We are glad to add to our list of new sub-cribers and renewals the nan es of Messrs. Nathaniel Toney, the foreman in the shoe department of the colored D., D. and B. Inst., G W. Mechem, J. L Kelly, James Shera d. Rev. J. seph Perry, E. L. Hunt and A. W. Smith, one of Smithfield's most successful merchants.

Mr. Lonnie Jones is one of Raleigh's expert paper hangers. Experience qualifirs him for his profession. He has just received a fine lot of paper, which be will gladly show to his patrons. Give him a trial and be convinced that he gives the best and cheapest job of any paper-hanger in the city. Offices: 317 Bloodworth and 106 Wilmington streets.

The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge will be called to order at Wilson next Tuesday at 3 o'clock P. M., and it is expected that every officer, member and representative will be present at that time. It is hoped that the local brethren will have every thing in readiness at that hour. A profitable session as well as a pleasant time is anticipated in the progressive town of

The return of Rev. P. L. Cuyler to St. Luke, Wilmington, meets with a universal pleasure and happiness of his congregation. His ministerial work here during the past year was a successful one, and he has won the love and affection of his whole congregation and the citizens generally. Rev. Cuyler is making several additions and repairs to his church, which when completed will add much to the beauty of this magniggent cathedral.

It was our pleasure while in Franklinton last week to visit the Baptist school, of our Kt. g. the Christian school, Albion Academy and the State Normal school. The Baptist vice, spent Saturday and Sunday in the school, under the principalship of Miss Curtis, seems to be in a prosperous condition. Mr. Z. A. Post is the principal of the Christian school, which has a good attendance. The continuous success and excellent condition of Albion Academy reflects much credit upon Dr. Savage and his able corps of teachers. Among those whom we saw were Miss N. M. Kerkins, Profs. Tucker, Neal, Fuller and Long. Dr. Savage is preparing other buildings for the students as the present ones will not accommodate them. We are glad to observe that many towns and cities are preparing to celebrate the event of the issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation on the first day of next January and we hope that the others that have not prepared to do so will bestir themselves at once. That is the day of jubilee for the Negro race and should be fittingly remembered. We hope that at these celebrations the people will speak out in no uncertain tone against the sentiment of disfranchisement which is now being propagated in certain quarters. As one of the results of the Proclamation the Negro was given the ballot, and in the name of God and of humanity let us do our duty in the struggle to preserve and perpetuate that right.

The Conference at Newbern.

The annual session of the A. M. E. Zion Conference met in St. Peter's Church November 24th to 30th. Rev. Bishop C. R. Harris, D. D., presided, assisted by Bishop J. W. Hood, D. D., and Bishop C. C.
