RALEIGH, N. C., APRIL 17, 1897.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Tell your neighbor to register. Hon. D. B. Sutton is in the city this week.

Mr. Peter Harris gave us a call this week. See that your name is on the registration book.

Mrs. Haynes Clark is still on the sick list, but improving. White parasols for Easter, 99c. each, at Woolcott & Sons.

Mrs. Wright Brasil, who has been very sick, is improving.

Mr. W. H. Dowd closed his school at Raleigh on Friday.

Let the campaign slogan be: "Anything but the best."

Miss Lucy A. Smith was among our cash renewers last week.

S. C. Pool will give you an excellent bargain in fine foot gear.

Let every Republican register next Saturday, as that is the last day.

Mrs. E. T. Allen, of Wilmington, is visiting Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Branch.

We are glad to see Miss Laura Edwards out again after being sick several days.

Mr. James Higgs has moved from Newbern to his new home in Idlewild.

Don't forget Mrs. Martha Johnson's first-class restaurant, 227 S. Wilmington street.

Let every Republican do his duty in this fight and the city ring will be destroyed.

The Russ administration spent more money by over $7,000 than they collected last year.

Rev. S. S. Herderson, of Greensboro, was in the city attending the Institute last week.

Mrs. Rebecca Hargrave, the mother of Mrs. J. H. Branch, is in the city visiting her daughter.

Mr. Alfred Robinson, one of Uncle Sam's efficient clerks, is in the city this week.

Dr. J. O. Crosby, principal of the State Normal School, Salisbury, was in the city last week.

Mrs. Charlotte Kelly has returned to the city from H. H. H. where she went to visit relatives.

Rev. James H. Danston, of Morrisville, attended the Institute at Blount Street Church last week.

Editor Scott, of the Wellington Sentinel, was in the city this week in the interest of his paper.

Miss Janie De nam remembered us in a financial way this week. "Much obliged, ma'am."

Rev. J. C. Love preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian Church Sunday of this week.

Rev. J. C. Love will preach at the Blount Street Baptist Church Sunday next at 11 o'clock A. M.

Lawyer W. H. Quick, of Rockingham, was in the city this week to argue a case before the Superior Court.

Hons. J. T. Howard and A. R. Middleton passed through the city this week en route to Washington, D. C.

Mr. F. P. Thorpe and Mr. Alex. Hunter, two prominent citizens of this county, were in the city Saturday.

Easter hats for ladies and misses. If you want one look at Woolcott & Son's display; they are stylish and cheap.

Prof. R. A. Caldwell, Mr. W. C. Cole and others attended a meeting of the N. P. A. in this city this week.

Mr. Benj. Miller left the city last week. We feel sure that Miss M. Harris will be quite lone some during his absence.

Mr. W. H. Ray closed a four months' term of school at Millbrook Saturday night with an excellent entertainment.

Don't fail to put your name on the registration book Saturday if you want to vote in the approaching city election.

Rev. Thomas Morrison, of New Hill, was in the city Saturday. Rev. Morrison has just closed his public school at New Hill.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Dr. Harmon H. Perry, of Fayetteville, to Miss Helena Scott, of Keyser, on April 19th.

Rev. C. Dillard, of Goldsboro, attended the Presbytery that met at Franklinton last week. He went on to Washington City.

Mr. G. J. Jones was a pleasant visitor at our office Saturday last week. He had his name attached to our subscription list.

Miss Cora A. Fair, who recently completed a term of school near Millbrook, Wake County, was in the city Saturday last week.

We were pleased to meet Miss Nannie Brinkley and sister at Wilson. Miss Nannie had her name placed on our list of subscribers.

Mr. B. B. Stevens, of Goldsboro, returning from a business trip in the western part of the State, stopped a few hours in our city.

Rev. W. T. H. Woodward, pastor of the Baptist Church, Wilson, has met with much success in the revival that has been going on for three weeks.

We called on the office of Dr. J. E. Fort and had a pleasant little talk with the doctor. He told us to place his name on the list of the GAZETTE subscribers.

