Mr. R. H. Lane took advantage of the excursion to make a flying visit to Mrs. Lane who has been in this city several weeks visiting her mother.

Don't forget the Newbern Fair, which begins on Monday, August 23, 1897. Go and you will have a grand time. Reduced rates on all railroads.

The Wilmington Daily Record, the only colored daily in America, issued its first edition last Sunday. It is neatly printed and well gotten up.

Miss Mary Eaton, of Henderson, returned home last Wednesday after having spent several months in the city as the guest of Miss Martha Bemery.

If you want to vote on the bond issue of $50,000 you must register anew. The registration books are now open at the usual places for holding city elections.

Senator Marion Butler is in the city this week to meet the Executive Committee of his party. He begins a speaking tour in the western part of the State this week.

Mr. Holly, of Greensboro, N. C., is now fitting up a hotel out of what is known as the Piedmont House. When finished it will be among the best or the only colored hotel in the South.

Last Wednesday evening at 8.30 o'clock Mr. Emmet Gant and Miss Mollie Ivey were made one by the tying of the nuptial knot, at the home of the bride on West Cabarrus street.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Young expect to leave for Washington, Baltimore and other Northern cities next Tuesday for a few days. Miss Maude will return home with them.

Rev. A. W. Pegues and his wife having been elected teachers at Shaw University, have resigned the positions formerly held by them at the Colored Baptist Institute of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institution.

The excursion to Newbern last week by the Martin Street Sunday school was a successful affair, and Mr. T. R. Jones and his committee deserve great credit for their good work. They carried ten coaches full.

Mrs. M. C. Columbus, of Jacksonville, Fla., is in the city visiting relatives and friends. She is a cousin of Prof. J. H. Brach, Principal of the Oberlin Graded School, and has not visited the city before for ten years.

Dr. W. L. Lassiter, the capable colored physician of Newbern, has been appointed pension examiner for that section. This is quite a lucrative position and we rejoice at his success, especially as he succeeds a Democrat.

Miss Della R. Story, of Wilmington, was the guest of Mr. H. Smith, of Raleigh, on the excursion. Her many friends were very glad indeed to see her in the City of Oaks, and she says, made her stay here extremely pleasant.

The A. and M. College at Greensboro, N. C., closed its first session of summer school, teachers August 15th. The session was a very beneficial and pleasant one, well attended and highly appreciated by the leading educators of the State.

Among the many old friends we met in Newbern last week may be mentioned Messrs. J. E. Hara, E. R. Dudley, J. B. Williams and daughter, H. M. Smith, Douglas, Luke Burney, C. C. Roach, J. T. York, R. V. Marshall and Rives, and many others.

Mrs. Dr. D. A. Lane spent a few days in the city last week, visiting relatives and friends. She, in company with her little son and daughter, gave us a pleasant call and kindly renewed her subscription before returning to her home in Washington, D. C.

Among the excursionists from Wilmington here Monday were: Mr. Geo. W. Robinson, George Letlow and wife, J. N. Richardson, Monroe Byrd, A. W. Scott, Col. T. C. Miller, D. C. Council, Miss Mary White, Willis Green, John Whitehead, William H. Quick.

Miss Dora Smith, after spending several months by the seaside, returned home on the Wilmington excursion. She is a perfect picture of health, and her many friends and admirers were more than glad to shake her hand, welcoming her back in the City of Oaks.

We were very much pained to hear of the sad accident that befell Mr. Charles W. Norwood, of Wilmington, Register of Deeds of New Hanover County. While out riding his horse became frightened, and Mr. Norwood seeing danger ahead jumped from his buggy and broke his leg.

Mrs. M. Holloway, of Plainfield, New Jersey, is in the city, visiting Mrs. Betsy Murphy. She will remain here some time, and then go to Richmond for a short stay prior to returning to her home. She would be glad to find out the whereabouts of little Freddie Holloway.

Master Willie M. Hall, son of W. R. Hall, of Nichols, N. C., accidentally cut his foot very bad with an ax July 30th. We are glad that he is getting along with it as well as can be expected, and hope that the little fellow will soon be so that he can get about again.

Governor Russell returned to the city last Tuesday, after spending about ten days at his delightful cottage at Ocean View. He and Mrs. Russell accompanied by his staff, will leave Saturday for Old Point Comfort for a week's stay. While there he will witness the target practice by the U. S. troops stationed at Fort Monroe.

