RALEIGH, N. C., JULY 17, 1897.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Mr. Edward Hurst is in the city. "Eastern Snap-Shots": Where are you? Mr. Richard Johnson left the city Tuesday for New York.

Rev. Shepard, of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, is in the city. Master Henry Dugger left the city Tuesday for the North.

Rev. F. K. Byrd returned to the city Monday from Goldsboro. Quite a crowd left on the Conductors' Excursion for Norfolk Tuesday.

Mrs. Malissa Williams renewed her subscription last week. Thanks. Editor Young left for Wilmington Tuesday, to spend a day or so visiting friends.

Rev. Kennedy, of Kittrell, continues quite sick. We hope for his speedy recovery. Mr. Bud Dunston, who has been dangerously ill for some time, is improving slightly.

Go to Mrs. Martha Johnson's Restaurant on Wilmington St. when in need of a good lunch. Miss Rosa Jeffreys, sister of Mr. P. J. Jeffreys, lies critically ill at her home at Kinley, N. C.

Mr. P. J. Jeffreys, that famous caterer, furnished the ice cream for the Conductors' excursion. Mrs. J. J. Worlds, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is we are glad to learn, improving.

Mr. Robt. Pratt left the city for Durham, N. C., last Saturday, where he will spend his vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield, of Portsmouth, have an addition to their family. It is a beautiful little girl.

District Missionary Rev. A. B. Vincent will hold a New Era Institute at Red Springs, August 2 and 3. Mr. A. Mitchell, much to our pleasure and delight, planked down the cash for the subscription of his wife.

Many people left the city on the Conductors' excursion to Norfolk, and on the excursion to Asheville, Tuesday. Miss Susie Deans, of Norfolk, will leave Monday, August 2d for Atlantic City, where she will give lessons in art.

Miss Mary Raynor has returned home from the mountains of Virginia, where she has been spending several months. Miss Lillie Raynor has gone to Morehead City on a pleasure trip. Before returning to the city she will visit Southport, N. C.

Mr. Brazley Mayes, of Helena, Montana, is in the city. He is here looking for an opportunity to invest money in some paying business. Mr. F. J. Jones, one of Wake's most enterprising citizens, dropped in to see us last week and remembered us in a financial way.

Professor Chas. F. Merette, President of Shaw University, with his family has left the city to spend the summer months in Abington, Mass. Miss Maude E. Young left for Washington last Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. A. L. Satterwhite. She will remain there several weeks.

Priceless Jewel Lodge, No. 3735, G. U. O. of O. F., of Snow Hill, will celebrate its third anniversary on the 30th inst. A grand time is anticipated. Mr. Henry L. Alston left the city for Asheville and the mountains Tuesday. He goes on important business, and also to visit relatives and friends.

Miss Mariah and Alfred Robinson are spending a few weeks in Norfolk visiting. Miss Mariah will visit several cities North during her summer vacation. Mr. McPherson, of Holly Springs, was in the city this week attending to business, and had Mr. David Turner's name added to our subscription list.

Miss Hattie Harris, of Edenton, is at Williamston this week. She will take the July examination here also. She is expected to teach in this county. The New Providence Baptist Church Sunday-school celebrated Children's Day Sunday, July 11th, 1897. Quite a number attended. The singing was excellent.

Prof. and Mrs. C. N. Hunter, Mrs. W. B. Hunter, Miss Belle Groves and Miss Maywood Mitchell and others went to Washington on the Conductors' Excursion. Mrs. J. H. Branch was suddenly called to the bedside of her grandmother, Mrs. Alfred Hargrave, of Wilmington, N. C. We hope for Mrs. Hargrave a speedy recovery.

While in Norfolk last week it was our pleasure to meet our friend Mr. Thos. E. Cunningham, of Wilmington. He made it very pleasant for us the few hours we were with him. The County Board of Education is in session this week, appointing the school committee for the various districts of the county. We will give the list of appointments next week.

