CITY, COUNTY AND GENERAL.

HENRY L. ALSTON, Local Editor AND CITY COLLECTOR.

NOTICE.—Subscribers whose time has expired, will please come forward and renew their subscriptions, or their names will be dropped, as the new management requires it.

Marriage and funeral notices, in advance, fifty cents. Standing and transient notices, per line, five cents each insertion.

RALEIGH, N. C., MARCH 27, 1897.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Hon. M. L. Mott was here this week. Don't forget S. C. Pool's new book store.

Thanks to Mr. C. W. Young for a cash renewal of the Gazette for the past week.

Hon. William Royter was in the city this week.

Rev. H. P. Walker, of Tarboro, is in the city, visiting his family.

Mr. William Royter, of Oxford, was in the city last week on business.

Mrs. Pauline Conley favored us with a cash renewal this week. Thanks.

Rev. B. P. Peterson called at the Gazette office Monday of this week.

Rev. F. R. Howell favored us with a cash renewal Saturday of last week.

Mr. Leroy Whitaker remembered the Gazette in a financial way this week.

Mr. Hilliard Williams, who has been on the sick list for some time, is much better.

Miss Lucy Butler, of Wilmington, is in the city, visiting the family of Mr. John Alston.

Rev. J. P. Liles, of Carthage, has accepted a call to the Baptist Church at Fayetteville.

Mr. J. F. Holland, of Haywood, was in the city last week looking after some important business.

Buy your goods of Cross & Linehan. They will give you a little more than the worth of your money.

Mr. Edward Serita, one of Shaw's most promising law students, called at our office Tuesday last. Come again.

Mr. Henry Harris left the city Wednesday of this week for Lawrence, Va., where he has been attending school.

Prof. J. A. Savage, President of Albion Academy, was on the streets of our city Saturday of last week, and called at our office.

Rev. W. H. Horton, of Franklinton, passed through the city Monday, returning from one of his churches in Wilson county.

Senator W. B. Henderson was in the city this week. He will go to Washington City the last of this week on a business trip.

Eastern Snap Shots was inadvertently left out by the printer last week to our disappointment. However, it is good reading this week.

Miss Josephine Williams left the city Saturday of last week for Durham, where she will visit relatives and friends. We wish her a joyful trip.

Mr. Jas. D. Pair has returned to Shaw University after having taught a term of four months' school. The people highly appreciate his method of teaching.

To show their appreciation of the great work done here recently, by Father Fields, the S. Andrews Church, of this city, has presented to him a beautiful surplice.

Rev. John A. Kirks, D. D., of Boston, Mass., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Central Baptist Church, of Wilmington, N. C., to enter upon his duty the first of April.

Mrs. Lucy L. Peoples, who is well known to the traveling public, has moved to 313 South Blount street, where she is comfortably prepared to accommodate transient boarders.

Mr. George Riddick was a pleasant visitor at the Gazette office Saturday of last week. He says that it is the best journal in the South.

As a mark of respect to the deceased member of the Gazette staff, the office was closed on Thursday, the usual mailing day, hence the paper is one day late in reaching subscribers.

Prof. L. N. Neal was in the city this week, attending court as a witness for the State in the murder case in which a colored man was killed on the Louisville excursion year before last.

Hon. D. B. Sutton, of Wilmington, was in the city this week on business. We understand that he will be a candidate for mayor of Wilmington. He no doubt will make a good one.

Few good men really ever become interested in more than one occupation; but our pharmaceutical friend, Mr. John Harris, seems to be more interested in agriculture than in pharmacy.

Miss Mamie Douglas, of Fayetteville, who has been in the city at the bedside of her sick brother, returned home Saturday. We are glad to state that Mr. Douglas is able to be out again.

Mr. Q. C. Mias and wife, of Johnson county, was in the City of Oaks Monday of this week. Mr. Mias says the farmers of Johnson county are very badly behind with their work. The same may be said of the entire State.

Several sore-head negroes are circulating petitions in favor of A. W. Shaffer for Postmaster of Raleigh. Shaffer belongs to the kickers, and he has put his petitions in the hands of the right men. Let loyal Republicans beware of the fellows.

The man who thinks that Senator Pritchard and Governor Russell are not working together for the best interest of the Republican party is reckoning without his host. The success of the party in 1898 is paramount to all other considerations with both of them, and they understand each other fully.

