RALEIGH, N. C., JUNE 5, 1897.

In order that our readers may know something of what some people in this Southland are still thinking and believing, we publish in another column a letter from Bill Arp, in the Observer of last Sunday. Mr. J. W. Lyons, a respectable colored man, is an applicant for the postoffice at Augusta, Ga., and is endorsed by the Republican leaders of that State for the position. Mr. Lyons is the mem ber of the National Republican Executive Committee, and was a leading delegate from that State to the St. Louis Convention last year, and stood by Major McKinley loyally. You will observe that Bill Arp does not attack his capability or fitness, but simply and solely objects to his appointment because he is a Negro, which, in his eyes and the eyes of all who think as he does, is a sufficient reason. It might have answered forty years ago. when Negroes were chattels instead of free American citizens; but let me kindly and politely inform you, Mr. Arp, that you will have to find another and more potent reason in these latter days of the 19th century. By the help of the Lord, his own efforts and the aid of kind friends, both North and South, the Negro of to-day is cultivating his capabilities, making good of his opportunities and acquiring property, also, and realizing that every desire and aspiration of the white man for good is also in his own breast. It affords us pleasure to say that the sentiments expressed by Bill Arp are not shared by all the Southern white people. The only unkindness we wish Mr. Arp is that some one could catch him and take him to the Commencements of some of our North Carolina Institutions for the education of negroes, because it would bring him to a revelation similar to that given Saul on his way to Damascus, and we hope with similar effect. It is needless to say that Mr. Arp is a Democrat, for none but a Democrat would write such stuff about his fellow American citizen.

this juncture of its educational policy that the county boards of education shall be wise and prudent men, in earnest and hearty accord with the spirit of improving the public schools.

No great progress along any line can be accomplished as long as the people are denied the advantages of education, and unless the county boards of education are selected with an eye single to improving the schools, there is little hope for improvement. Politicians who want a place for themselves, or who want to be elected to select their favorites to teach in the public schools, will prostitute the only agency for the uplifting of the people to selfish ends, and should not be chosen.

Under the new law the board of education in each county is to be appointed by the county commissioners, register of deeds and clerk of the Superior Court. It is to be hoped that these officials will rise superior to party or selfish considerations and choose men because of their intelligent interest in public education. Educators and public-spirited men in all portions of the State ought to use every possible influence to secure for the manage ment of the schools the best and fittest men in each county-men who will put the education of the children above every other consideration.

The amusing part of it is to be found when that editor says: "Politicians who want place, etc., will prostitute, etc., to selfish ends." We take it that he ought to know, for his party did that very thing for over ten years, until their conduct of the public schools became a stench in the nostrils of real true friends of that system and the people rebuked them at the po'ls for such misconduct. That editor furnishes some amusement when embrace us and says: "How art thou. he says: It is to be hoped that these officials will rise superior to party." etc. Why, bless your life, Mr. Editor, if the people had not known that they were electing men who would do that very thing they would have let your partisans continue in office. It was because your party friends had failed to do the very thing that you want these officials to do now that your party was driven from power. We will not have to look far from home to see every school committeeman selected by your party, with few exceptions, a Democrat of the most partisan stripe, and superintendents elected under the old system not more than two years ago would go so far as to tell negro teachers that if they did not vote the Democratic ticket, or against the Co-operation ticket, that they (the superintendents) -would refuse to give them certificates, or allow them to teach school. Yea, more than that, we know of instances where school committeemen who belonged to the Democratic party refused to let white men teach public schools because they were members of the Populist party. But why take up space to tell of the misdoings of the Democratic partisan school boards in the past? In some counties the little stipend of school money justly belonging to the negro children was often either denied them or grudgingly given them. But, thank the Lord, these things are in the past, and let us hope and work to prevent their repetition in future. The advice of the News and Observer along this line is entirely gratuitous and is not needed. The officials in question now represent the people and will do what is right and for the best interests of the educational cause. You need give yourself no uneasiness, Mr. Observer, for your party will not be required to reap what it so industriously sowed for the past eighteen years. The News and Observer, like all the Democratic newspapers in the State. and the politicians of that party, have become intensely non partisan since they have lost control of affairs. Not a single one of your false prophesies have come to pass because of the repudiation of Democracy in the S ate, and hence you seek indirectly to control affairs. The people know you, the officials have heard of you, and although you hide your claws in the velvety hand that you stretch forth you will be surely kept at a safe distance. The school matters will surely be taken out of the political cess-pools that Democracy put them in.