Mr. Wesley T. Williams is not quite so sleepy as he used to be, but still he has his share, since the visit of the Selma girls. I don't know whether he walks to Selma or not, but he is up just the same. Rev. G. T. Dilley, D. D., of Columbia S. C., W. H. Long, and Prof. J. B. A. Savage, of Franklinton, attended the Presbyterian Sunday school Convention at Beaufort last week. Returning from the Convention Dr. Dilley stopped over in the city. He is said to be one of the ablest ministers in the Presbyterian Church.

We are under many obligations to our friend, Mr. A. Robinson, who made it very pleasant for us and was so courteous in showing us around and seeing that our stay in Norfolk was a pleasant one. Mr. Robinson is Railway Postal Clerk between Wilmington and Norfolk. He is polite and genteel and one of the most efficient employees in the service.

Mr. Samuel S. Watts and his deaf mute sister left this city for their home on May 24, and visited their many friends and relatives in Winston, N. C., and Danville, Va. Mr. Samuel Watts is residing in the thrifty and thriving town of Lynchburg, Va., where he is busily engaged in a shoe shop. We thank him very much for the money paid us for his subscription, and hope for him much success in his work.

Miss Lovie A. Mayo, who has been in our midst since the close of the Kittrell College, has left the city for Hickory, N. C., where she is being invigorated by the healthful atmosphere of that mountainous region. We hope for her much pleasure on her trip, and we know that her friend (Miss Rosa Alexander) will be only too glad to receive her in her home, for, on her arrival, there will be a happy reunion of teachers, who will form an able triumvirate of Kittrell College.

Winston Notes.

THE GAZETTE is very extensively read in this section of the State. Especially in Winston. We wonder if those excursionists have had in a supply of wood for next winter. Better give that matter some thought. Eh?

The Colored Firemen's Association of North Carolina will meet here in next month. The Winston company is making preparations to entertain the Association.

Mrs. Mial of Raleigh, who is laboring under the Woman's Home Mission Board, is here on the 10th day of the First Baptist Church Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Mial is an earnest representative of the cause of missions. The services were very impressive.

was in the city Sunday and preached two very able sermons at the A. M. E. Z. Church. We were glad to meet President Chavis, of Bennett College, in the city last Sunday. He preached at the M. E. Church.

We are fortunate to have in our midst the Hon. John P. Green, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Green, with Mrs. Green and little son, is visiting relatives in this State. He is a native of Newbern, N. C.; went to Ohio forty years ago; was justice of the peace eight years; studied law, and now ranks among the foremost lawyers of Cleveland. For a number of years he represented his county in the lower branch of the Legislature of his State. He also served two terms in the Senate of the same body. Last Sunday p. m. Mr. Green addressed our M. E. C. His theme was Practical Religion. He said, before Bacon gave his Novum Organum to the world, philosophers dealt with theories, but the present age calls for a man who can reduce theory to practice. The needs of Christians who live religion as well as talk it. You need not go out as a leader unless you walk correctly. We cannot bring others to Christ unless we are there ourselves. We must strive to get ourselves right, then struggle to keep right. Things which are of greatest importance are hardest to keep. If we go to sea in a defective vessel, we shall surely sink. Study carefully the things that will lift us up. If those about us have power we must get power, too. It is in our reach. We must have the consciousness that if our light can be kept up, we are the right way if we will let Him. He said many other things equally instructive, timely, and effective; but we shall not ask space for further synopsis. Mr. Green is making his mark as a politician; still he is a man of rare moral status and represents a high degree of Christian character and manhood. This cannot be said of every prominent politician. Mr. Green speaks the common sense of the hour.

The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of North Carolina will convene here this week. Grand Chancellor John Mitchell will be here and deliver the annual address. We cordially welcome the Hon. Mr. Mitchell to the Twin-City.

Mr. E. Rice, Mr. Wilson Dalton, Mrs. W. E. Walker, left this p. m. for Roxboro to attend the District S. S. Convention of the A. M. E. Convention.

Jenkins-Holman.