The white Republican or traitorous negro who attempts to keep a man from being appointed to a position because he is a colored man, will find that his racket will not work under neither the State or National administrations, and that his influence will fade away into innocuous desuetude.

A white fellow, who has never voted the Republican ticket to our knowledge, walked up to another white man the other day and requested him to sign one of Shaffer's petitions, and informed him that if he did not sign it, that Jim Young would get the place. Whereupon the gentleman advised politely informed this busy-body that he had as soon have Jim Young for postmaster as Shaffer, and that he would not sign the petition.

A staunch Republican writing us says: "After a battle of fighting in the interest of the State and race, I trust you have the time for some recreation. If any one man has done more in a year for his race than you have done in sixty days, I should be glad to read the annals of his ancient or modern greatness. In the usual interest of the State, sir, we feel justly proud of you. Standing by the race as you have and conquering the Devil and all of his hosts, beyond all doubt, you have done more for all time to come."

The officers, teachers and scholars of the First Baptist Sunday-school are preparing to give a grand rally for the new church on the second Sunday in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Cook, of Clayton, were made happy last Saturday evening. It is a fat, bouncing little boy. The mother and little one were doing well at last account.

The municipal election in the city of Wilmington, which is to be held in May, will be a most important and interesting one among the local politicians of the city.

Hon. J. S. Leary, Hon. C. D. Waddell, Hon. M. T. Pope, J. T. Williams and P. N. Melcher passed through the city last Monday en route to Goldsboro, to attend the meeting of the Directors of the Insane Asylum.

At the proper time James H. Young will announce his candidacy for the Raleigh postoffice, and when he does the Coltrains may look out for the Fitzsimons blows. Don't forget this, boys, in your hurry to get petitions signed.

There is no objection to a man going to Washington long enough to lay his claims before the delegation and President, but to go there at the expense of the discomfiture of the delegation, and to the detriment of public business, is outrageous.

The Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum at Goldsboro met last Tuesday and organized by electing Dr. J. E. Person, chairman, and Hon. J. S. Leary, secretary. The Board also elected Dr. Ab. Alexander, of Tyrrell County, Superintendent of the Asylum, and adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. We shall say more of this later.

The Democratic officials at Raleigh, Goldsboro and Morganton Asylums are, like Democrats usually do, attempting to hold to the test notwithstanding the law passed by the Legislature. The matter will be tested in the courts. You can rest assured that Governor Russell will come out on top, and clean out the Democrats. Their action will only cause a little delay, but they must and will have to go.

We do not want to be misunderstood, hence we repeat again that who, though claiming to be Republicans, fought the issue of the State, need not expect to wield much influence in the councils of the party in either State or nation. We have a full roster of the renegades, and at the proper time will let the people read about them. Traitors must go to the rear. Men who refused to obey County and State Conventions must look out.

Mr. L. N. Holly and Miss Mary A. Baker have returned to the city, after having taught a term school at Shalwell, N. C. The commencement exercises will be held Friday of last week. There were quite a number of visitors present and they were highly entertained by the students and faculty. Prof. Bruce, of Shaw University, and others made interesting speeches. The examinations show that students have been under good instruction.

The Penitentiary Board, which Gov. Russell appointed under the act passed by the Legislature, met Wednesday of last week, and took formal charge of the institution in connection with Hon. John R. Smith, who had been previously appointed by the Governor, as Superintendent. Hon. Gaudin Deberry was elected chairman of the Board. They are making changes slowly, but making them just the same to the great displeasure of the Democratic test-suckers. We say that the Democrats ought to turn the Republicans and Populists in.

From time to time in future, as our opportunities may allow, we shall give a short review of the doings of the Republican and Populist members of the General Assembly. We shall give praise when merited, and censure when deserved. We shall state nothing derogatory of any member except what the records of the Legislature and party caucuses show to be the facts. We shall attempt to let the Republicans and Populists of the State know how the men acted for whom they voted. Stand from under.

The Board of Commissioners of the Agricultural Department at their meeting last Wednesday unanimously elected James H. Young, Chief Fertilizer Inspector, at a salary of $1,000 per annum. This is in part a recognition of the valuable services rendered by him in the recent battles for government by the people in the two past campaigns. This will not interfere with the running of the Gazette, as at all, nor take him out of the office fight, as he says, as soon as he is appointed postmaster, he will resign this place so that some other loyal and hard-working party man can get it. The Gazette appreciates highly this substantial recognition of its chief.

