Hon. H. P. Cheatham will deliver the oration at Newbern on Decoration day, which is next Monday. A big excursion, the first of the season, will be run from Clinton and Goldsboro to Raleigh the 14th of June. The pulpit of the First Baptist Church, Franklinton, was filled by Prof. Jas. A.

Pearce last Sunday evening. Nobody mourns the death of the Tribune in these parts, except sore head Republicans and machine Democrats.

Chief Clerk Williams has been somewhat ill for the last few days, but has managed to be at the office every day. Mr. Brasell Haywood expects to attend the Tennessee Centennial. He will leave the city for that place the first of June. Don't forget Britton Pearce, when you want fresh fish. He will save you 21 to 10 cents per bunch. 211 Wilmington St.

Miss Dora Smith leaves the city next week on a pleasure trip. She expects to visit friends in Newbern, Goldsboro and Wilmington. The Six Forks boys and girls are yet alive. They are preparing for a musical concert June the 26th, 1897. Hope to have a grand time. Miss Priscilla Williams and Mrs. Isham

You can save 2½ to 10 cents per bunch by buying your fresh fish of Britton Pearce, 211 Wilmington street. Ice house attached; open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. Miss Alice Ransom; youngest sister of Mrs. Ida M. Mitchell, has been for several weeks and continues critically ill at the home of her brother at Goldsboro, N. C.

Decoration day services will be held at the grave of the late Rev. H. M. Tupper, on the Shaw grounds, Saturday afternoon, at 6 o'clock. The public is invited. Hardware men, advertise your bicy cles. There is a great deman I for them. The editor of the GAZETTE has purchased one, but don't ask about his "ups and downs."

We are sorry to note the death of Mr. Alex. Littlejohn. He died Monday evening of this week. The funeral took place at Dawson Street Church. Rev. Atwater

Miss Bettie Fort left the city Monday of this week for Wake Forest. Miss Bettie has been attending the Johnson High School in this city during the term that recently expired.

Hon. A. R. Middleton, Mrs. W. A. Jones and Mrs. Julia Young left the city Monday morning of this week for Annapolis, M. D., to attend the Supreme Grand Order of Good Samaritans.

Misses M. M. Cardwell and Cora A. Pair graced our sanctum last Monday. We regret that we were not present but Chief Clerk Williams did the honors of the occasion in a graceful manner. Rev. W. M. Jackson, of Fayetteville,

He will leave on Sunday afternoon for the Tennessee Exposition in a special car, accompanied by Mrs. Russell and his staff, to attend the exercises on Governors' Day the following Tuesday.

The Raleigh Tribune has at last died in its attempt to deceive true and loyal Republicans. Judgments to the amount of $1,300 were filed against it last Monday, and the property is now in the hands of the Sheriff. Its Democratic friends cught to come to its rescue, for it labored zealously in their interest.

The daughter of Mr. Robert Williams, who died a few months ago, died at Reader's position, as well as being Super-Method on Wednesday morning early. She was a member of the juvenile class of which Miss Louisa Mitchell is teacher. Her funeral took place from St. Paul Church on Thursday afternoon, Rev.

L. A. Ruffin, officiating. The Commencement exercises of Saint Augustine School will take place at Metropolitan Hall, Thursday night, May 27. Admission will be by ticket. The following named persons will graduate: Misses Margaret B. Gregory, Connie S. Young, Lovie A. Williams and Messrs, Sam'l H. Vanhook and John B. Elliott.