"June ends bright with roses red," wreaths of flowers upon her head. Indeed St. Paul's A. M. E. Church presented a lovely scene Wednesday night, June 30th, when Mr. Basil Jenkins and Miss Mariah Holman were united as one. The church was well crowded with both white and colored friends of the couple. On the fifth and sixth seats from the chancel sat the members of the Excelsior Club. Shortly after nine o'clock the enchanting strains of the Mendelssohn march, played by Miss Gertrude E. Leak, caused a hushed silence to fall over the vast congregation.

First came the ushers, then the waiters, next the beautiful little flower girl, then the bride leaning on the arm of the maid of honor, the groom with his best man meeting them at the altar.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. W. Leak. During the ceremony, the sweet strains of "O Promise Me," were wafted on the air.

The party left the church in reverse order, headed by the flower girl, who strewn flowers in the pathway of the bride and groom.

On the fifth and sixth seats from the chancel were Mr. Cato Thornton, Mr. David Reed, Mr. Rufus L. Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. David Turner; the waiters were Miss Ida Smith and Mr. Willie Wilson, Miss Lizette B. Johnson and Mr. Alonzo Thornton, Mr. Columbus Gray and his best man; Miss Mary L. Holman, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and little Julia Leak was the flower girl.

The presents were both numerous and beautiful. Among the handsomest is the fine rocker, presented by the Excelsior Club.

THE GAZETTE wishes for them a long and happy life, and that their happiness be always filled to overflowing.

Personally Conducted Tour to Providence, Boston and White Mountains via S. A. L. and M. & T. C. Co. August 11th, 1897, is the date selected for a special excursion to Providence via S. A. L. and Merchants' & Miners' Transportation Co. Steamer Tickets will only be sold on the 11th, and will be limited to twenty days from date, allowing sufficient time to return on any regular steamer and train within that limit. The following rates and schedule will apply:

Table with columns: Rate, Schedule. Locations include Charlotte, Hamlet, Maxton, Monroe, Raleigh, Rutherfordton, Sanford, Shelby, Wadesboro, Wilmington.

The steamship Chatham will be placed in service on this occasion and the service will be first class in every respect. Meals and state-room berth on steamer, going and returning, will be furnished holders of these special excursion tickets, without extra charge. The capacity of the steamer is of course limited and application for reservation should be made as early as possible in order to secure the best accommodation. S. A. L. Ticket Agent at Atlanta, Ga., will make reservations and furnish number of tickets occupied. The Passenger Department of the Seaboard Air Line at Portsmouth, Va., has issued an attractive itinerary of this trip, copies of which will be furnished upon application to any S. A. L. Agent.

Full particulars will be given later by the Passenger Department of the Seaboard Air Line, at Portsmouth, Va. Commencing June 1st, the Seaboard Air Line suggested strictly passenger service between Henderson and Durham, N. C., to take the place of the "mixed" freight and passenger trains operated heretofore. The improvement in this service will be beneficial to the patrons of Henderson, Durham and surrounding territory, and to the traveling public at large.

The following extract from a letter received by the Seaboard people from a prominent citizen of Durham, shows that this service will be duly appreciated: "As a citizen of Durham, I write to congratulate you on this move, and to assure you, that I meet the hearty approval, and I believe, co-operation of a large portion of our traveling public. This, in my judgment, is a right move, in the right direction, at the right time."

Letter From Africa.

The following was received by a friend in this city from Mr. Stephens, now in Africa, which will be interesting to many of our readers: MBANYA MANTEKE, A. B. M. U., SOUTHWEST AFRICA, May 8, '97.

Dear Friend and Sister: I do thank the Heavenly Master, who has given me this blessed privilege of sending you a few lines after my long silence since I left America for my native land. You are still fresh in my memory and I do speak to my people of you. The reason you have not heard from me is because I have been very busy, making many visits to the "out-schools" and churches, encouraging my fellow native co-workers in the Lord and the work which we have before us daily. Some of them are very able men. The Spirit of the Lord is at work among the sons and daughters of Africa; they have brought forth scintillating the feet of Jesus in the little they know of the way to salvation.

