The Mamle A. Hood All-Star Dramatic Company.

The Mamie A. Hood All-Star Dramatic Company presented East Lynne at the Metropolitan Opera House Monday night. This is one of the best colored troupes traveling in the South. Miss Dora Smith, the "star" of the company, is an emotional little actress, and only needs a more lively play, one full of merriment, as the vehicle of her acting ability. She is full of vivacity, is refined and grace ful. Miss Mamie Horton recited "Curfew." She is also a charming romantic little actress, and would most surely make a "hit" in a sentimental part. The commedians, Messrs. Kemp P. Plummer and John Warren, brought down the house. These gentlemen have gained national reputation as princes of fun.

Prof. L. A. Whitted.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Feb. 23, 1897. Pursuant to a call by Hon. Nelson Cald well the citizens of Chapel Hill met at the Congregational Church to hold memorial exercises in honor of our late friend, Prof. L. A. Whitted, who departed this life a few days ago. Rev. L. H. Hackney acted as chairman of the meeting, and George W. Pearson secretary.

The services were opened with music by the choir, "Thy Way, Not Mine," and prayer by Rev. Anthony Peden, of Oaks, N. C., after which the audience and choir sang very touchingly, "Come ye, Discon-The chairman, Rev. Hackney, then spoke of his very pleasant relations with Mr. Whitted, both as students in Shaw University and as citizens of Chapel Hill, after which Rev. Peden was introduced to the audience as the first speaker of the evening. He spoke of Mr. Whitted as a teacher and uplifter of his race. Prayer was then offered by Rev. John Caldwell. The choir again sang, "When Peace Like a River." Hon. Wilson Cald-well then addressed the audience. Among other things, he said: "We shall miss Mr. Whitted on the streets, in the schoolroom, and in the homes, for he was the best man he had ever known.' He was followed by Prof. P. L. LaCour, who spoke in very high terms of his friend and co worker. Again we were favored with music by the choir. At this juncture those of the audience who desired were given the privilege to speak. Among those who responded were Messrs. Amos Anderson, John Caldwell, J. J. Jones, E. D. Allen, William McDade and William Flanner, who made very timely remarks in respect to the beloved dead.

The committee on resolutions was then appointed, who submitted the following: WHEREAS, God in His wise providence has seen fit to remove from our midst our friend and fellow-citizen, Prof. London A. Whitted; and whereas we, the people of Chapel Hill, shall feel deeply the loss of so excellent a man; be it Resolved, That we, the people of Chapel Hill, have lost one of its best citizens, whose place it will be hard to fill, and that his influence for good in this community has been an inspiration to both old and young; be it further Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved friends and relatives of our deceased friend our heartfelt prayers and sympathy in this hour of affliction, and that we point them to hat One alone who is able to heal all our sorrows; be it also Resolved, That a copy of these resolu-tions be sent to the family of the deceased, and also that a copy be sent to the Raleigh GAZETTE and Hillsboro Recorder. P. L. LACOUR. ANTHONY PEDEN, WILSON CALDWELL, E. D. ALLEN, BASIL JONES, Committee.

A motion was then made to erect a monument over the grave of Mr. Whitted, and a committee to solicit funds for this purpose was appointed. Committee: Rev. L. H. Hackney, Messrs. Wilson Caldwell, Jesse Kirkland, William Mc-Dade and William Flanner.

The services were ended by singing, "I Shall be Satisfied." The music was beautiful and soul stirring.

The music was furnished by the three choirs of the city, Miss Lucy Cordal presiding at the organ.

As the music rose upward and our souls caught the inspiration we thought of the boys and girls into whom he had infused the principles of womanhood and manhood.

We thought as Ingersoll, "That if each bright face were to pass, if each loving hand cast a flower, he would rest tonight beneath a wilderness of flowers." Reston, thou sainted dead. We, too, have joined the innumerable caravan, and ere long hope to draw our mantles around us and lie down to peaceful slumber. Until then, we say, may our lives be as bene-ficial to those by whom we are surrounded, as unassuming as helpful, as grand and glorious. G. W. Pearson,

Latta Unsversity will be closed during the Christmas holidays for all the session for the purpose of rebuilding the buildings that were consumed by fire last May and also additional buildings. The University is located in the village of Oberlin, N. C., one and one-half miles west of the capitol building in the city. The location is the very best for a school, being out of the busy city, but within easy reach by means of the electric street cars. It is enough to say, that there has not been a single case of serious illness since the establishment of the school. Each dormitory is heated by stoves and hearths, so every necessary comfort is secured. The terms are very reasonable—$7.50 per month. Those desiring to reduce their expenses by work will be taken at the lowest possible rates: young men $6.40 per month; young women $5.40 per month; day students $1 per month. A small incidental fee will be charged. The school will reopen on the 7th day of October, 1897. Our purpose is to make it one of the largest schools in the South for the race. Law and Medicine will be added. The institution is wholly nonsectarian in its religious instruction or influence. Yet earnest attention will be given to Bible study, applying its truths to daily life and conduct, that a thorough Christian character may be obtained. It is open to all students of either sex. For further information, address the President, Rev. M. L. Latta, D. D. I will leave for the North and Europe the latter part of December or the first of January, and will return time enough to have buildings completed by the re-opening of the school. The University will contain eight buildings.
