ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Remember C. H. Anderson's ad. Mr. Sol. Christmas, after several weeks of illness, is out and at his post.

Mr. Eaton Robinson handed us the cash for a renewal to the GAZETTE last week. Thanks.

Messrs. Jesse H. Harris and A. G. Ross. both employees of the S A. L., handed us cash subscriptions last wiek. Thanks.

Mr. Frank Twitty, one of the expert tonsorialists of W. G. O ey's barber shop, is out and at his post after several weeks

Mrs. Mamie E. Dry, a former resident of this city, but now of Westfield, Mass., is in the city visiting her parent on West Cannon street. Mr. Jessie E. Tate, who has been very sick for several days, is reported very little better, if any, but we hope for him a speedy recoovery. Miss Annette Clanton, of West Cannon street, graced our sanctum this week and kindly renewed her mother's (Mrs. Lizzie Clanton) subscription. Mr. Robert Lane, a prosperous farmer in St. Mary's township was happily married to Mrs. Laura Johns, Wednesday evening, January 5th. Mr. Fagan Clements, who was appointed by the Commissioners as Deputy Sheriff, is at his post in good shape for the business. Keek your eye on 'em, boys. Prof. S. N. Vass, Mr. Eaton Robinson, Rev. T. S. Evans, Rufus H. Smith, A. L. Price and R. B. Dansham were among those who favored us with renewals last week.

Rev. M. T. Hawkins has accepted a call to the Cedar Grove Baptist church, New Berne, N. C. He passed through the city Saturday, on his route to his new field of labor.

There was a grand entertainment given at the Odd Fellows' Hall Wednesday night of this week, of which Mr. Louis Taylor was chairman and Mr. Phil. Hay-Mr. John H. Love, on South Bloodworth street, is still laboring under the hands affliction, but he is somewhat better and is is hoped that he will soon be o it upon our streets.

Mr. Willie Upperman, who is now a resident of Philadelphia, spent several days in the city with his parents on West South street. The exc's hope for him a happy and a successful New Year.

Among our renewals received this week appear the names of Rev. S. S. Barber, Messrs. Beverly Short, Prof. J. W. Ligon, Principal of the Wake Forest High School, M. High and Robert Evans. Miss Hanna McNair, daughter of our much esteemed townsman, Mr. Hugh McNair, will spend the winter with her parents on East Lenoir street and return to her Northern home in the early spring. Rev. Wm. Sutton passed through the city Monday of this week en route to his home in Henderson, N. C. While in the city he called on us and handed us the cash for his renewal. Thanks Reverend. Mr. T. M. Martin, of Youngsville, N. C., was in the city Monday of this week visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Martin is one of Youngsville's expert tonsorialists, and a hearty supporter of THE Those who kindly furnished us with renewals this week are M ssrs. Bryon Brown, A. G. White, J S. W. rtham, S. G. Walker, Dr. M. D. Bowen of Shaw, H. S. Strickland, Mrs. Jane Holeman, and R. S. Morgan.

Don't forget that at the Capital City Pharmacy you can find fresh and pure drugs; and always remember that this is an enterprise that should not only be en- | night. couraged by the race to which it belongs, but by the community.

Mr. Allen L. Young is teaching a public school near Forestville, and reports a fine school with an excellent attendance, Mr. Young says the people here are kind and doing everything to aid the teacher in his school work. They are very much interested in education.

Don't forget while you pass through that John Mitchell, the old reliable, is still doing business in grand style just below Lee's old stables. Hot dinner 15c.; 1 quart coffee 5c. Give him a call. He keeps barbecue, too, and don't you forget that it is out of sight.

Mrs. James Richardson's is the place for you who are in search of good food and well cooked food. Give her a call and you will be served in the grandest style. Oysters on half shell, oysters fried, oysters stewed, or, in fact, oysters in all styles at Mrs. Richardson's restaurant.

Bishop J. A. Bebee, Sr. Bishop of first Episcopal district of the C. M. F. church in America, spent a few days in our city during the Caristmas holidays, and was a pleasant caller at our office. The Bishop is also one of the wealthiest and most prosperous farmer in Beaufort county.

Rev. J. H M. Pollard has accepted the position of Arch Deacon under Rt. Rev. Bishop Cheshire for the diocese of North Carolina. He will enter upon the duties of this position March 1st. He will live in this city, and the citizens of Raleigh will welcome this distinguished gentleman in our midst. Mr. Luke Peaks was in the city several days ago representing a new order, The Knights of Gideon. Mr. Peaks is a man of push and stickability, and to whatever he puts his hand, as a general thing, proves to be a success. Mr. Peaks is also a manufacturer of regalias, badges and Fuller for Sunday School Missionary for this State and also pledged the sum of $250 for this year towards the support of said missionary. They authorized the President of the Convention, Rev. A. P. Eston, to go to Philadelphia and lay these facts before the A. B. P. Society.

