At Shaw University, March 19, 1897.

There will be given a musical concert, consisting of mendolin piano, recitations, and one of Shakespeare's plays and sing-ing by the L. M. Club of the University. The public are cordially invited to attend. Admission 10c. Doors opened at half-past

Three Musical Stars.

Mr. M. X. Alston, the great musician, has been engaged by Dr. Shepard, Super-intendent of Colored Orphan Asylum at Oxford, to train a troupe of the orphans, to travel in the interest of that institution. The troupe may travel through the entire South and West. Mr. Alston is a Christian gentleman and as a musician, he stands high. He learns a class of forty-two pupils under Miss Anna M. Alston. The management has also engaged little Lucy Butler, widely known as the "Col-ored Jenny Lind," and Mr. Charles W. Morris is expected to join the troupe in May. With these race stars, we can say, there will not be a better troupe on the

How to Get a Public Office.

Many desirable offices are within the gift of the new administration. Those who wish to know what places can be had and how to get them, can obtain this information by sending 75 cents to Soule & Co., Washington, iD. C., for the "U. S. Blue Book," showing all government offices and salaries with Civil Service rules, sample examination questions, etc. Under present laws women stand an equal chance with men for positions that insure a comfortable income for life. The "Blue Book" gives complete instruction for office-seekers of both sexes, and is, besides, a valuable book of reference much in demand.

WAKE FOREST, N. C., March 8, '97. Hon, James H. Young:

Hilliardston Notes. Mr. B. L. Arrington has been on the sick-list, but we are glad to note that he is better. Rev. A. B. Alston, of Suffolk, Va., de livered an able sermon here last Sunday. Rev. M. T. Arrington held regular services at his church last Sunday. Mr. James Epps, of Rocky Mount, N. C., attended

Hilliardston's Christian people, as well as sinners, were in mourning over the passing across the silent river of the late sister Coatney Arrington, of the Baptist church. She was a veteran Christian soldier, working for the Master and her church. Her body sleeps, but the im-mortal soul is rejoicing in the presence of her Redeemer. She has fought a good fight and has gone up to wear her crown. Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from labor to reward sister Mourning Person, who was for 84 years consistent member of the Baptist church at this place, during which time she stood face foremost in the battle of of the Lord; be it

Resolved, that in the death of sister Mourning Person the Baptist church has lost one of its pillars, the community one of its oldest and most useful citizens. Resolved, that while we bow in submission to the dispenser of life and death, we mourn her loss and miss her cheering voice, but feel that our loss is heaven's gain

Prof. R. L. Powell, of Gold Rock, N. C., passed through town Saturday en route to Ransom's Bridge, N. C. Hon. W. W. Watson, of Whitaker's, bassed through town Sunday, returning home from Ransom's Bridge, N. C. Messrs. Webster Dixon, Dave Williams, Misses Dora Wright and Carrie P. Ar-rington, of Rocky Mount, N. C., were the guests of Mr. John P. Arrington Sun-day: the latter formerly of Huliardston day; the latter formerly of Hilliardston, but now of Rocky Mount, N. C.

Mr. Haywood Pippins made a flying trip to Tarboro this week. Mr. Wiley Whitaker went to Enfield Tuesday.

We attended the birth-day reception of Mr. Henry Howard last Friday and at night we had lots of fun. Mr. W. A. Arrington went to visit his sister, Miss S. M. Arrington, near Castalia, where she is teaching school. The establishment of the Normal and Industrial School for colored teachers is in memory of Hon. James H. Young. Barring will be the monument erected tute. to his great partisanship, at times he stands forth as the political leader among the negroes. Our honored Jim, by you we will stand, your battles will fight, your name will love, your cause will espouse until your opposers go down be-neath the mighty waves of an indignant people. You won the honors by which you have been decorated by your efforts for the people. We have more to which you are entitled, and in due season we will bestow them upon you. Who is like our Jim? He has brought freedom to us; in all of the struggles he labored in every way possible, losing sleep, spending time, using the wealth of his mind, night and has been asked to verify the charge. The ministerial entertainment, given under the auspices of Mrs. Maggie Cook and Mrs. Hattie Bullock, was a grand affair. It excelled anything given yet by our people. We hope to see it soon repeated, and let the grit man freeze the cream with a good-size spoon, with a pice spice of cake nice slice of cake.

The New Era Institute held at the First Baptist Church last Teusday, Wednesday Baptist Church last Teusday, Wednesday and Thursday was instructive to all who attended. Dr. Whitted and Rev. C. C. Somervill are two very able men in this great work. Dr. D. T. Vann, of Scot-land Neck, made one of the ablest talks we ever heard on Wednesday night. His subject was Biblical Theology—given in four lectures. The second theme was Christ the Light of the World; His teachings, miracles—Our Example. He was profound in every part of his illus-trations and heldhis audience spell bound for one and a half hours. The doctor was very witty all through his lecture. He said he had no respect for any man who would not make an honest living. He told a very amusing story of a tramp He told a very amusing story of a tramp who went to a lady's house and said he had had nothing to eat for a month. She told him if he would saw a little wood he could get a meal. After a few minutes of consideration, she allowed him to first have his meal, and then saw the to first have his meal, and then saw the wood. But the lady had to go up in the city to do a little purchasing and left the tramp to saw the wood. Whereupon, after she left, the tramp wrote a note and placed in the plate, which she found on her return. The note was as follows: "Just tell them that you saw me, but not sawing wood." This captured his audience, and he closed. Dr. Savage, pastor of the white church, gave a good talk on Thursday morning. At night Rev. C. C. Somerville made the effort for the occasion. He delivered an able address on Christian Education. He was very eloquent, indeed, and instructive throughout. He is an able man, and our people admire him for his race pride. The following ministers were in attendance: Dr. Whitted, Rev. Somerville, Rev. Hicks, Rev. Knight, Rev. Blocklell. Mr. David Winstead conducted the devotional exercises. The following white people attended: Rev. J. W. Powell, Rev. Sav-age, Rev. D. T. Vann, Mr. Geo. Parker, Mr. W. B. Spiers, Messrs, Simmons and several ladies. Thus ended a very successful and educational religious insti-

Mr. W. D. Adams and Mr. C. C. Forbes, who have been employed here during the Legislature, returned to their respective homes in Rockingham and Greenville, N. C., last Monday.

