Sampson Arderson, who but a few days ago, was bragging of his Democracy, was given the marble heart by his Democratic colleagues for Lee Christian, a new comer from Richmond county. Lee is a good fellow, but if he knows where the cemetery is, we are sure that he does not know the location Mr. W. H. Dowd left for Philadelphia of a single owner's lot. But, then, what does Democracy care about the cemetery owned by negroes. The negroes who voted for Democracy, many of whom were Anderson's bosom friends, should have looked out for his interest.

He arrived Saturday afternoon, and was soon domiciled with the paster on Cool Spring street. At 11 o'clock, on Sunday morning, to an intelligent and appreciative audience, he preached a logical, forceful and edifying sermon. At 3 o'clock, in the afternoon of the same day, he addressed the Sunday school in an able, telling manner to the delight of all present. Again at 8 o'clock, in the evening, he preached a powerful and philosophical sermon to an assemblage not wanting in interest at the preacher's evident familiarity with Biblical truths, and the very striking manner with which he presented them. Monday and Tuesday afternoons he delivered, well chosen, apt and eloquent addresses to fair audiences, which can be but like bread cast upon the waters. Tuesday morning he visited the State Normal school, located here, and delivered a most practical and effective address to the faculty and students, who fully enjoyed and heartily appreciated the earnest and eloquent ef-fort. He addressed a large audience again on Tuesday evening at the Baptist church. I shall not attempt to give a synopsis even of either of the three sermons or four addresses, which our able, zealous and faithful missionary delivered during his four days sojourn in our queenly Cape Fear city, but it will suffice to say that Rev. Joseph Perry's visit to this city, has been helpful to the church, an impetus to the Sunday-school work and stimulating

Baccalaureate Sermon.

Last Sunday forenoon, at the First Baptist Church, Rev. J. J. Worlds preached the baccalaureate sermon for the students of Shaw. He took nis text from Prov. 23:26, and proceeded eloquently to warn and advise the students and graduates in a manner that would have done credit to any divine in our city. The church was crowded, every seat being taken except those reserved for the faculty and students, in five or ten minutes after the closing of the Sunday-school. In due time the students, headed by President Meserve, the other members of the faculty and the graduating class, wearing the University's colors, arrived and were escorted to their seats by the Hon. Jas. H. Young. The choir, under the leader dership of Mr. G. A. Mial, furnished music of a high order, Miss Mamie M.

After the sermon President Meserve, in a few appropriate words, thanked the church for the service held for the benefit of Shaw's students. After having been dismissed, the congregation re-mained seated until the students passed out in the same order in which they en-

Latta Unsversity will be closed during the Christmas holidays for all the session for the purpose of rebuilding the buildings that were consumed by fire last May, and also additional buildings. The University is located in the village of Oberlin, N. C., one and one-half miles west of the capitol building in the city. The lo-cation is the very best for a school, being out of the busy city, but within easy reach by means of the electric street cars. It is enough to say, that there has not been a single case of serious illness since the establishment of the school. Each dormitory is heated by stoves and hearths, so every necessary comfort is secured. The terms are very reasonable—$7.50 per month. Those desiring to reduce their expenses by work will be taken at the lowest possible rates: young men $6.40 per month; young women $5.40 per month; day students $1 per month. A small incidental fee will be charged.

The school will reopen on the 7th day of October, 1897. Our purpose is to make it one of the largest schools in the South for the race. Law and Medicine will be added.
