Miss Susie Bullock and Alice Blount will leave the City of Oaks Saturday of this week for Henderson, N. C. The commencement exercises of the Industrial High School, of Danville, Va., was held on last Monday. Our presence was requested, but we could not attend. We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the first appual session of the Wayne County Teachers' Association. Delany. Quite an interesting program has been arranged for the occasion. The meeting was held on Friday of last week.

A side track is being put in from the main line to the Coleman Cotton Mills at Concord, N. C., which will soon be in course of erection. They are now ready to receive bids on the various contracts. Those desiring to bid will act wise to send in their bids at once. The State Register, printed at Asheville and the leading Republican paper of Western North Carolina, says editorially: "Now that the Raleigh Tribune is dead the Republicans and their friends can gather themselves together, and proceed to lick the Democracy again. With the Tribune living it could not have been done. "It is an ill wind that blows nobody good." Dr. Geo. W. Williams, a Raleigh boy, has been appointed to a position on the Freedman's Hospital staff in Washington, D. C. This is a glowing compliment to Raleigh, and is another instance in which merit wins. Many will remember that Dr. Williams graduated from the medical branch of Shaw, known as Leonard Medical College, last year with the highest honors. Hurrah for Raleigh!

> May the 11th, 1897, was the day appointed by the principals of St. Augustine for the consecration of the chapel At the time appointed (10:30 a. m.), the clergy and school assembled at the brick > building and marched in procession to the chapel for the consecration exercises. The petition for consecration was read by Dr. M. M. Marshall, rector of Christ Church, Raleigh, N. C., and Rev. H. B.

After the consecration ceremonies the Bishop of North Carolina, J. B. Cheshire, administered the rite of confirmation to fifteen persons. Then came the time for the consecration sermon, which was very ably delivered by Rev. F. M. Horner. His text was taken from Psalm 24:7. He pictured in beautiful language the temple of God, and showed now it should symbolize God above all other things; and that we, the worshipers in these earthly temples, are as it were, only stones being polished and prepared for the building of the eternal kingdom of God, which shall remain throughout the ages of eternity, to the glory and honor of His holy name. After the sermon the Bishop, assisted by Arch Descon William Walker, celebrated the holy communion. The other clergymen present were Rev. J. E. Ingle, of Henderson, N. C.; Dr. Bennett Smedes, President of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.; Rev. Mr. Gregory, of Tarboro, N. C.; Rev. J. E. King, of Raleigh, N. C., and Rev. P. P. Alston, of Charlotte, N. C. Rev. P. P. Alston was the Bishop's chaplain.

F. Riberts, upon the Wake County Board of education. I have known Dr. Roberts for many years. He is honest, a man of ability and sound judgment, and will honor any position in the State in which the Governor or any board may place him.

Sir, I heartily congratulate the committee for petitioning the board to appoint Prof. J. P. Goodwin general supervisor. He is a gentleman and ought to have the place.

I fully concur with you and the many teachers who so cheerfully made those recommendations. I remain your sincere friend, Q. C. MIAL.

I desire to call the attention of superintendents of Baptist Sunday schools to the observance of "Children's Day," which is the second Sunday in June. It is hoped it will be generally observed by every Sunday-school in the State. In this way we will do a great mission work that will result in great happiness both to contributors and recipients. There are so many in need of the Scriptures. They are crying for the bread of life. Let us open our ears to their cries and come up to the help of the Lord as never before. If the second Sunday is not convenient Prof. I. D. Hargett, we are glad to select another. Write Dr. R. G. NOTICE.

Latta Unsversity will be closed during the Christmas holidays for all the session for the purpose of rebuilding the buildings that were consumed by fire last May, and also additional buildings. The University is located in the village of Operlin, N. C., one and one-half miles west of the capitol building in the city. The location is the very best for a school, being out of the busy city, but within easy reach by means of the electric street cars. It is enough to say, that there has not been a single case of serious illness since the establishment of the school. Each dormitory is heated by stoyes and hearths, so every necessary comfort is secured. The terms are very reasonable—$7.50 per month.
