RALEIGH, N. C., JUNE 12, 1897.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Mr. John Ashe is very ill. We hope to see him up soon.

Mr. W. M. Holden, of Wyatt's, was in the city last Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Jenkins favored us with a cash remittance last week. Thanks.

Mr. Turner Evans left the city Saturday of last week for New York City.

Miss Mary Miller, who has been suffering with rheumatism, is much better.

Mrs. Robert Lane, of Wilmington, is in the city. She is the guest of Miss Lizzie Pettiford.

Mr. W. H. Peace graced THE GAZETTE office last week and remembered us financially.

Rev. Brutus Young left the city for Franklin, after having spent several days with us.

The GAZETTE staff is pleased to see Rev. Baz. Johnson in the city, after an absence of about three weeks.

Mrs. Pauline Conley has gone to Louisville, where she will visit relatives, and we hope her pleasant visit.

Mr. T. C. Hadden sends us the names of Messrs. Y. Hoyle, A. W. Shipp and Miss M. G. Corpening. Thanks.

S. C. Pool is making a special run in fine foot-wear. Every inch hand made. You would do well to buy of him.

We don't see much of Hon. James H. Young and his bicycle now-a-days. Ride out pardner, we want to see you.

It is Cross & Linehan that will give the world the best of the city, if you want anything in the dry goods line.

Don't forget Britton Pearce, when you want fresh fish. He will save you 25 to 10 cents per bunch, 211 Wilmington St.

Thanks to President McIver for a copy of the catalogue of the State Normal and Industrial School for the past scholastic year.

Mr. W. H. Green graced our office last Monday, en route for Louisville, N. C. Mr. Green is a fine young man. We are glad to have him call.

Mr. Wesley T. Williams is loved. By whom? Miss M. and D. He is quite sleepy during the day, please don't keep him up late at night!

Victor Fire Company celebrated its 28th anniversary Tuesday by a reel race in the afternoon and a festival at night. It was quite successful.

Blount Street Baptist Sunday school will observe Children's Day, the fourth Sunday in this month, 8 o'clock p. m. They anticipate a grand time.

Rev. Wm. Williams is having a beautiful front attached to his dwelling-house on South Front street. When completed, it will be quite a fancy construction.

Mr. H. W. Miller, the assistant passenger agent of the Southern Railway, is an "up-to-date" railroad official. He never neglects the interest of the Southern.

This week we again send out a supplement, which we hope our many readers will appreciate. The supplement is full of interesting and instructive matter.

The baptizing at the water-works, the 6th inst., was witnessed by about 1,754 persons. Rev. J. J. Worlids preached a very interesting sermon, which was highly commended by the hearers.

Children's Day exercises will be conducted at Cox Memorial church next Sunday night, June 13th, beginning 8 p. m. The exercises will be very interesting. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Leonard Jones, of Charlotte, N. C., died almost suddenly Friday, May 28th, 1897. She was sick only a few hours. Mrs. Jones was the widow of Miss Daisy Jones, who had just returned from Shaw University.

Dr. A. A. Wiche left the city Saturday of last week for Goldsboro, where he joined Dr. McDougald and others, and proceeded thence to Morehead City to meet the Medical Board of Examiners. Success to him.

Miss Carrie Lee, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bether, was married to Mr. James Sanders Lanier on Wednesday, June 16, at 7 o'clock at Lloyd Presbyterian Church of Winston, N. C. We extend in advance our congratulations.

Thursday morning, June 3, Miss Pauline Walker, head baker at the Yarbors, left the city to visit her mother in Farmville, Va., whom she had not seen in forty-four years, having been sold from her when only nine years old. She is now fifty-three.

Miss Blanche H. Wilkins, teacher in the colored department of the N. C. in the Blind, left for her home in Chicago last week. Miss Wilkins made many friends in this city and state. All will be glad to see her return next fall.

Mr. R. E. L. Bunch, of our city, who is the efficient chief clerk in the office of Col. W. A. Turk, the General Passenger Agent of the Southern Railway, at Washington, is one of the cleverest gentlemen that it has ever seen. We are anxious to transact business with him.

Miss Mattie Seguire, of Knoxville, Tenn., is in our city, and will remain until the last of July and possibly longer. She is offering to the public some of the most interesting and valuable works, viz: War in Cuba, and Student's Compendium. The former gives the life and character of the late Antonio Maceo. The latter is a correct guide for students. You out to read these books so as to know of what is going on.

Wednesday night, just at 9 o'clock p. m., at the residence of Mr. Lewis Young, Mr. J. H. Brodridge and Miss Lizzie C. White were united in holy wedlock. Mr. Joe Meadow, groom's man, and Miss M. Lee Bernery, bride's maid. Rev. J. J. Worlids officiated. Reception, 9:30 to 11 o'clock. The bride and groom will leave the city in a few days for Louisville, when they will remain a few weeks, visiting friends and relatives.

Recorder Cheatham is wearing his honors easily, which at this time are being heaped upon. He was last week given the degree of L. L. D. by the trustees of Shaw University at their meeting in New York and also elected a trustee of said institution to fill the vacancy caused by the death of ex-Gov. Fuller, of Vermont. He is very popular with President McKinley and all of the Washington people. We rejoice at his great success.

The Board of County Commissioners, the Clerk of the Superior Court and the Register of Deeds at their meeting on last Wednesday elected Messrs. J. J. Bagwell, T. H. Briggs and W. F. Roberts as members of the Board of Education for Wake county, as required by the new school law. Each political party and each race is represented by the above selection. These are all good men, and of the highest character, and their selection will give satisfaction to the people of the county.

A Good Commercial Town With Bright Prospects Before It.

KINSTON, N. C., May 31st.