One of the places visited last year is Mukikanyana. I don't think there were over twenty converts; but when visited the other time, six or seven hundred people were on the Lord's side. There are nineteen out-schools. I should have visited them all, but only had sufficient time to visit one. Then at that time our Evangelist School was opened, and I had to stay at home and teach.

It was week before last I went to meet my sister, at Maki, who just came down for a change from the heart of the Congo, or what I would call the jungles of the Congo Valley. She had been up there a year helping Dr. L. C. Fleming in the work of the mission at Maleshona. She will be going up again in a few days.

The civilization is fast coming in, but the white man carries his evil wherever he goes—that is liquor, etc. My wife gave birth to a little boy on the 18th of January, 1897, whose name is Ralph. He is very pretty.

Write me all the news. Love to you from Mrs. Stephens. Please so remember me to all friends in North Carolina.

Yours truly, H. M. STEPHENS.

Love Plays the Harp of Life.

At Fayetteville, N. C., on Wednesday, June 9, 1897, at 11:30 a. m., M. S. Katie W. Williston was married to Mr. L. H. Peterson, of Wilmington, at the home of the bride. It was a most beautiful home wedding that Fayetteville has had in many years. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. M. Jackson, of the Episcopal Church. At the touch of the organ to the music of Mendelssohn, Mr. James T. Williston, the contracting parties marched into the beautiful parlor and in the presence of a large gathering of friends they were pronounced man and wife. Next came the bride and groom, the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. H. M. Williams was groomsmen. After the marriage of the young couple were driven to the C. F. & Y. depot, where they took the train for Wilmington, their future home. Among the friends of the young couple present at the marriage were: Prof. George H. Williams, C. D. Waddell, Mrs. F. H. McNeill, Miss Alice Christians, Mrs. M. H. Williston, Mrs. W. T. Taggart, Miss Maggie Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Williston, Mrs. Frank Adams, Mrs. D. B. Benson, Miss Lillie Williston, Mrs. Rose B. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were the recipients of many elegant presents, a partial list of which is given below: Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Williston, set of silver knives; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Waddell, Mrs. F. D. Williston, carving knife and fork; Mr. James Williston, picture; Mr. E. O. Williston, set china plates; Miss L. H. Williston, towels; Miss L. L. Williston, cologne; Mr. D. Waddell, doilies; Miss Mamie Waddell, set of forks; Mrs. James Hall, pillow; Mrs. B. J. Freeman, ice cream saucers; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, towels; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Perry, comb and set brushes; Mrs. Thaggard, enamel; Mr. and Mrs. D. Brunson, table-cover; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McNeill, table-mats; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Murphy, water bucket; Dr. and Mrs. Melcher, brush, comb and set brushes; Miss Hattie Webb, picture; Miss Susie Cain, cream pitcher; Miss Susie McNeill, pitchers; Misses Augusta and Ella Richardson, parlor chair; Misses Dora and Henrietta Perry, comb and set brushes; Miss Josie Potts, rose jar; Miss Louisa Revels, silk pin cushion; Mr. Richard McNeill and family, glass water set; Mrs. Annie McCoy, table cloth; Mrs. Geo. Hooper, table cloth; Mrs. Lane, doilies, silver spoons; Mr. Geo. Hooper, silver butter knife; Mrs. Sarah Cane, cake plate; Mr. J. M. Baldwin, picture; Misses Mary and Laura Holliday, silk handkerchief; Cape Fear Co., one dozen doilies.

Mrs. John Taylor, pair of towels; Mrs. Alice Cox and daughter, set of china plates and pickle-dish; Miss Katie Nash, doilies; Miss E. C. Nash, set of brushes; Miss Susie Kennedy, set of plates; Mrs. Adelaide Norwood and Mrs. Annie D. D. doilies; Miss Carrie Sampson, doilies; Mr. Sylvester Lavin, tea pot and picture; Miss Adelle Whitman, table cologne; Mr. A. T. Penn, parlor lamp; Mr. Dan'l Howard, silver card receiver; Mr. and Mrs. W. Spruill, toilet set; Mr. W. S. Freeman and mother, set of glasses; Oscar Peterson, rug; Mr. J. M. King, picture; Mr. Eddie Swan, towels.