The following bevy of lovely girls stormed our sanctum last Friday afternoon: Misses Haute and Claudine Tucker, Misses Lina and Emma W. Hines.

Dr. George Williams is becoming more and more prominent as a young physician. We hope the people of Wilson will give Dr. Williams their support.

Messrs. Henry Williams, H. H. Tatum, J. J. Jones and J. W. Johns left the city Monday morning on their way to New York City. We wish the gentlemen a safe trip.

The Independents held a meeting Tuesday night and nominated Mr. Frank Stronach for Mayor. The meeting developed considerable more strength than was expected.

Rev. W. A. Jones, who closed a very successful term of school last Tuesday, the 6th, near Millbrook, called at our office Monday and kindly favored us with a cash renewal.

The Republicans of the city are enthusiastically, and almost unanimously, falling in line for the Independent ticket headed by Mr. Frank Stronach, who is running for Mayor.

A large and rousing meeting endorsed Stronach was held in the Fourth Ward Monday night. Sheriff Jones, J. H. Young, Stewart, Ellison, G. L. Townsfolk, and others, addressed the meeting.

Judge Thos. H. Sutton, the newly appointed Judge for the Eastern Criminal Court, held his first court at H. H. H. last week. His ruling as judge was well spoken of by those who attended his court.

The juvenile class, of which Miss Louisa Mitchell is teacher, will have a street parade on Monday afternoon and a festival that night at Royal Knights' Hall. Admission is free. Quite an enjoyable time is expected.

Rev. J. H. Mattocks, Presiding Elder of the Methodist Church, wedded Miss Tamara Gardner, of Rockingham, last Monday, the 5th. They passed through the city on the train en route to Goldsboro last Tuesday.

Rev. W. A. Bryd and Messrs. W. H. Burton, Frank Cobb and S. H. Vick, gave us the third week. They had been in attendance on the Presbytery at Franklinton, where they reported a profitable session and pleasant time.

Mr. J. K. P. Exum, a prominent young man from Eureka, Wayne county, led Miss Lizzie White, daughter of Mr. William White, to the hymenal altar on the 8th inst. We wish the newly married couple a happy life's journey.

Miss Octavia A. Barker, of New York, favored the Old Folks' Home with $10. That goes to show the interest the beloved young lady has in a good work. Rev. J. C. Barker is having good success with the above named institution.

Miss Cora A. Fair closed a three months' term of school at Millbrook last Tuesday, the 6th. Miss Fair is one of the leading and most promising young lady teachers in Wake County. She has made a success as a teacher since entering the profession.

The reel-house, apparatus and two horses, of the Victor Fire Company, were destroyed by fire Wednesday night last week. This is one of our best companies and should at once be equipped for fighting fire. Let the city do its duty by them.

We hope to have a clean campaign and a discussion of the issues, but if the opposition desires a little more fighting they are respectfully informed that we are ready and prepared for it, and that "Barkis is willing." A hint to the wise is sufficient.

The election of J. N. Holding, as chairman of the Democratic city committee, shows that they are prepared to run a boodle campaign. You remember that it was Holding who advised a convict to vote and paid him to work for Broughton in the last election.

The Southern Field, issued by the Southern Railway, reaches us to-day. This is a useful and instructive newspaper and is devoted to the agricultural, manufacturing, mining and business in the South. It is a very valuable paper.

Mrs. B. O'Kelly and other ladies, of Method, have organized a club in the interest of the Old Folks' Home. They are now making provision for bedding and other articles needed at that institution. The people should take example from those Christian ladies.

S. A. L. Magaldi, devoted to, and issued by the Standard Air-Line, comes to us this week and, as usual, is full of useful information, not only for the home-seeker, but for those already located in the fertile section with which it deals.

Mr. J. A. Hogans, a merchant and man of business, is a candidate for Steward of the Goldsboro Asylum. He is favorably spoken of for this place by his friends, and should be given the place we predict he would make an efficient officer there.

