand of some one of the Clerks of the Courts within this state, with the seal of the county annexed, that the several transfers on such warrant has been proven in open court, and that by evidences, who, in the presence of such court, did declare on oath that they were disinterested, and that some one of the Justices of such court, then present, did also declare that he was acquainted with & believed such evidence to be of credibility.

WILLIAM WHITE, Secretary.

BRILLIANT.

WILL Stand one half of the ensuing season at my stable, and the other half at the stable of Mr. James Daniel's, to be moved alternately every ninth day during the season, which will commence the 15th day of March and end the 15th day of August, and will be let to mares at the reduced prices of two dollars the leap, four dollars the season and eight dollars to insure a mare with foal.

BRILLIANT's blood is so well known that it is unnecessary to insert his Pedigree, suffice it to say, that his blood and form is equal to any horses in this country, and his performances on the turf is considered equal if not superior to any horse of his day.

BATTELOUS.

AN elegant Skew-ball, near fifteen and a half hands high, will stand three days and a half in every week, viz. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday till noon, during the ensuing season, at my stable in Salisbury, and will cover Mares at the moderate price of Four Dollars paid in the season, or Five Dollars paid at or against the 10th of August next. The season will begin on the 10th of March, and end on the 10th of July. Any person that will favour me with their mares may depend on good usage.

BENJAMIN TORES:

SALISBURY, February 21, 1800.

PEDIGREE,

BATTELOUS was got by the celebrated horse Barb, bred in Virginia, of whose pedigree it is useless to say any thing; his dam was got by the famous imported horse Buckkin; his grand sire was the noted celebrated imported horse Bellides, Arabian, whose performance on the Turf, every sportsman of his days must be acquainted.

B. T.

M I D A S.

THE property of John Steele, Esquire; will be let to mares the ensuing season at my plantation, upon the following terms, viz. for the season six dollars, for the single leap three dollars, and twelve dollars to insure a colt. But any person paying within the season will be charged no more than five dollars.

M I D A S, was got by the imported horse Medley, his dam by the imported horse Flimnap, out of a thorough bred Fearnaught mare, formerly the property of Col. John Hamilton.

JOHN LOGKE.

March 6, 1800.

N. B. The season will begin the middle of this month, and end the first of August.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RUNAWAY from the Subscriber on Sunday night the 6th instant, a likely Negro fellow and Wench, by the names of Peter and Hager; Peter is a black fellow about six feet high, had on when he went away a green negro cotton jacket and a pair of homespun trousers, dyed of a purple colour, also, an old surlout coat of a grey colour much worn. Hager is a likely wench of a yellow complexion, about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, her dress is chiefly of homespun cotton cloth. Any person who will apprehend said negroes and deliver them to me, or secure them so that I get them again, shall receive the above reward, or ten dollars for either of them.