Call for Parents' Conference.

A Parents' Conference will be held in Raleigh, N. C., July 28, 29, 30, at Blount Street Baptist Church. Beloved fathers, fathers and mothers and all who are interested in making home happy, are invited to come. Remember that this Conference is for all denominations and all sexes. Every humane heart should be interested in whatever tends to make home, the best, the purest and the happiest spot on earth. Mrs. ALICE PATTERSON, Mrs. C. H. KING, President, Secretary.

Of Interest to R. Y. P. U. Delegates, en route to Chattanooga.

The idea now is, and arrangements are being made to that effect, to have a "sunrise-prayer-meeting" at Norfolk, and a banquet will be tendered them at Wake Forest, by President Taylor, of the Wake Forest College; a fruit dinner will be given at Southern Pines, and at Atlanta the delegates will be entertained at the Spelman University; they will then proceed to Chattanooga, via the "Kennesaw Route."

Full particulars will be given later by the Passenger Department of the Seaboard Air Line, at Portsmouth, Va.

Mr. A. A. Owen, of our State, died in Washington on Sunday morning, May 7, 30th, about 10 o'clock, after a few days of sickness with typhoid pneumonia. Mr. Owen had been in the employ of the government for about fifty years and was rated among the best clerks in the service. He leaves a devoted wife and four children to mourn his loss. He was a member of the Baptist Church and also a member of the G. U. O. of O. F. and remains were brought to his home at Warrenton, accompanied by Dr. J. H. Montgomery. He was a gentleman of amiable disposition and was liked by all who knew him. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family, and commend them to Him who doeth all things for the best.

School-Tax Election!

In compliance with Chapter 431 of the Public Laws of 1897, an election is ordered to be held in every township in this County, on TUESDAY AFTER THE SECOND MONDAY IN AUGUST, 1897, on the question of levying a Special Tax for the Public Schools in every School District (which said districts are the several Townships of the County) of ten cents per hundred dollars valuation of real and personal property, and thirty cents on every poll.

Those in favor of the Special School Tax shall vote a written or printed ballot for the purpose of "FOR SCHOOLS" those opposed to the Special School Tax shall vote a written or printed ballot with the words "AGAINST SCHOOLS."

By order of the Board of County Commissioners: JOSEPH J. ROGERS, Clerk Board County Commissioners, June 8, 1897. July 10-4t.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

NEW BANK.

KINSTON, N. C., June 15, 1897. NOTICE.

Latta University will be closed during the Christmas holidays for all the session for the purpose of building the buildings that were consumed by fire last May, and also additional buildings. The University is located in the village of Oerlio, N. C., one and one-half miles west of the capital building in the city. The location is the very best for a school, being out of the busy city, but within easy reach by means of the electric street cars. It is enough to say that there has not been a single case of serious illness since the establishment of the school. Each dormitory is heated by stoves and hearths, so every necessary comfort is secured. The terms are very reasonable—$7.50 per month. Those desiring to reduce their expenses by work will be taken at the lowest possible rates: young men $6.40 per month; young women $5.40 per month; day students $1. per month. A small incidental fee will be charged. The school will reopen on the 7th day of October, 1897. Our purpose is to make it one of the largest schools in the South for the races. Law and Medicine will be added. The institution is wholly non-sectarian in its religious instruction or influence. Yet earnest attention will be given to Bible study, applying its truths to daily life and conduct, that a thorough Christian character may be obtained. It is open to all students of either sex. None but competent teachers will be employed. For further information, address the President, Rev. M. L. Latta, D. D. I will leave for the North and Europe the latter part of December or the first of January, and will return time enough for the races. Law and Medicine will be added. The institution is wholly non-sectarian in its religious instruction or influence. Yet earnest attention will be given to Bible study, applying its truths to daily life and conduct, that a thorough Christian character may be obtained. It is open to all students of either sex. None but competent teachers will be employed. For further information, address the President, Rev. M. L. Latta, D. D. I will leave for the North and Europe the latter part of December or the first of January, and will return time enough for the races. Law and Medicine will be added.