to our people and there is no excuse for Fromman of North Carolina Teachers' it-no palliation. Of all the offices in the gift of the government there are none about which the people have such moral. social and political rights as the postoffices. Every man and woman in the community should be consulted, if it were possible. But as it is not, then the public sentiment should be considered and the business men be consulted and nobody should be appointed who would not be acceptable to a large majority of the people. In fact, there should be no partisanship about it. In a Democratic community a Republican who could not get a majority vote should not ask for nor receive the office, but inasmuch as the rule now is that to the victors belong the spoils of course we must submit. We in the South must take the best Republican we can find, but no President who is a gent'eman will seek to put a negro in this office and no politician who is a gentleman will ask him to do it. It is an office that emphatically belongs to the people of the community. It concerns them and them alone. No doubt but that 90 per sent of all the letters and papers and money orders that go and come from Augusta are to die white people of that city. Besides that, the color ine is drawn at the Greensvoro, N. C. South, and McKinley knows it, and so does Buck and Bullock, and wey cannot 7 wipe it out. When will our people quit running after these scalwags who would stab us with the blade of Joab while they my brother?" What is there that a politician will not do for office? When the sexton threw up a skull Hamlet said: "Perhaps it is the pate of a politician, one who would circumvent God." And it does seem us if they had become hardened to all sense of the proprieties of life. A hundred years ago Sheridan wrote: "Conscience has nothing to do with politics." Our people have been doing their best to think well of McKinley and esteemed him as a clever, upright gentleman, but the fact that he entertains the idea of appointing Lyons to Augusta has wiped out all respect for him. The mugwump Democrats who voted for him have all become cross-eyed and can't look you straight in the face. Why did he single out that bright little town of Hogansville to insult her people with a negro postmaster? Why does he not appoint negroes to the northern towns where they claim there is no color linetowns whose white and black go to the same school and sometimes intermarry? And now there is another trouble here in Cartersville. A Michigan man moved here not long ago with his family and went into partnership with a negro blacksmith and they all live together on terms of social equality and eat at the same table, and as the Michigan man's children go to our public school he has been notified that they cannot go there any longer. So he has taken his children away, and says he don't care a damn what our people think and he will do as he pleases, for it is a free country. Well, that is hard on the children, but the time has not yet passed when the sins of the father will be visited upon the children. He may seelade send them to the colored school, as that would be more consistent with his principles, but it is hoped that he will pack up and go back to Michigan. The line is drawn and will remain. Thirty-four years have passed since freedom and there is no change, neither in hotels nor churches nor public conveyances or places of amusement. Both races would be content if it were not for the politicians. As long as the negro has a vote he will be made a fool of by the candidates. They say that Lyons is moral and capable. Suppose that he is-he is an impudent idiot to want to thrust himself where he is not wanted. No gentleman will do that, either socially or politically, and no gentleman will help him do it. Thank heaven, we will now be rid of Buck for four years to come. I wish that more of his sort would leave the country for their country's good. And now I think I feel better. BILL ARP.

On June 7th, the public schools North Carolina will, it is earnestly hoped, take a step forward.

We rejoice that there are men an women in the confines of our grand old Common wealth, who recognize the time when objections should be advanced against the enactment of anything into law. While we do not agree with the Wilmington Record in needless characterizations of an opponent, we would advise this prominent negro to attend the educational gatherings of the race and become acquainted with the trend of thought.

Some of our newspaper editors of inexperience and youth should not forget, when dealing with questions that affect us as a people, that " zeal without judgment is an evil, though it be zeal unto good: touch not the ark with unclean hand, yea, though it seem to totter. There are evils which work good and there are good which work evil." "So hath it often been that, judging by results, the hott-st friends of truth have done her deadliest wrong. Hence draw your lines around something."-20th Century Moralists.