Why will Republicans hang around Washington, and annoy Senator Pritchard and Congressmen White, Linney and Pearson, when it is apparent to everyone that the Democrats will give many appointments until the business interest of the country is looked after by the passage of the useful tariff bill, which is now under discussion in the House. Our delegation to the State will give the impunity of office-seekers to even read the bill less more to prepare speeches for delivery on the subject. The rank and file of the party in the State are disgusted with the action of great herds swarming to Washington, and will applaud the delegation if they will cease all action along the line of appointments until these visitors return home.

Last Sunday was such a fine day that the beaux and belles of the city thronged the avenues and parks all day. College boys from Shaw and St. Augustine were much in evidence with their "city girls" in the afternoon. Girls, don't let them "fake" you.

THE PRESENCE OF SPRING. The spring is here, and soon the beaux and belles, Will be wandering together through dales and dells, Whispering the same old tale they used to tell. About loving each other, oh! so well.

The spring is here, and ex-President Grover, Will be roaming in the woods, the fields and clover, From the swamps where he used to rove. All the ducks in the land he ardently drove.

Deaths. Mr. E. B. Goins, one of our former citizens, died at his home in Washington last week. Memorial exercises in his honor will be held at St. Paul A. M. E. Church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Will say more later. We extend our sympathy.

Mrs. Betsy Dyer, formerly of Wilmington, died at Patterson, New Jersey, Tuesday of last week. She had a long and fruitful life. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church of that place. Her son John and his wife, and the wife of her other son, James, were at her bedside, but James being in the Navy could not be found.

The sad news reaches us that Mr. J. F. Baker was assassinated while sitting in his store at Dudley, N. C., on Saturday night, March 20th. This was a cowardly act, and we hope that the guilty wretch may be found out and prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Mr. Baker was an honest, upright, industrious man and was doing a good business in the mercantile line in his town. Up to this writing we have not received any of the particulars of the matter.

An Honored Visitor.

Little Lucy Butler, the colored Jenny Lind, was the guest of the Misses Gerrie and Jeanette Alston a few days last week. She was en route to Oxford where she will commence to prepare for a tour through the entire Southern States. Little Lucy is the greatest child-wonder in America. To hear her one forgets his real existence and imagines himself the audience of an angel. With her clear voice, her angelic appearance, her captivating expression, she can cause every emotion of the soul to be enthralled. While in the city an ovation was tendered her.

To Repair the A. M. E. Zion Church.

The rally at the A. M. E. Zion Church Sunday night was a financial success. A handsome sum was realized from the cards brought in by the competitors for the prizes. The successful competitors bringing in the highest amounts each, were awarded a gold watch. The first a beautiful parlor lamp to the second, a gold ring to the third. Mrs. S. J. Walker having brought in $22.31 received the gold watch; Mrs. Joanna Cardwell having brought in $12.00 received the first beautiful parlor lamp to the second, a gold ring to the third. Mrs. S. J. Walker having brought in $16.80 received the gold ring. The grand total amount raised was $22.06. Rev. E. Peggins has cause to congratulate himself on his financial success.

An Important Meeting.

The New Era Institute to be held at the Mount Street Baptist church, April 6-8, is a most interesting and profitable session is very interesting. Some of the prominent persons on the program to give lectures are: Revs. J. H. Scott, B. W. Spillman, Editor J. W. Bailey, Dr. A. W. Fosberg, Rev. J. H. H. Carter, Dr. W. G. Perry, John E. White, F. R. Howell, Dr. J. W. Carter, Dr. A. M. Simms, Dr. F. F. Roberts, President C. F. Meserve, Rev. O. L. Stringfield, Miss Sallie E. Hinton, Mrs. H. H. Hinton, and Miss Emma Miller. All ministers, deacons and church workers are expected to attend this meeting and contribute cheerfully and liberally to the work.

Rocky Mount Grits.

We are sorry to note the continued illness of Mr. Jacob Sherrard. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

The Grit man is kept so very busy these days that news items fall short.

A fine treat is in store for our people at no far distant date. The best talent of our town is now engaged in a tri-weekly rehearsal for a fine musical entertainment. Our people should prepare to see this treat.

It turns out that Mr. E. W. Wilcox is not postmaster here, but Mr. B. H. Bunn is holding the reins. We hope Congress man White will give the matter his immediate attention, and have the appointment made.

