The Thanksgiving reception at the Odd Fellow's hall last Thursday night was the grandest affair of the occasion. As the sweet strains of music fell upon the ears of the participants they glided swiftly over the floor. The merry-makers enjoyed themselves extremely, and never were there a more gentlemanly set of young men gotten together. The hall was indeed brilliantly decorated, so much so that the merry makers could only imagine themselves in a world of bliss and happiness.

Mr. George B. Willis, formerly of Newbern but now of New York, sends us a renewal and writes us a good letter, in which he pays his respects to the "Democratic Aid Society" which was organized here during the week of the Colored Fair. His letter would make good reading for our readers as he reviews conditions for the past thirty years, but he says it is not for publication. He speaks in warm praise of the GAZETTE. He was in the Legislature of our State in 1870-71. He expects to move back to our State in the early spring.

During our two week's stay in the city of Wilmington, looking after the Ga-ZETTE, it was our pleasure to meet Hon. D. B. Sution, who represented the county of New Hanover in the last Legislature. He gave us a hearty and cordial greeting. Mr. Sutton has recently been re-elected City Attorney, as we learn, to the entire satisfaction of New Hanover Republicans. Mrs. Minerva Abbott departed this life Tuesday, November 23, 1897. She was born in Elenton, N C, about 98 years ago, and has been a Christian more than fifty years, and a member of St. Paul's A. M. E. Courch at R leigh, N C, thirtyfive years. In 1875 she went North and attached herself in the old B thei Church Messrs, J. R. Ferrall & Co., the leading | at that time in Sullivan street, and in 1882 she returned to Rab igh. In 1887 she again returned to New York to live with her son, P. E. Abbott. In June, '97, she returned to Method, N. C., to her daughter's, Mrs. Peggie Blunt, where the end came. She was one of those old time Christians who never forgot her obligations to God. Her last words were, that she was just waiting for the word to cross over Jordan.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Peggie Blunt; one son, P. E. Abbott, of New York; eight grand, and nine great grandchildren to mourn their loss. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Isaac Boyd from John 11,25-26. The interment was at Cary. Peace to her ashes.