Mrs. Louisa Martin will leave for Lawrence, N. C., in a few days, where she will reside in future with her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Bryan. Little Louise Martin will also go with her. We regret to lose them from our city, but wish for each of them a pleasant time in their new home.

Capt. J. E. Pogue, one of our most progressive citizens, is erecting a fine residence on the corner of Fayetteville and Cabarrus streets. It will be of the latest style and equipped with modern improvements. Capt. Pogue knows how to have things both useful and ornamental, as well as convenient.

Don't forget the entertainment at C. x Memorial Church, corner East street and Newbern Avenue, Monday night. A select program has been arranged, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, select reading and recitations by ladies and gentlemen. Refreshments will be served. Admission free. The church is open to all.

Mr. M. H. Dowd closed his school at Garner Friday evening of last week. There was a large number of spectators present to witness the wonderful display of the students. The exhibition was one of the most interesting ever known at that place. The students carried out the program like heroes. Everything proved that Mr. Dowd has been a most efficient instructor.

Dr. E. C. Merchant, who recently graduated from the Philadelphia Medical School, left the city last Tuesday for Lynchburg, Va., his home, where he will spend a few days visiting his mother and relatives. He will then proceed to Charleston, W. Va., to meet the State Board of Pharmacy Examiners. He will then enter the drug business in the above named city. We have bright hopes for Dr. Merchant.

Governor Russell authorizes us to say that he has visited the asylum elected principal of the asylum at Goldsboro, and that all reports, emanating from whatever source, to the contrary are based on false and without foundation. This is a sinner to these enemies of Governor Russell who have known so industriously circulating what they knew to be false. We shall say more of this matter later.

Are the police force of Raleigh paid to do legitimate work or to do the work of political canvassers for the Democratic party? The tax-payers should note this fact that the policemen have for the past ten days neglected their duties and, under the direction of some political boss, given their time to making a house to house canvass for the approaching city election. Let the people rebuke this offensive partisanship on the part of these police officers.

Who can say the new election law is not a fair and just one, and does not give to all men their rights? We happened to stop at Halifax a short while last Tuesday and dropped in on the commissioners' room, where the board was in monthly session. We had the pleasure of seeing a colored man sitting as a member of said board, a man of property and a business man, with two white Populist members and two white Democrats (who are not members because the people did not elect them). This member we speak of is Mr. E. Anthony, a man of intelligence and of business qualities. This is what we are entitled to and the Republican and Populist parties have given it to us. Mr. Anthony is also a prominent candidate for the post-office at Scotland Neck.

The First Baptist Sunday-school, of Raleigh, had a rally last Sunday afternoon for the new church, at which they raised the sum of $141. This was considered a snug little sum in view of the fact that they were only about two weeks in working it up. They had quite an interesting program, which was greatly enjoyed by the large congregation present. Notes were offered. Rev. World's class led the Bible classes with a collection of over $13, while Miss Maude E. Young's class led the primary department with over $5. Mr. William Vass led the officers and teachers with $2.75, while Mr. Peter Cobble led the individual scholars with $4. Superintendent Young expressed himself as highly gratified at the effort of all the first school for their work, and the generous friends, both white and colored, for their liberal contributions.

One of the best organized societies in the city for the relief of the poor boys is the Boys' Guild of St. Ann's Episcopal Church. They have the city divided into four wards and a committee to each ward, to visit the poor boys and get them to attend Sabbath School. They are doing a great work for God and the community. They have such tried and unselfish officers as Williams, Hoover, Hill, and King, that they are bound to have success in their efforts of mission.

Mayor Russ, in accepting the nomination last week, said to the convention, among other things: "Register and vote, and if you find some fellow lurking on the outskirts waiting for a drink or something else, carry him to the polls and vote him, if you have to give it to him." This strikes us as rather peculiar advice for the chief officer of a large city like Raleigh to publicly give to his party friends. If our memory is correct we think the election law prohibits the giving of drinks on election day. The "something else" must refer to boodle. If, that, too, is prohibited in the election law and severe penalties imposed for a conviction of such an offense. The Mayor, being a law officer, ought to give other advice than advising men to violate the law. What do the people of Raleigh think of this advice? Let them answer by their votes on election day.