The Democrats have been crying pie, and saying the Republicans and Populists want it. But when it comes to changing the laws, they are ready to decide to whom the pie belongs. Why don't they vacate if they do not like pie. We hope to see the last one dusted at once.

That bouquet presented to our gallant Congressman, Hon. Gaudin Deberry, who he took the oath of office in Congress last Monday, was a fitting tribute indeed to one who is in every respect worthy to receive it. His conduct is proud of him, and his constituents know he makes no promise but he can and will carry out.

Miss Theodosia Horne visited her parents in Wilson last Saturday and Sunday. Oh, how lonely.

We certainly think Mr. W. R. Harrison should receive some recognition from the National administration, as he received the cold shoulder from the State. However, we do not think his claim for the post-office is sufficiently warranted for him to receive that consideration, which is possibly due him from the fact, he remained silent and on the opposing side too long. But we think he should receive a place in Washington City for services rendered.

Hon. H. P. Cheatham, we sincerely hope, will receive the appointment of Register of the Treasury, North Carolina, if the President is sufficiently warranted for him to receive that consideration, which is possibly due him from the fact, he remained silent and on the opposing side too long. But we think he should receive a place in Washington City for services rendered.

We notice some time ago our old friend, Prof. W. S. Hagans, of Goldsboro, was mentioned for the postmastership at that place. We hope Congressman White will use every possible effort to secure the appointment for Mr. Hagans; he is qualified in every way for the position.

We are sorry to have to note the death of Miss Priscilla Macklin. She departed this life last Friday evening. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved family. Mr. and Mrs. Macklin have lost six of their children within the last five years. This is a severe shock for them in their ripe years. The latter professed in the Christian faith and became a member of the Presbyterian Church nearly three years ago under Rev. C. Dillard. She was also a member of the Eastern Star of this place. Rev. C. Dillard preached the funeral at the house of the deceased on last Sunday.

Mr. James Minger, of Louisburg, was in town last Saturday.

The social entertainment given by the young men last week eclipses the season. It was a grand affair indeed. All honor is due to Messrs. T. F. Gee, J. L. Spicer, Jordan Ruyter and their associates. Have another, the girls say.

News reached here last Friday that Mr. Oscar Parker, formerly of this place, but recently of Baltimore, was dead. Mr. Parker was a very energetic young man. He very recently purchased a home and had gone North to reside in it.

We were certainly glad to see Mr. Pompey Horne in town last Saturday.

W. S. ARMSTRONG.

The Old Folks Home opened at Millbrook, March 18th, with two inmates, viz.: Mr. Lawrence Powell and wife. Mrs. Powell is well. She is now under the care of Dr. Nixon, M. D. We are doing everything in our power to forward this good work, and any contribution that you are disposed to make will be highly appreciated.

Yours for success, J. C. BARKER, Financial Agent Old Folks Home.

Social Life at Goldsboro. The front parlor at the Battle residence was brilliantly lighted last night, decorated on Wednesday evening of last week for the purpose of a social given in honor of Representative J. H. Dancy.

Madams Foreman, who was huzzed, proved herself a quite an entertainer. The following programme was rendered to perfection: Miss Emma Hoiges, essay; "The Woman of the 19th Century;" Mrs. Lizzie Blackman, solo; Miss Lucy Smith, recitation; Mrs. J. H. Dancy, recitation; Mr. J. H. Dancy, recitation; "Asleep at the Switch;" Miss Ida Hodges, solo; Miss Mamie Smith, recitation; Miss Georgia Peele, instrumental solo; Prof. J. B. Howell, Dr. J. E. Fort, Rev. John Dancy, delivered addresses which were very interesting and instructive. After which all retired to the dining room where we found a table heavily laden with most choice flowers. Fruits and candies, cream and cake were served in grand style.

A SPECTATOR.

Rev. A. B. Vincent says the Institute last week at Clayton was satisfactory in every respect. The lectures by Dr. Carter, Revs. Scott and White were some of the best that have been delivered.

Shaw University.

The commencement exercises of the departments of Medicine, Pharmacy and Law will take place in the college chapel, on Friday evening, April 2nd. The address will be made by Rev. H. L. Wayland, D. D., of Philadelphia. Diplomats will be presented and degrees conferred by Hon. Walter Clark, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. A brief address to the graduates will be made by President Meserve. Excellent music will be furnished by an orchestra. There will also be vocal music, all of which will be under the direction of Miss L. A. Haywood, instructor in music.