Three colored and one white man are now under arrest charged with the heinous offense of rape. The crimes were committed during the past three months. This thing must stop and it becomes all law-abiding citizens to denounce in unmeasured terms the perpetration of such crime as well as the perpetrators. Let the guilty be punished by the law and that to the fullest extent.

Messrs. Samuel Franks, K. Franks, Thomas Franks and Joshua Franks, with their friends, Messrs. Joseph Wagoner, Thos. Boykin, Thos. Miller and Richard Evert, of Greenville Sunday, came on the excursion last Monday, and were the guests of Mr. and A. J. Rogers. They were a jolly good crowd and enjoyed the day to their fullest extent. The young men belong to the Greenville Seacoast Club.

On August 12th, 13th and 14th the Southern Railway will place on, at all stations on its lines, round trip, special excursion tickets to Washington, Richmond and Norfolk and return, at rate of one single fare for the round trip. Tickets will be limited fifteen days from date of sale. This affords an exceptional opportunity to visit all eastern points. For exact rates, schedule, etc., call on or address any agent of the Southern Railway.

The Gazette, of York, Pa., which is the leading Democratic daily of that section, in its issue of the 3d instant, says:

"Miss Maude E. Young, daughter of Hon. James H. Young, of Raleigh, N. C., is visiting Mrs. Bishop Small, 256 E. King street. Miss Maude, who was formerly a pupil of Prof. H. G. bids fair to become an excellent pianist. She is one of the brightest students of Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C."

Notwithstanding the Civil Service humbug, Collier Harris, of the Fifth Internal Revenue District, has been making vacancies and filling them. Right you are Collector Harkins. To the victors belong the spoils. Civil Service rules or no Civil Service rules. Let the fair play. No money in the North Carolina need expect to be shielded by such rule, but on the contrary gentlemen, you must walk the plank, therefore prepare to meet your doom.

The sixth annual report of Rev. A. B. Hunter, the efficient Principal of St. Augustine School, published in the Record of said school is before us, and it shows that great work is being accomplished for the colored people by that school. There were 323 pupils enrolled in the various departments last year, which speaks well for the able management of the school. Send to the Principal and get a copy of the Record and read it for yourself.

The practice of throwing rocks at excursion trains and snatching the hats of excursionists as the train moves off is becoming too frequent in North Carolina and, as speaking for Raleigh, we can say that we believe an end is about to be put to it here.

The Lexington excursionists last week is severely denounced here by the good people of this city of both races, and several young men have been arrested and bound over to Court as participants in the affair. If people will not behave the strong arm of the law must be invoked to make them behave. Mayor Russ is after the offenders and is determined to break up such conduct and all good citizens should support him heartily in this good work. The Mayor of Lexington can find a little something to do along this line, as the excursion passing there last Friday morning was packed badly. Let the parties guilty of such conduct be given the full extent of the law.

Ye editor was given an excellent serenade by a unknown young lady last Tuesday night, consisting of both vocal and instrumental music. Thanks.

Revs. J. J. Worlds, A. B. Vincent, Caesar Johnson, Joseph Perry, G. C. Love, R. J. Lacy, J. A. Whitted, and Messrs. Louis Young, John O. Gary, Anthony Burns, and several others, left for the Wake Baptist Association, which met at Franklinton Wednesday.

General Traveling Agent J. D. Pair made short visits to Pilot, Pitt, Sutton, Drywell, Youngsville, High Point, Ashboro and Shotwell, his home, last week. He is attending the Wake Baptist Association this week, and will be for Asheville, N. C., on Sunday the 15th inst.

Hon. W. T. Primmer, of South Port, came up with the excursionists last Monday. Mr. Primmer is an applicant for the position of Inspector of Customs at that port when the new Collector is appointed. We would like to see Mr. Primmer given the position. He is a staunch Republican.

The Democratic newspapers are the most zealous and enthusiastic advocates of lynch law in North Carolina. While condemning, as they should, the rapist, they ought also to condemn the system, and stand for law and order in both instances. The write ups of these horrible crimes that these newspapers spread before their readers is an encouragement to mob law. The News and Observer and the Wilmington Messenger stand in the forefront in this despicable business. All lovers of law and order, and loyal citizens, will condemn in equal terms both the rapist and the lyncher. Let there be created a healthy public sentiment against both of these violators of the law.