NORTH CAROLINA BEING WELL TREATED.

We rejoice to see that President Mc Kinley, aided by the efforts of Senator Pritchard, is doing so well by North Carolina in the distribution of the big plums. Some years ago we had recognition in the Department of Justice, but with that exception we have heretofore been almost entirely ignored in the appointments of prominence outside of the State patronage. We felt sure when supporting Maj. McKinley for the nomination in the spring of 1896 that with him as President to give, and Senator Pritchard to ask, that our State would be as fully recognized as could be done consistently with justice to the other forty four States of this great Union, and our expectations have been realized. The appointment of Col. James E. Boyd last week to the position of Assistant Attorney General places him in direct line for promotion to the Cabinet if at any time in the future a vacancy in that department should ocour, and is a deserved recognition of our white Republicans, while the appointment of Hon. H. P. Cheatham to the Recordership is an unprecedented recognition of the zealous and faithful colored Republicans of the State. We feel and believe that there are other big plums equally as good as the ones spoken of above to fall to the lot of some tar-heel Republican, but we also recognize the fact that there are many conflicting interests from the various States to be reconciled before the President can satisfactorily act in such cases, and we therefore urge that great patience be exercised by applicants from our State. The Administration has done well by North Carolina so far, and we beg to suggest to Senator Pritchard that some of the greedy Democrats now holding office in the State be made to walk the plank in favor of the local Republicans. However, having confidence in Senator Pritchard, we leave this matter to him. North Carolina is to the front.

COUNTY BOARDS OF EDUCATION.

On next Monday the Boards of County Commissioners of the various counties. acting with the clerks of the Superior Court and the Registers of Deeds thereof. will meet to elect the three members of the County Board of Education, as required by the school law passed by the last Legislature. In order that the section of the law requiring this election may be fully understood, we reproduce it here:

The Board of County Commissioners, together with the Clerk of the Superior Court and the Register of Deeds of each county, shall on the first Monday in June.

BILL ARP TALKS POLITICS.

Horace said in one of his philosophic odes that "anger is a brief fit of lunacy." Then I am ready for the asylum right now, for I am mad-mad with McKinley, and Buck, and Bullock, and the Grand Army, and the Republican party, and everybody else who is trying to impose on our people. The Grand Army demands the publishing of a school history that will make Southern history treason odious to the generations to come. This is not the Grand Army for they are about all dead except the pensioners, but it is the grand army of political plunderers who don't want any peace with the south. General Grant said: "Let us have peace," and Lincoln said so, too, but these politicians are afraid of peace. Peace would wet all their ammunition. It is a very late date to revive this cry of treason. The argument has been long since exhausted and now nothing is left but disgust and contempt for the political schemars who seek to perpetuate discord. Treason is a favorite cry among pretended patriots, Athaliah murdered the sons of the king and usurped the throne, and when the prophet ordered her to be slain she rushed forth and cried treason, treason! When Patrick Henry in his first great speech denounced George the IV the judges cried treason, treason ! Well, I reckon that Patrick Henry and Ben Franklin, and Jefferson, and Adams, and Payne were the first traitors this country produced, and we don't mind being in

KNOWN BY ALL MEN.

The Raleigh Tribune, the so-called Republican daily, whose suspension we noted last week, not only had an unsavory reputation in these parts among loyal Republicans, but its spleen and venom was seen by all who read it. It is as hard now to serve God and mammon as it was in the days of old, and it is equally as hard to be a Democrat and seek to write matter favoring Republican principles now as then. The Washington Post. speaking of the suspension of the Tribune in an editorial, says:

The suspension of the Raleigh Tribune is neither a surprise nor a loss to the community in which it had its brief existence. The Tribune was established a few months ago as a party organ whose sole aim was to further the political ambitions of certain gentlemen. It made no attempt to enter the legitimate field of journalism, and from its very inception disclosed its mission. The news reports of the Tribune were colored in order that the political fortunes of its promoters might be advanced and its editorial page fairly reeked with political selfishness and unfairness. The failure of the Raleigh Tribune speaks well of the intelligence of the people of North Carolina. When a set of politicians thinks it necessary for them to start a newspaper, then is an excellent time for the people to refuse to subscribe.