If you want to save money buy your groceries at Woolcott & Son's Department store.

Saturday morning of last week the city boys and girls were much in evidence with their country friends. They turned out in a large number to attend the commencement of the city school, in District No. 5, Wake County. The commencement was a brilliant affair. The public was highly favored with music, also one of the most up-to-date receptions of the season. The program was a very interesting one, and the music made the exhibition a very efficient affair. One of the most interesting features of the evening was a sermon by Mr. Bud Hinton. His text was the 16th chapter of 1 Peter, "Be ye sober, and watch yourselves, for the devil is your enemy." He dwelt on the words of the evening. The fine display of the students showed that Mr. Ray had given to the students good instruction.

Rev. Cesar Johnson gave a reception some days ago complimentary to Miss Pearl Watson, and among the invited guests we note the following: Miss Maude Books, Hon. J. H. Young, wife and daughter, Rev. H. King, and wife, Rev. A. W. P. Gues and wife, Miss Edna Wilkins, Mrs. O. C. Bolden, Rev. J. E. King and wife, Mr. Louis Young and family, Mr. Charles Holland and wife, Miss Leanne Brown, Dr. N. F. Roberts, Rev. Joseph P. N. F., Miss Edna Fuller, Prof. W. F. DeLann, Mr. Louis Bemy and wife, Mr. Brodie Rogers, wife and daughter, Mr. Stephen Hawkins and wife, Miss Nellie Cooke, Miss Nixon and her family, and others. At this reception quite a pleasant time was spent for several hours. Rev. Johnson, though still among the unapproached staff of cupid, is a hostess of the first order. The ladies should make a note of this.

Shaw, boys, a certain Mr. Nathan el S—, a "Normal boy" from Halifax, has been given the "old shoulder" by one of his city girls lately. Take it easy, chum, "we've all been there before, man's the time." Study hard, and try to forget it, old boy.

To the many kind friends who so faithfully rendered kindnesses in the recent great sorrow that has come to me, I here with tender my sincere thanks and ask your prayers for sustenance in the greatest sorrow that my life has ever known. Respectfully yours, IDA M. MITCHELL.

The annual sermon of Prime Edward Lodge No. 2051, G. U. O. of O. F., of Franklinton, N. C., and Household of Ruth No. 771, will be preached on the first Sunday in May, 1897, by Rev. E. O. Fuller, A. M. P. N. F., G. R. E. Will address the congregation on "The Principles of Odd Fellowship" just before the sermon. P. N. F., W. H. Hester will be Chief Marshal. P. N. F., F. J. Tolson, brother, as assistant. The sister lodge near around have been invited to take part. Let everybody come and hear these noble speakers promulgate the principles of Odd Fellowship.

Yours, in F. L. and T., A MEMBER OF THE ORDER.

New Era Institute at Seaboard. There will be a New Era Institute at Seaboard, N. C., on April 22, 1897. Dr. N. F. Roberts, Rev. S. B. Brown, Rev. A. Cree and Dr. T. J. Taylor are expected to assist.

The meeting will open Thursday at 9:30 o'clock and continue to ten days. A. B. VINCENT.

New Era Institute. WARSAW, N. C., April 13, 1897. DEAR EDITOR: Please announce in your local paper that the New Era Institute will be held at Wilington, in Shiloh Baptist Church, on April 20-22.

President Meese, of Shaw University, and Rev. W. B. Oliver, of the white Baptist Church, will deliver lectures. We anticipate one of the grandest meetings we have had in the city. Yours truly, C. C. SOMERVILLE.

When Gertrude Smiles. When Gertrude smiles then all seems bright, Be the day e'er so cloudy, or dark the night; Her smile e'er cheers the downcast heart, And oft befalls the wound of cruel Fate's dart.