Col. Thomas H. Knight arrived in the city last Monday about eleven o'clock with about one thousand excursionists from the "City by the Sea," and as usual they were a good looking, orderly set of people. They spent the day in visiting the State Museum, Capitol, Penitentiary and other places of interest about the City of Oaks. Our people here were, as they always are, glad to welcome the visitors. They all spent a pleasant time and left for their homes about eleven o'clock that night. By way of parenthesis we will say, and with regret, that in the base-ball game between Wilmington and Raleigh that Raleigh was not in it even a little bit as the score was 8 to 3 in favor of the visiting team. Raleigh must play ball or quit the diamond.

During our stay at Newbern last week we were domiciled at the hospitable mansion of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lawrence, in company with Messrs. E. M. Green, C. S. Taylor, J. H. Roper, S. H. Vick and Hon. Charles H. Brooks, of Philadelphia, who is the A. G. Grand Secretary of the G. U. O. of O. E. in America. This was a jolly set of hearty Old Fellows, but Messrs. Lawrence being a couple of entertainers was equal to the emergency and gave them a royal time. In fact all of the brethren were taken care of in the best of style by the generous people of that historic old city. On Tuesday night the Sisters of the Household of Ruth gave a grand reception and levee to the District Grand Lodge, Bishop Petty and his amiable wife, as did many others, contributed liberally to the enjoyment of the boys. But as Bro. Lawrence promised, as Reporter of the Grand Lodge, to send us a synopsis of the entire affair, we await its coming.

There will be a grand rally at the M. E. Church, Oberlin, next Sunday, August 15th. Rev. J. J. Worlds, assisted by Rev. Huggins, will preach at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. R. H. W. Leak will preach at 3 p. m., assisted by S. A. J. Miller. At night the pastor will preach. The public is cordially invited to attend all these services.

R. respectfully.

L. G. McDONALD, P. E.

Mutual Victorians.

The game of base-ball between the Mutuals, of Wilmington, and the Nationals, of Raleigh, last Monday at Athletic Park resulted in a score of eight for Wilmington and two for Raleigh. The pitching was excellent, the bases were full, the game to the Nationals was due to a few errors, made at a critical moment.

Death of Mrs. Bettie T. Russell.

Mrs. Bettie T. Russell died in Washington, D. C., Friday, August 6, at 130 p. m. Mrs. Bettie T. Russell was the mother-in-law of Mr. E. H. Hunter. The deceased was a lady of refined taste, Christian character and quietly dignified. She leaves a host of warm friends who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

An Evening Party by the Girls' Violet Pleasure Club.

In honor of the Wilmington guests the Girls' Violet Pleasure Club gave an evening party last Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gorman, on East Lenox street. A large number was present and a most pleasant evening passed. Among the guests present from Wilmington were the following: Miss Annie Miller, Mr. Thomas Anderson, Miss Lucy Butler, Miss Carrie Cotten, Miss Fannie Brinkley, Miss Lula Weston, Miss Winnie Nash, Miss R. C. Carraway, Miss Edna Douglass, Mr. Jos. Douglass and others.

District Grand Lodge No. 7 of the G. U. O. of O. E. F., at its session, last week, elected officers for the ensuing year as follows:

Grand Master—S. H. Vick, of Wilson. Deputy Grand Master—C. S. L. A. Taylor, of Charlotte.

Grand Secretary—John T. Howe, of Wilmington.

Grand Treasurer—Maurice Watts, of Raleigh.

Grand Dictator—E. M. Green, of Wilmington.

The Grand Lodge adjourned to meet at Hillsboro August 4th, 1898.

Base-ball—Louisburg vs. Franklinton.

At Louisburg, July 22, Louisburg 8, Franklinton 5; August 24, Louisburg 9, Franklinton 0. In the fourth inning the Franklinton pitcher was knocked out, and the game came into a free-for-all. He refused to play. Another battery came in and was knocked out on first ball; then, being hopeless, the team marched off the ground. Franklinton boys have seen better days. The captain will challenge them to play push pin.

Louisburg is ready to play any team in the State. Can Raleigh play him? Charlotte says not. Come down, Raleigh, and give us a practice, as you have for the past five years. We can beat you worse than Charlotte did.

VERONA, N. C., Aug. 2, 1897.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words. On Saturday, July 17th, Mr. McIntyre gave a dinner to the neighborhood people, and about 180 were present. After partaking of the bountiful dinner, we were pleasantly entertained by the following persons: Messrs. O. C. Pollock, James Pollock, Benjamin Pollock, N. H. Hemby, W. G. Graham and H. J. Hemby, upon the history of the negro race. At the closing of the speaking, Mr. E. W. Sheppard came forward and made a handsome speech upon the same subject. Well, surely, the negro race is slowly coming.

Your friend,

HENRY J. HAMBY.