The doors will be open at eight o'clock, and the exercises will begin sharply at 8:30. Admission will be by ticket only, and it is desired that all attend should be in their places promptly so that the exercises may not be interrupted by people coming in after the opening hour.

On Sunday, March 28th, Rev. T. O. Fuller, of Franklinton, will preach the Baccalaureate Sermon in the college chapel at 11 a. m.

The exercises this year will be of unusual interest on account of the presence of Mrs. H. L. Wayland, wife of Hon. H. L. Wayland, who are the guests of President and Mrs. Meserve.

MORTGAGE SALE.

By virtue of authority conferred in a certain mortgage executed by Jesse Rowland and wife Hattie, duly recorded in Book No. 135, at page 323, in Register of Deeds office, Wake County, N. C., we will, on Monday, the 28th day of March, 1897, at the court-house door, in the city of Raleigh, at 12 o'clock, M., expose for sale and sell to the highest bidder, for cash, a very desirable lot of land, lying and situate in the village of Oberlin, Wake County, N. C., on the west side of the old Hillsboro road, near the Mount Moriah Baptist Church, adjoining the lands of Wm. H. Hinton, containing 25.50 acres, said land and others. Said lot fronts east on Hillsboro road, 52 1/2 feet, more or less, and runs back westerly in depth, 250 feet, more or less.

PAUL B. & MAYNARD, Attorneys for Mortgagee. This March 23, 1897.

NORTH CAROLINA—WAKE COUNTY.

In the Superior Court, April Term, 1897. ANNIE E. DUNIVANT vs. JOHN W. DUNIVANT.

To John W. Dunivant: You are hereby notified that your wife, Annie E. Dunivant, has brought suit against you to April Term, 1897, which will be the 19th day of that month, for divorce from the bonds of matrimony because of abandonment more than two years. You will, therefore, appear at said term of Court and plead, answer or demur to the complaint which will be filed during the first three days of the term; give the summons in this case against you has been returned by the sheriff of Wake county, with this endorsement: "After exercising due diligence the defendant is not to be found in Wake county, because he resides in Petersburg, Virginia." You will take notice that if you fail to answer, plead or demur, as herein required, that your wife will apply to the court to be allowed to prove the truth of the facts set forth in her complaint, and have a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

NOTICE. Latta University will be closed during the Christmas holidays for all the session for the purpose of rebuilding the buildings that were consumed by fire last May, and also additional buildings. The University is located in the village of Oberlin, N. C., one and one-half miles west of the capitol building in the city. The location is the very best for a school, being out of the busy city, but within easy reach by means of the electric street cars. It is enough to say, that there has not been a single case of serious illness since the establishment of the school. Each dormitory is heated by stoves and hearths, so every necessary comfort is secured. The terms are very reasonable—$7.50 per month. Those desiring to reduce their expenses by work will be taken at the lowest possible rates; young men $6.40 per month; young women $5.40 per month; day students $1 per month. A small incidental fee will be charged. The school will reopen on the 7th day of October, 1897. Our purpose is to make it one of the largest schools in the South for the race. Law and Medicine will be added. The institution is wholly non-sectarian in its religious instruction or influence. Yet earnest attention will be given to Bible study, applying its truths to daily life and conduct, that a thorough Christian character may be obtained. It is open to all students of either sex. None but competent teachers will be employed. For further information, address the President, Rev. M. L. Latta, D. D. I will leave for the North and Europe the latter part of December or the first of January, and will return time enough to have buildings completed by the reopening of the school. The University will contain eight buildings. dec. 5-6 m.

"Father Bruin and His Little Son."

In this grasping age when so many people want everything (for nothing) it is refreshing to go back to Mother Goose and read that Father Bruin's little son only wished for himself a nice Currant Bun. Side lines and Pinhook prices do not indicate a prosperous business. We do not advertise Cheap Goods, or we have them in stock and sell when asked for, but in the language of Uncle Moses Salter, "It flings a dampness" on us to show them.

We would rather sell one dollar's worth of nice stock than two dollars' worth of poor stuff at the same rate of profit. We rely upon the quality of our goods to build up and keep trade. We have the best of everything in our line, and it is a great satisfaction to exhibit it. Our prices are as low as such goods will afford, and we are not afraid to compare price-lists with any house, North or South.

Our Flour, Coffee, Tea, Butter and all food products are the finest money will buy in any market. California and Florida Fruits and Vegetables received every day.