In Memoriam of little Edward Lomrey. BY E. D. HALL, KINSTON, N. C. I shine in the light of God, His image stamps my brow; Through the shadows of death my feet have trod, But I reign in glory now! No broken heart is here, No keen and thrilling pain, No wasted cheek and the burning tear, Has rolled and left its stain.

I have found the joys of heaven, I am one of the angel band; To my head a crown is given, And a harp is in my hand. I have learned the song they sing, Whom Jesus hath made free; And the glorious walls still ring With my new-born melody!

Mother, father, weep no more; Do you mourn when another star shines out from the glorious sky? Do you weep when the noise of war?

And the rage of conflict die? Why, then, should your tears roll down, For your hearts be sorely riven— For another gem in the Saviour's crown, And another soul in heaven?

FITZSIMMONS!

NORTH CAROLINA—WAKE COUNTY. In the Superior Court, April Term, 1897.

ANNIE E. DUNIVANT vs. JOHN W. DUNIVANT.

To John W. Dunivant: You are hereby notified that your wife, Annie E. Dunivant, has brought suit against you to April Term, 1897, which will be the 10th day of that month, for divorce from the bonds of matrimony because of abandonment for more than two years. You will, therefore, appear at said term of Court and plead, answer or demur to the complaint which will be filed during the first three days of the term; that the summons in this case against you has been returned by the sheriff of Wake county, with this endorsement: "After exercising due diligence the defendant is not to be found in Wake county, because he resides in Petersburg, Virginia." You will take notice that if you fail to answer, plead or demur, as herein required, that your wife will apply to the court to be allowed to prove the truth of the facts set forth in her complaint, and have a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

NOTICE. Latta University will be closed during the Christmas holidays for all the session for the purpose of rebuilding the buildings that were consumed by fire last May, and also additional buildings. The University is located in the village of Oberlin, N. C., one and one-half miles west of the capitol building in the city. The location is the very best for a school, being out of the busy city, but within easy reach by means of the electric street cars. It is enough to say, that there has not been a single case of serious illness since the establishment of the school. Each dormitory is heated by stoves and hearths, so every necessary comfort is secured. The terms are very reasonable—$7.50 per month. Those desiring to reduce their expenses by work will be taken at the lowest possible rates: young men $6.40 per month; young women $5.40 per month; day students $1 per month. A small incidental fee will be charged. The school will reopen on the 7th day of October, 1897. Our purpose is to make it one of the largest schools in the South for the race. Law and Medicine will be added. The institution is wholly non-sectarian in its religious instruction or influence. Yet earnest attention will be given to Bible study, applying its truths to daily life and conduct, that a thorough Christian character may be obtained. It is open to all students of either sex. None but competent teachers will be employed. For further information, address the President, Rev. M. L. Latta, D. D. I will leave for the North and Europe the latter part of December or the first of January, and will return time enough to have buildings completed by the opening of the school. The University will contain eight buildings.

"Father Bruin AND HIS Little Son."

In this grasping age when so many people want everything (for nothing) it is refreshing to go back to Mother Goose and read that Father Bruin's little son only wished for himself a nice Currant Bun.

Side lines and Pinhook prices do not indicate a prosperous business. We do not advertise Cheap Goods. We have them in stock and sell when asked for, but in the language of Uncle Moses Latta: "It flings a dampness" on us to show them.

We would rather sell one dollar's worth of nice stock than two dollars' worth of poor stuff at the same rate of profit. We rely upon the quality of our goods to build up and keep trade. We have the best of everything in our line, and it is a great satisfaction to exhibit it. Our prices are as low as such goods will afford, and we are not afraid to compare prices lists with any house, North or South.

Our Flour, Coffee, Tea, Butter and all food products are the finest money will buy in any market. California and Florida Fruits and Vegetables received every day.

For further information, address the President, Rev. M. L. Latta, D. D. I will leave for the North and Europe the latter part of December or the first of January, and will return time enough to have buildings completed by the opening of the school. The University will contain eight buildings.
