The brother of the deceased, a lieutenant on board the Perseus, perished but three months since, when in the meritorious act of saving a fellow creature from a watery grave.—He was present when a timor unhappily fell overboard, and leapt into the sea to preserve his life, but in vain, he fell the victim of his own humanity; and thus, the same element has destroyed two brothers, who were the hopes of their father, and the beloved of all their relatives.

Who will refuse the pining sigh? What heart will not swell with the flow of sorrow? Sorrow must be the foil of him who would not comfort his parent's pang, and would not participate in sorrows like these!

PHILADELPHIA, July 7,

The ship Merita, capt. Thompson, arrived at Port Mifflin yesterday morning, from Leghorn, which we left the 20th of April, and touched at Gibraltar 27 days since.

On the 9th of May, I spoke an English squadron bound up the Straights. Capt. Thompson has brought with him a circular letter, addressed by our Consul at Leghorn, to the American masters of vessels, informing them of his having received official advice from the American Consul at Tunis, that the differences with the Barbary states had been amicably adjusted—capt. Thompson brings nothing new respecting the contending armies.

The Duke of Wirtemberg has commissioned a Major General Sigar at the head of 400 men, to execute a secret and important enterprise against the French. A wit observes that, if the commission should not be conducted with caution and secrecy, his enemies will make him.

 arrival at New-York.
Deal, May 20.

The Superb, Capt. Tryal, arrived in the Downs from Charleston, and landed her passengers at the King's Hotel. She was boarded in the Channel by a French privateer brig mounting 22 guns, and carrying 180 men, the Captain of which, after looking at her papers, ordered her to proceed. The French Commander said, that the American Commissioners had settled the differences between the two Governments, and that they would not capture any American vessels, except they had British property on board. The Superb had a cargo worth 25,000l.

By the arrival at New-York, we have the particulars of an attempt to assassinate the King of Great-Britain, by discharging a pistol at him in Drury-Lane theatre, by a madman—and a detailed account of a new Royalist Conspiracy at Paris, which was discovered about the first of May—a number of persons were arrested, who, it was alleged, were in the pay of England, for the purpose of placing France in the hands of its legitimate sovereign.—Copious details will appear in our next.

BOSTON, July 7.

Yesterday arrived from Halifax, Mr. S. Bridge, supercargo of the ship Juno, sent into that port some time since by the Cleopatra frigate. We understand that she has been libelled by Capt. Pelew; but it is with pleasure we learn, the judge of the admiralty court and the attorney-general, had asserted there were no grounds for her condemnation, and that they highly disapproved the conduct of Capt. Pelew in detaining her. We extract the following from a Halifax news paper:

HALIFAX June 21

The private armed schooner Eagle, Capt. Hutson, which sailed on a cruise on Thursday, the 13th inst. returned here on Friday last, and brought in the schooner Fly, Palmer from St. Sebastian's (Spain) bound for New York, for adjudication.

Letters from France, found on board the Fly, dated late in April last, mention, that the treaty between America and that country was progressing fast—and would probably have been concluded but for the indisposition of one of the commissioners. Persons were to be appointed on both sides, to enquire into the spoliation on