The Teachers' Association.

The coming Teachers' Association, to be held at Shaw University, in very many respects will be as it should be, the best, most instructive and enjoyable of any of its predecessor4.

(a) In the first place, this organization has passed its crysalis state of narrowness, sectarian jealousy, political potboiling, selfish promotion, and long, windy, empty speech-making and parliamentary wrangling. These things have held sway, but now, as was manifest last year at Kittrell, regular orders are called tor, brevity and something-to-say are demanded, the bigot, egotist, all important, natrow churchmen, wranglers and windy speakers are no longer tolerated. These wholesome changes have come and have come to stay.

(b) In the second place, the program is more varied, covers greater scope, and some of the best educators of the two races have leading parts. This, in itself, is a step in the right direction.

(c) In the third place, nearly all, if not all, of the speakers on the program were consulted and agreed to come with their prepared parts before their names were put on the program, which of itself is a guarantee of the carrying out of the program as laid out. And finally, the local arrangements are about complete for the enjoyment, comfort and instruction of the visiting teachers during their stay in Raleigh. We are reliably informed that two or three outings are already planned and will be systematically and orderly carried out, combining pleasure with instruction. On one afternoon an educational trip will be taken to the Insane Asylum and the S ate prison, both within one mile and a half of the University grounds; on another, such a trip will be made to and through every nook and corner of the State Capitol, the Supreme Court and State Library building, and the State Experiment farm; on a third, to the U.S. Cemetery and other interesting points in the city. The Committee on Outings are, Dr. N. F. Roberts, chairman; Rev. R. H. W. Leak, Messrs. E. A. Johnson, Frank Debnam, Revs. J. E. King and A. G. Davis.

The ladies on the social entertainment committee, mesdames Fannie Peace, Charles Cardwell, Maggie Capehart, R. E. Watts, Martha Bemery, Jonah Davis, Hugh McNair, Alice Evans, Misses Anna Graves, Hattie Hyler and Mary Burwell.

stitute a county board of education, which board shall enter upon the duties of their office on the first Monday in July follow. ing their election, and shall assume all the powers and duties which the County Commissioners now have regarding the public school matters of the county. We hope that our readers generally will take an interest in this election and see that all interests are fully protected in the selection of the men who are to compose the various Boards. On this subject an editorial in the News and Observer of last Saturday is not only instructive but af- fords some amusement to those who have kept up with current events in this State for the past twenty two years. The edi- torial says :	but those fellows up there are not our neighbors, and it is not forbidden to hate an army, is it? My contempt for that "grand army" is not limited by time or distance or the statute of limitations, but I had made up my mind to let them alone if they would let me alone. Of course there are some clever men belonging to it just like there are some clever men in the Republican party, but that don't prevent me from hating both of the concerns as organiza- tions, collectively and categorically. Schemers and plunderers, and scalawags and slanderers run both. Nobody but an unprincipled politician would seek to put a negro in the postoffice at Augusta or in	band. Misses C. E. Waugh and R. A. Wil- liams, missionaries, held a Mothers' Con- ference at the Baptist Church a few days since. Messrs. J. L. Borden and J. H. Fisher have been recently nominated for town Aldermen. Easter was very nicely observed by all the different churches in town. The A. M. E. Sunday school had a very nice pro- gram. Mrs. G. A. Whitfield, who has been re- siding in Boston for several years, is on a visit here to see her relatives and friends. Mr. J. A. Lowery, of Wilmington, was here last week arranging matters per- taining to his brother's estate, Mr. W. Lowery. We will say to the boys at Washing- ton here onit. the right of the side to see in the section of	nis. croquet. quoit pitching, etc., but during the hours of the sitting of the convention no games will be allowed to be played—since we all come for educa- tional, profit first and social amusement afterwards. The committee on campus games and amusements, N. C. Bruce, J. Levister, W. B. Crittenden, L. B. Cape- hart, Misses A. Whitaker, Elenora Mitch- ell, S. A. Upperman and Bettie E. Cook, are well prepared to keep things a-going to the satisfaction of all visiting lovers of out door amusements.