The prosperous town of Kinston, the county seat of Lenoir County, has long been the distributing point for an immense scope of territory, and to-day it is the recognized head and center of the vast agricultural industry and associated interests of this section. The town has at various times suffered serious loss by fire, but to-day, with its handsome brick stately elegant residences, and streets lighted by electricity, make it one of the most beautiful towns in Eastern Carolina. Again, Kinston can boast of some of the most successful men in business of any city in the State (I mean colored). Among the most progressive and enterprising mercantile men are Charles F. Dunn, Star Hicks, J. C. Hargett, T. E. Holloway, Messrs. Canada, C. R. Hicks, T. R. Nunn, J. W. and J. E. Williams, J. L. Borden & Bros., J. H. Fisher, and Mr. Joyner. Dr. Rutherford keeps a very full line of drugs, etc. Mr. George M. Mitchell, and Mr. R. C. Crech are the leading blacksmiths; Mr. Mitchell works for the large carriage and buggy manufacturing firm of Randolph & Co.

The shipment of cabbage, peas, and other vegetables between Goldsboro and Newbern has been unusually good this season, also the prices which they brought have held up extremely well.

Mrs. A. B. Scott and Master Charlie, of Goldsboro, after a pleasant visit to their home here, returned home last Thursday.

The Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Company has built a very fine new passenger car, which is receiving the finishing touch.

The Baptist Church and Sunday-school enjoyed a nice picnic last Thursday in the grove one-and-a-half miles out from the city. Base ball, fishing, swimming, etc., were the amusements of the day.

Kinston's next postmaster will be Mr. J. C. Hargett. His papers have been filed at Washington City with the endorsement of Congress at White, and in due time his appointment will be made. The present incumbent's term (Mr. J. C. Wooten) will not expire until November. Mr. Hargett is a gentleman of long experience, courteous, and affable to all citizens, and we feel safe in saying that he will so conduct his office that none will have need to complain.

We were glad to see the feeling so favorably expressed by the people of this town, who were supposed to be his opposers.

Julia Benton Borden, the little six-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Borden, died on May 24th.

The Republicans in Kinston are represented on the Board of Aldermen by two Republicans, Messrs. J. H. Fisher and J. L. Borden.

The Grand Lodge No. 10, of Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria, will meet in annual session in the town of Winston June 8th. Grand Secretary J. L. Borden and delegates George M. Mitchell, M. S. Sarah, F. Patrick, R. C. Green, L. A. Bynum and C. W. Hall, will leave Monday for Winston.

Mr. W. E. Baker tells us he has purchased some very desirable building lots in town.

Mr. O. W. Parrott, the clever and efficient postal clerk between Goldsboro and Morehead City, was at home last week taking a week's rest.

Mrs. O. W. Parrott and children are in Washington City visiting relatives and will spend the summer there.

Mr. W. M. N. Hunter has been very sick, but we are glad to note that he has sufficiently recovered so as to be at his post again in the Clerk's office.

Mr. Chatman is erecting a nice two-story dwelling with six rooms. When completed it will be a handsome residence.

The business colored men of Kinston will soon form a banking corporation. Mr. Chas. F. Dunn will, by the 15th of June, begin the erection of a brick building for that purpose. When chartered it will be called the Dime Savings Bank.

The GAZETTE thanks those who favored us with subscriptions and renewals.

Rocky Mount Girts.

Rev. O. B. Alston has been assisting Rev. Mathewson in his revival the past week. They have done a great work, indeed, for the Master's cause. We hope to see the whole community shaken from center to circumference by effect of this meeting.

Mr. Alfred Robinson, the clever mail clerk on the Norfolk and Carolina, passed through en route to his post of duty last week.

Prof. Braswell Winstead, of Wilson, passed through during the week.

Mr. Ivory Robinson was killed at Penelo last Tuesday while coupling some freight cars on the Plymouth local freight. We extend our sympathies to the bereaved family. It was very sad, indeed. He left South Rocky Mount about 7 o'clock in the full bloom of health and before eight o'clock he was a corpse.

Mr. William Penny came very near having a similar accident. While he was getting on steam for the work train early one morning before the engine came down, he failed to place the lever in the right notch, and went under the engine to do some repairing, whereupon the engine moved off and carried Mr. Penny quite a distance before he was rescued, but he managed to come out all right by not getting dinged.

Mr. James Mingo, of Louisville, but recently of Tarboro, passed through en route to Philadelphia during the week. He failed to place the lever in the right notch, and went under the engine to do some repairing, whereupon the engine moved off and carried Mr. Penny quite a distance before he was rescued, but he managed to come out all right by not getting dinged.

He failed to place the lever in the right notch, and went under the engine to do some repairing, whereupon the engine moved off and carried Mr. Penny quite a distance before he was rescued, but he managed to come out all right by not getting dinged.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Florida (Lindsey) Penny is improving from her recent illness.

Mr. Jacob Sherrod, we are sorry to note, is still very sick.

The Excelsior Band is preparing to give a grand musical in the near future. It will be a grand affair.

They say when Mr. Frank Bryan is all alone now, since Miss Emma Thurber returned home; he can be heard saying in a low and mellow tone, these words: "Oh could I see you now, my girl, as fair as in olden time, When our sweet prattle made home a joy, And life was a merry chime."

He then pauses for a moment, and while wishing for a repetition of the past he sings in a loving tone: "Oh, where is my girl to night, My heart overflows For I love her she knows; Oh, where is my girl to-night."

Miss Maggie Davis has returned home from the English college. Her many friends welcome her home again.

The postmaster here seems to be very much delayed, indeed. Our people, both white and colored, desire a change to the present incumbent. We had the assurance that Hargett's name would be sent in two weeks ago for confirmation. We hope
