The colored business men of Wilmington have organized a compony and started a livery stable business. This is a step in the right direction.

Mr. R. A. Cobb, State Librarian, visited the First Baptist Sunday School last Sunday and gave them an interesting and instructive talk.

Rev. J. E. King preached the funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rogers last Sunday afternoon at their home in East Raleigh.

Master Frank Evans, of Morehead City, has left his home by the seashore to spend a few weeks in our inland town with relatives and friends.

Mr. Britton Pierce will open an oyster market on E. Martin street and asks the patronage of his friends and the public in the future as in the past.

Editor Young was called to Rocky Monnt last Tuesday to the bedside of his brother, Isaac J. Young, who is seriously ill. We hope for his recovery. Prof. Moore, of Elizabeth City, conducted the Warren County Teacher's Institute on August 31st to September 3d. The attendance was very good. We learn that Mr. Charlie H. Branch, of Warrenton, N. C., will soon take to himself a beautiful bride—Miss Lizzie B. Harris-who is of the same town. Miss Nannie V. O'Kelley, who has been spending the summer at home, returned to Asheville this week where she resumes her work as teacher in the graded schools. The First Baptist Sunday School at Franklinton, N. C., elected Mesers. M. A. Fuller, S. S. Person and Miss Martha A. Cooke as delegates to the State Sunday School Convention. Mrs. W. R. Slade has returned to her home in Wilmington after a short stay against; Third Ward, 288 for, and 64 in our midst. Her mother, Mrs. George | against; Fourth Ward, 226 for, and 47 W. Williams, accompanied her home but has returned again to the city.

seriously ill in Atlantic City, N. J., was seen on our streets one day this week. His relatives and friends are glad to have him back by the fireside of his loving Mr. L. B. Hinton has received a letter from Bro. J. C. Barker, who is now in New York traveling in the interest of the Old Folk Home in this county. He reports success in those cities already visited since he left here.

An impositor claiming to belong to Hiram Masonic Lodge No. 11, of Washington, North Carolina, is fleecing the craft. Look out for him. He is a small brown skin man, poorly dressed, and goes under various names. The State Normal at Goldsboro, with Dr. E. E. Smith, Principal, began the session of 1897-'98 Monday the 6th. We believe under the management of Dr. Smith and his assistants the future usefulness of the school is bright.

Mrs. A. B. Vincent and children attended the New Era Institute at Hillsboro last week, and while there were the guests of Mrs. Berry. Miss Mable Vincent did not return with her mother, but will spend a month with her friends.

Rev. T. O. Fuller held a very successful revival meeting at his church at Wake Forest. There were sixty-two conversions and the church was greatly benefited spiritually. The baptising will take place on Sunday, September 19th.

We owe an apology to about thirty of our subscribers at Goldsboro for failing to send them the GAZETTE last week, which was caused by an unexpected increase in our subscription list and thereby causing us to run short of papers. We assure them that the like will not occur again.

All who are interested will please remember that the Supreme Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star meets with Magnolia Chapter No. 23 of Greensboro, on next Tuesday, the 14th instant. Reduced rates have been granted by all the railroads at the rate of about five cents per mile for the round trip.

Mr. James Norman, who has been for a number of years one of the efficient and trustworthy firemen on the passenger train of the W. & W. R. R., between Wilmington and Rocky Mount, was joined in holy matrimony to one of Golds-boro's fair sex last week. We extend our congratulations to the new couple.

Hon. George K. Pritchard, the worthy Sheriff of Mitchell County, who is a brother of Senator Pritchard, is, we are glad to say, rapidly recovering from the wounds inflicted upon him by a desperado whom he was attempting to arrest. He is known as one of the bravest and most courageous men in Western North Caro-

Register of Deeds Rogers placed the tax-books of Wake County in the hands of the County Commissioners last Monday, which is the first time in about 20 years that the books were completed so early. The Commissioners turned the books over to Sheriff Jones, and each tax payer can now visit that efficient officer and settle their taxes for 1897. Don't neglect this important matter.

The Mutual Aid Banking Company, of New Berne, managed and controlled by colored men, began business August 15th. It should be a pride to every negro in North Carolina. The beginning of the company is very encouraging and the future prospects are good. Officers: C. C. Rosch, President; Dr. Wm. L. Lassiter, Vice-President; J. H. Fisher, Cashier and Teller. Pegues, resigned; Miss Sallie A. Upperperman, teacher; Miss Maude E. Young, music teacher; Miss Resa McDaniel re-elected teacher, and Mr. T. H. Tillinghast, teacher. Misses Upperman and Young were elected to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of Mesdames A. W. family groceries, fancy groceries, and in Pegues and O. L. Bolden. The Superfact all the cheap groceries in the grocery | visor will in future be relieved from teaching and Mr. Tillinghast was elected to perform that work. The school epens on next Wednesday, the 15th, and will have a large attendance.

Dr. Wm. H. Moore is the oldest and one of the most reliable colored physicians in the State. He was in the city last week and handed us the cash for his renewal. The Doctor is now stationed at Agent, went down to Fayetteville Monday to organize a lodge of lady Knights knows what to do for his patients and just how to do it. If there is a physician in the State that the Afro American J. W. Jenkins, of Flint, N. C., to the | should be proud of it is Dr. Moore. He removes tumors without the aid of a knife and cures all manner of disease. See below what the leading citizens of Greensboro any concerning his deportment while in their town: This is to certify that Dr. W. H Moore has been a citizen of this city for a number of years engaged in the p actice of medicine. He has conducted himself in such a manner as to gain the respect of the people, both colored and white. His practice is large, including both white and colored.

In Honor of Mrs. Havens.

A delightful reception was given Friday night, September 4th, at the residence of Mrs. Rachel Battle, in Goldsboro, complimentary to Mrs. Della Havens, of Petersburg, Va., who has been visiting here, and has been the guest of OCTAVIUS MITCHELL, Plaintiff, Mrs. Walter Smith. Quite a number of invited guests were present, and the even-ing was one of a brilliant social gathering. Mrs. Havens left Saturd sy morning. WARSAW, N. C., Aug. 31, 1897. Mr. Editor: Please allow me a few words in your paper in regard to my church work. I have just closed a three week's meeting, which was a very suceessful one. I believe the spirit of the Lord was with us. There were added to three of my churches eighty-two converts. Yours in the work. REV. THOMAS PARKER.

A Home Enterprise.

Mr. E. J. Young, General Secretary and Business Manager of the People's Benevolent and Relief Association of North Carolina, passed through the city from an extensive trip in the east in the interest of the Association. While in our city he paid the following names sick dues: Mrs. Hannah Measlers, 212 West Cabarrus street, and Jas. Wilson, South Person street. We are glad to say they are fulfilling every promise and keeping every engagement. Mr. Young informs us that the Association has a membership of four thousand, have employed seventy deputies and five clerks in office. Mr. Young is a young man with great push, and with him as manager the society is compelled to succeed. He delivered a most elequent and instructive lecture Tuesday night, August 10 h, to a most enthusiastic audience. The following named young men have been appointed as deputies for the city of Raleigh: Mr. J. A. Young, on Cannon street; Mr. J. H. Love, Bloodworth street; Rev. J. C. Lowe, South Blount street, and Mr. Charlie Gary, West Cabarrus
