ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Look at Anderson's ad. in this issue. W. E. Jones has a lovely ad. this week. Mrs. Collin Walker is on the sick list this week, we are sorry to note.

Don't forget that Bull's is the place for you to buy your goods for the Fair.

Mrs. M. E. Byrd, of Smithfield, was in the city last week and took in the Fair.

The Utopian Fair is in progress this week, as is also the Rocky Mount Fair.

Remember that W. B. Mann's, on East Hargett street, is the place to buy cheap groceries.

In having your address changed, please give the former as well as the latter postoffice address.

Remember while in the city visiting the Fair, that at W. B. Mann's you will find cheap groceries.

Don't forget that B. W. Upchurch keeps groceries which are first-class, and oysters from Norfolk.

There will be a grand ball during the Fair for the enjoyment of the visitors. Manager, Chas. A. Dunston.

The North Carolina Industrial Association will hold its Fair next week. Gov. Russell will open it on Tuesday.

Mr. B. W. Lankford and his best girl, accompanied by her sister, were in the city last week visiting the Fair.

Master Fred Green, who has been very ill since last Friday night, is much better, and will not be out of the streets again.

The boys are preparing for a hot time next week. Look out, for there'll be a hot time in our town next week, my baby.

Mrs. T. S. Evans and children, of Morehead City, are in the city, visiting relatives, and will remain until after the Colored Fair.

Miss Lina Ramsay, of Pittsburg, is in the city, the guest of Misses Mamie and Ida Smith, at their residence on South East street.

You who are expecting to run stands at the Fair next week will do well to call on J. G. Ball and secure your hams and good things.

Shaw and St. Augustine foot-ball teams will meet at the Colored Fair Thursday, November 4th. There will be a purse of $50 for the winners.

The A. M. E. Z. Conference of the North Carolina Central District, will hold its next annual session November 17th, at Henderson, N. C.

Miss Maggie Cotton, after spending a couple of months in Norfolk, returned to the city last week. While in Norfolk she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Casper.

While attending the Baptist State Convention in Charlotte, last week, we were royally entertained at the pleasant home of Mrs. L. L. Walker, 407 South Myers St.

Rev. S. G. Newsome and Miss Sadie E. Smith, of Battleground, spent last Saturday in our city, in the interest of the Utopian Fair, of which Rev. Newsome is President.

And you, too, (Mr. Ernest Jones), have taken to yourself a help mate. On Friday, October 22d, Mr. Ernest Jones tied the nuptial knot. We hope for him much success.

Rev. A. B. Vincent will preach at Fayetteville Street Baptist Church, the first Sunday in November, which day will be grand rally day. Rev. T. B. Edwards, Pastor.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Wesley Gorham to Miss Annie Ediza Young, Wednesday night, November 3d, at the residence of Rev. A. W. Curtis, on East Lenoir street.

Miss Mary Haywood, of this place, and Jno. H. Ridley, of Louisville, were happily united in matrimony at Newport News, October 20th. We extend to the couple our warmest wishes and congratulations.

Miss Cora A. Bass passed through the city last Saturday en route to Kittrell, where she entered school. We know that he was indeed glad to see her, for she has been his night's dream and day's talk ever since.

Thomas Hawkins, an industrious young man from Ridgeway, was run over and killed by a street car in this city on Tuesday of last week. The street car company sent his remains home for burial.

Mrs. Jas. Richardson is the place for you who are coming to the Fair and wish good board and lodging. Give her a call, and be convinced that Mrs. Richardson has the nicest and cleanest restaurant for colored people in the city.

There will be a Special Temperance Concert next Sunday night, October 31st, at the Congregational Church, under the direction of Miss Mary Love. An address will be given by Prof. Capehart, and very interesting exercises will be presented. All are cordially invited.

Daniel J. White and Miss Hollen Susan Rowe, who were happily united in the holy bonds of matrimony in Durham, N. C., October 18th, passed through Raleigh en route to H. N. C. Church for a home. While in Raleigh they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bemery.

The State Fair was a grand success last week in the way of exhibits, and but for the rain would have eclipsed all others in point of attendance and of horse racing. There would also have been some fine bicycle racing. Hon. J. S. Cunningham of Person county was elected President, and Hon. John Nichols re-elected Secretary.

We were indeed glad to add to our list of subscribers this week the names of Mr. S. Smith, whose name was sent us by our friend, Mr. C. P. Anthony, of Scotland Neck, N. C.; Rev. I. S. Riddick, of Alston, and Mr. W. M. Person. Among those who renewed their subscriptions this week, and, too, for which we are very grateful, were Messrs. L. Fletcher, a promising young man now attending Shaw, and Mr. E. M. Croom, Jr., of LaGrange, N. C. Thanks.

Died.

Mrs. Annie Tate, mother of our townsman, Mr. J. E. H. Tate, departed this life October 25th, 1897, in the sixty-second year of her age. She had been a member of St. Paul's A. M. E. Church for a number of years, and at the time of her death was Treasurer of F. G. U. O. O. T. R. (No. 24), Raleigh, in which capacity she proved faithful until the end. She leaves behind a son, three daughters, and a large host of sorrowing friends to mourn their loss. Her funeral took place October 26th, from St. Paul's A. M. E. Church, Revs. R. H. W. Leak and W. A. Jones officiating.

A Swell Reception.

