The friends of Mr. Wm. Howe Green will learn of his death with much regret. He died at his home in Wilmingmington, Monday, August 9th. For several months he had been in failing health. He was a young man of a very quiet disposition and highly thought of by those who knew him. For a number of years he successfully conducted a shoe store in the city of Wilmington.

We chronicle with sorrow the death of Mr. Joseph E. Sampson, who passed away at his home in Wilmington week before last. He had been in bad health for a long time, and the news of his death carried sadness to every part of the State. He was a most excellent Christian gentleman and all those who knew him loved him. Mr. Sampson had held many offices of public trust with credit to himself and the people whom he served.

The death of Major Charles D. Heartt was a sorrowful one to the citizens of our community regardless of color. > Mr. E. J. Young, General Secretary and Business Marager of the People's Benevolent and R-lief Association, was in the city last week. While in the city he paid the sick claims of James Wilson and Mrs. Hannah Reales. We bespeak for the Association in this grand enterprise noble success, for it has behind it a man of push and strict ability. This is the place we find the right man in the right place. There is being places opened up for the colored young men and women. His work is being felt all over the State, and has established many offices in the various towns with about 75 or 100 agents at work. The home office is stationed at Charlotte, and all moneys paid into this company stays within the borders of the grand Old North State, to increase her wealth and prosperity.

Eastern Notes.

Our visit to the Eastern Hospital last week was a very pleasant one, and all the courtesy that could be desired was shown us by Messrs. P. A. High, A. B. Howell, L. D. Herring, H. C. Crudup, E. F. Faison, J. A. Short, F. J Shaw, Fred. Hines, T. H. Hinton, Mr. Vail, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Isham Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer A. Best.

This institution for this class of unfortunate humanity is kept in excellent condition, every department is in the very best sanitary condition that possibly could be had. All the wards are looked after and kept neat and clean. At the request of the attendants in charge of the wards, Dr. Miller has purchased beautiful pictures, which were hung on the walls of the hallway in the different wards. This is greatly admired by the patients. Mr. P. A. High carried us through the dining hall, and first and second wards in the male department. In the dining hall are four long tables, the first to the right entering the hall is occupied by the first ward patients, the best and quietest pa tients. The seco d, those of the second ward; the third, those of the third ward; and the fourth, those of the fourth ward, the worst that are allowed to come to the table. Rules are posted in all the hall ways; and with the strict observance, everything is kept clean and healthy. The Asylum is just about full. Great credit is due the attendants for their faithful and diligent care of the patients. Dr. Miller is having some improvements made to the heating apparatus preparatory to the winter. Miss Priscilla Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Isham Dunn, and Mr. and Mrs. P. A.

High are among those of Raleigh who are employed in the Institution. The GAZETTE is read by a large portion of the attendants, and is highly spoken

The election last Tuesday was quiet indeed. This would remind one that no boodle could be handled, hence no politicians on hand for favorites. Mr. S. F. C. Hester attended the Firemen's Association at Winston last week. Mr. W. R. Harrison returned to Washington, D. C., last week. We return thanks to Dr. E. E. Smith, Principal of State Normal School at Goldsboro, for circulars explaining the advantages to be had at this school for the ensuing term. The very name of Dr. Smith being at the head of this insti | C. G. O'KELLY, A. M., Dean, tution assures success throughout. We have had the opportunity of receiving his instruction, and as instructor in the educational line he is without a peer. We hope great success will attend his work, and advise all of our friends who contemplate making teaching their profession to attend this school. Our ci izens should not under any circumstances throw any hindrances in the way to retard the consolidation of the two public schools on the Nash side. We must have a good school and let every one strive for this one point. Let us not cowl over the location, but go right to work and let the school be located on the present school site in Little Raleigh. It seems that some of our people had rather for our children to grow up in perfect ignorance than for themselves not to have things as they want it. This is a wrong spirit. We should co-operate for our best good, whether we get our wishes ised to send up a collection for that work. or not. Rocky Mount is without any school facilities whatever on the part of the colored people, and now we can see that by consolidating these two schools we can have better facilities in every particular, and as the white race is moving in this direction it will bring reproach upon us for any action on our part to retard such a movement. We again ask, let harmony prevail and a good school be established. Mr. W. W. Lawrence, Secretary of the New Berne Fair, was in our town last Saturday, and a more affable man we have never met. We hope our people will attend the Fair this year in large

We are sorry to note the death of Mr. Edward Black, a very premising young man, who recently came from Hender-he is out again. We extend our sympathy to our friend Mr. M. M. Hines and relatives in their sad bereavement in the loss of his faithful mother. Prof. Baxter gave a very enjoyable musical entertainment by his musical school last Monday night. The singing was superb, considering the time the school has been in operation. We wish Mr. Baxter the greaest success in his

Mr. E J. Young, General Secretary and Business Manager of the People's Benevolent and Reli-f Association of North Carolina, passed through the city from an extensive trip in the east in the interest of the Association. While in our city he paid the following names sick dues: Mrs. Hannah Measlers, 212 West Cabarrus street, and Jas. Wilson, South Person street. We are glad to Blount street; Mr. C. L. Gary, Cabarrus say they are fulfilling every promise and keeping every engagement. Mr. Young informs us that the Association has a membership of four thousand, have employed seventy deputies and five clerks in office. Mr. Young is a young man with great push, and with him as manager the society is compelled to succeed. He delivered a most eloquent and instructive lecture Tuesday night, August 10.h, to a most enthusiastic audience.