The commencement of the Oak Grove High School Friday last, March 12th, was a grand affair. There were quite a number of visitors to witness the good word of the principal, Mr. O. F. King.

Mrs. Mary E. Howell, who has been visiting friends in Greensboro and her sick father in Salisbury, has made her return to the City of Oaks, and will resume her place as organist at Blount Street Baptist Church. Glad to note that her father is improving.

Prof. Chas. F. Meserve has returned to the city from a trip North, where he has been earnestly working in behalf of Shaw University. The faculty and students were delighted to see Prof. Meserve in the chapel after being absent three weeks. He reports as having met with good success.

Thursday of last week the family and friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Spencer were caused to mourn. She died, leaving behind her glad tidings of great joy. She was a faithful member of Blount Street Baptist Church. Funeral exercises at the Congregational Church. Rev. J. J. Worlds officiated.

A few days ago three white boys, better known as toughs, broke into the colored school-house at Garner, damaged the chart, bursted several bottles of ink and carried away a dictionary, ink, pens. matches and paper. Rev. James Fuller, who has been employed as an assistant in the Enrolling Clerk's office for a short while, received a very high endorsement from Lieutenant Governor Charles A. Reynolds, as being a gentleman of ability, and that he performed his duties with much credit and satisfaction. We have known Rev. Fuller for years, and we know him to be a reliable man of high standing among the people.

A lady subscriber writing us says: "First allow me to congratulate you upon your recent victory. You are con-tinually adding new laurels to your already won fame. I am still a 'Young' woman, for in every battle you come out ahead. May you succeed in obtaining in. Flancy Jones, Ella Moody, Malisa Jenthe postoffice. You can dignify any po-sition within the gift of Mr. McKinley." We doff our hat and make our most graceful bow to this fair correspondent.

A leading and influential Republican of Eastern Carolina writes us as follows: "I see that you are prominently mentioned in the papers for the position of postmaster of Raleigh. I desire to say that it is known all over North Carolina that zealous and faithful and long service at the head of about 120,000 voters of the Republican party in North Carolins, and of which you are considered the ablest leader, certainly entitle you to any posi-tion in the gift of the Republican party in North Carolina, and if my official endorsement will aid you any please let me

Our work opened January 18th, with 113 pupils the first day. We have now 200, and still "they come." We find much remains to be done in laying a solid foundation in the way of what con-stitutes a true education. We are glad to learn of your great efforts in legislating to have better trained teachers, "for as the teacher, so are the children." The people here have not had their children instructed as they should have been, and they are not the cause of it. We are glad to say, with God's help, we are try-ing to convince the children of their error.

What are the boys of left out at the banquet, headed by Dr. L. A. Scruggs. So the boys of the "Old Dominion" expect to kill our boys and take the lead, after we have taken them here and elevated them to position that a Negro dare ask for in their own State. No, never! Any attempt to lower you only makes you stronger. Moses ! there are in North Carolina 120,000 voters, leaving out the women and children, and allowing five persons to each voter, would make 600,000 at your command; and "be assured" we will stand by you if we have to wade through bloody seas.

We need no advice from our sister State along the political line, and those who come from other States must take a back seat until they are invited to come up higher. If we have said anything too strong please erase it. But, Moses, we are your friend, because, through your efforts, we have been taken out of the hands of that Negro-hating party, and allowed self-local government, which is the voice of the people. May God bless you, and spare you many years to lead your Wedding Bells are Ringing --- Mr. Payton Brandom Heeds to the Call.

Mr. Payton Brandom led to the hyme-nieal alter Miss Annie Hariston, Mar. 11. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Shepherd at the Orphan Chapel, where a large crowd had assembled to witness the affair. Miss Hariston is formerly of Maxton, N. C., but has served as a teacher at the asylum for sev-eral terms. It was there that cupid's arrow struck that vital cord, which led to a new arena of life. While many hearts sat waiting for the entrance of the bride and groom, in came Master Frank Pinkston and presented the license to the Reverend, and while the dainty fingers of Mrs. R. Shepherd gentlely moved from in. Flancy Jones, Ella Moody, Malisa Jen-kins aud Dilcy Taylor, all marching to the right. Next came Mr. H. P. Petiford, the second groomsman, followed by Miss E. A. Puryer. Mr. Petiford march-ed to the left and Miss Puryer to the right. Next come Mr. L. P. Wortham, the best man, followed by Miss A. J. Black-nall, the bride's maid of honor; the groom came in all alone, marched to the left, shortly afterwards came his bride. He then moved back from the left and led her under a beautiful wreath of evergreen, where stood the Rev. Rob't Shepherd, waiting to join hands. At this time music ceased and the ceremony was per-formed, and the happy couple left for the home of the groom, where many useful presents awaited their arrival. Among