Friday night, October 25th, at the residence of Rev. R. H. W. Leak, was given complimentary to his daughter, Miss Gertrude E. Leak, a birthday party. The jovial throng of merry-makers were indeed happy, and enjoyed themselves immensely. The house and piazza were brilliantly lighted. The Japanese lanterns which were hung in mid air added much lustre to the occasion. The program of the evening was just superb. The debut of Miss Leak and Mr. Rick was indeed grand, and those present imagined themselves wafting in the region of Sirens, for surely they could not have made sweeter music.

After partaking of the many dainties with which the tables were laden, it was then that they, with sore heart, realized for the first time that they must part, but not forever.

EDENTON, N. C., Oct. 19, 1897
Mr. Jas. H. Young,

DEAR SIR: I wish to fill this week's list in entering the following: At the meeting of the board of trustees of this county Wednesday night, the following were appointed teachers for the town school, Rev. Herriage, principal; Mrs. Barely one assistant teacher, Mrs. Fannie Badhams, one of Shaw University graduates, another; Miss Mary E. Harris Hampton (graduate) another, and Hattie McNider Harris, one of Shaw's graduates of '97, the others are only two representatives here as graduates, and they are trying to hold her up. May Shaw still go on in the future as she has in the past.

My summer months were very pleasantly spent teaching in the town of Williamston, N. C.

Kindly remember me to your daughter, Maud.

Send charges for entering of the stated article, and the money will be sent.

Very truly yours,
HATTIE MCNIDER HARRIS.

Death of Mrs. Delia A. Hughes.

Mrs. Delia A. Hughes, wife of Hon. H. T. Hughes, passed away from earthly toil and care into her home beyond the sky on Sunday morning, October 10th, at her home in Charlotte. In her early years she gave her heart to Jesus Christ, uniting with St. Paul's Methodist Church, Raleigh, and remaining a member until her death. Her Christian life was characterized by consecration to the service of God. She was devoted to all the interests pertaining to her Master's kingdom. She was 46 years of age, and leaves a devoted husband and seven children to mourn her departure. She had been in feeble health for over two years. We affectionately commend the loved ones to our Heavenly Father for comfort, Mr. Hughes had formerly lived in Oxford, and served several terms as a member of the State Legislature in the General Assembly, and also held the office of Magistrate in his county with credit to himself and his county for a number of years.

The remains of Mrs. Hughes were brought to Raleigh on Monday 11th inst., and were met at the depot by a number of relatives and friends. From there they were taken to St. Paul's Church. At 4 o'clock the funeral was preached by Rev. R. H. W. Leak. The services were very impressive, many friends attending. The deserted temple of the spirit was lovingly laid away in Mt. Hope Cemetery, witnessed by a large concourse of friends.

Wedding Belle.

Crowded to the doors was Blount Street Baptist Church Thursday evening, October 22d. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Hattie Upchurch to Rev. J. C. Love, pastor of Blount Street Baptist Church. Arriving at the church, the bride, leaning on the arm of her maid of honor, and the bridegroom, escorted by his best man, marched down the aisles and met at the altar. Here, with Rev. W. A. Peggans officiating, this happy young couple was pronounced man and wife. After the knot had been tied, to be broken only by death, the young people, with their guests, retired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Cato Thornton on Cabarrus street, where a swell reception was given the couple.

At the marriage Mr. C. R. Fraser acted as best man, Miss Rebecca Sparks as bridesmaid. The ushers were Messrs. Philip Haywood, J. D. Crutcher, J. E. McKee and Chas. E. Gary.

Bishop J. B. Small sailed for home on the steamer "Furnessia," from Glasgow, Scotland, on the 14th inst., and reached New York on the 24th. His accomplished wife met him in New York on his arrival.

Mr. S. D. Miller and Mattie N. Miller, of Durham, N. C., spent a very pleasant summer at Berkley Springs, W. Va., and will spend some time in Washington, D. C., before returning to Durham.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE UTOPIAN AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY begs to announce that the Third Annual Fair of said society will open at Conway, N. C., on the 26th day of October and continue four days.

The object of this enterprise is to stimulate industry, skill, economy and thrift among the negroes of this section of our State, known as "The Dark Belt." To afford the highest possible degree of incentive to the general progress of the race in the field, the workshop, the schoolroom, the kitchen and the seamstress establishments. It has been by such means that the progressive nations of the earth, from time to time, have increased their power and arisen in the estimation of an enlightened world. In no other way can we better show the strength of our claim of equality with other races of the world when given an equal chance. The world looks daily for practical results—for something worthy of recognition and respect to be done. Then we entreat our people to lay aside sentiment and prejudice and come unitedly to the aid of whatever has the tendency to elevate and build up the race materially, intellectually and morally, as well as spiritually.

We earnestly call upon our farmers, our ladies and educators to bring the best products of their skill and ingenuity, and thereby show the high destiny of the race.

We gratefully solicit the aid, encouragement and presence of our white friends in this enterprise, for the fact that they have been the true friends of the race in giving their money, labor and strong influence to help us. We cordially ask their continuance.

Finally, we urge the personal presence of the men and women of our race. Come each day, as each day will be a big day, and let us show by our presence and exhibits the great interest we have in the enterprise, and the ultimate elevation of the race in the eyes of an intelligent world.

With sincere hope of much success, we are respectfully yours,
S. G. NEWSOME, President.
R. NICHOLS, Vice-President.
E. E. ROBERTS, Secretary.
For the Board of Directors.