Rev. J. E King, pastor of St. Ambrose Episcopal Church, received quite an unexpected surprise on Caristmas night. Before the Reverend caught on to the situation he was at his wits end to decide whether his house was being assaulted or not, but the appearance of Madams Young and Hoover dispelled this fear and the sunshine of joy burst forth into his heart. Those ladies, representing the ladies of the Parish, presented to Rev. and Mrs. King an abundance of good and useful things, which were happily re-ceived by the Reverend and his good

Eastern Snap Shots.

The utterances of Dr. E. E. Smith and Rev. C. Dillard, of the State Normal and Graded schools at Goldsboro, were happy thoughts along the proper lines of race development. We, as a race, must adjust ourselves to environments and present conditions, training ourselves to be conservative. The addresses are gems of thought that should be put in practice.

Hon, George H. White was to have spoken at Goldsboro as well as Rocky Mr. We are not advised as to the text of his addresses at either place. But to know the man guaran ees safe counsel.

Bruce Grit might call a halt in his color dissertations; they become ridiculous since such men as he encourage the actions of Bishop Turner when on agreeable terms, but when tinged with prejudice and feeling they are ready to direct the attention of the country to our "bright folk." What real good is there in fomenting strife among yourselves? The true gentleman and lady will not cause each other pain about the sins of their parents. If "Bishop Turner" is guilty of the charges laid at his door about giving preference to men on account of their color, then he is unworthy of a position in the Christian pulpit. It would be well for the race to let this color question alone for the present.

In a half decade St. Stephens' A. M. E. Church, Wilmington, N. C., raises $10,-951.87; disbursements, $12,137 11; paid pastor $5,000, and pensions to the poor 1.040. But the grandest showing is the conversions, estimated at 1,050 souls; lite a harvest for the King of Kings. Dr. F. S. Lee will have to enter his closet often to overshadow Dr. E. J. Gregg's great work.

Bar rooms and crap-shooting dens should be avoided by the public school teacher. A higher life!

Tarboro rejoices that it possesses a monument to the Christian faith in the person of the aged sister Sophia Crammell, who is a daughter of the King, and insists that Humble Workers' Circle must take her offerings to help others. She is a worthy member of St. Paul Baptist Miss Anna Whitly charmed her audience at the King's Daughters' entertainment. The entertainment was a great success, and Mrs Killebrew, Misses Dancey, Matthewson, Mrs. Pittman, Messrs. Allen, Dancey and Cain did well. All honor to Miss M. D. Faithful.

If Princeville fails to secure the postoffice it will not be the fault of Congressman White. Edgecombe people must learn to be in harmony with each other

Mr. Thomas E. Lewis was the giver of a wine set to Mr. and Mrs. Dancey.

Mrs. Frontis Williams, formerly of Washington, but now of New Haven, Conn., lies dangerously ill in that city. Mr. Garrett and family will in future reside in Tarboro, while Mrs. Sam Law-

Mr. Richard F. Eppes and little Henry Austin returned to the Boro from Wilmington last week. He is teaching near Lawrence.

Mrs. James B. Dudley, as was stated in these columns some time ago, has not resigned the principalship of Campbell Square School.

The Thursday meeting did not mate-The establishing of a third bank creates a breeze among those who have decided to use the Edgecombe negro for all time. All the county money can't stay in one bank as we see the moves. The failure of Hon. Chas. A. Cooke in securing the district attorneyship plum is regretted by every adherent of Hon. Geo. H. White in the Second District. It is known that he labored earnestly to have Cooke nominated. Skinner disposes of a Republican candidate for Congress, he thinks, in the First District, but if advices are true he will have an opponent. Governor Bushnell and the Republican party of Ohio, with J. B. Foraker as a eader, will live to win future victories, The only contest to be made by the Democrats will be for the Logislature in the Second District. Hon. J. J. Martin is resting on his oars awaiting the troubling of post office jobs. His son Frank may enter the race for R gister of Dets if a white man is ESSE QUAM VIDERI. chosen.

Death.

Mr. Thomas H. Williams, who was born October 10, 1830, in Pittsboro, N. C., died at his residence in Oberlin on January 11, 1898. He came to Raleigh in 1866 and in the fall of the same year moved to Oberlin, where he resided until his death. He was a carpenter, and for about thirty years was in the employ of the late Mr. Mrs. S. A. Mial, who is engaged in the Thomas H. Briggs. He enjoyed the conmission work, was at Rolesville and For- fidence and respect of all of our citizens. His was a christian life. He leaves a wife, six sons, two daughters and twelve grandchildren to mourn his loss. His funeral, which was largely attended by people of person for this work than sister Mial. both races, was preached at the M. E. Church in Oberlin Wednesday of last week by Rev. R. H. W. Bennett College is not a whit behind the other school of Greensboro. They are rapidly preparing the new building for the accommodation of young men. Prof. R. W. S. Thomas is still there, and it seems to be his delight to take strangers around and show them the school. Durham is still wide awake. There is a muster and many hurrahs already for the joyous holidays which is so near at hand. Drs. Moore and Warren are kept pretty busy looking after the sick. Lawyer Cannady, Messrs. Evans, Green, Pearson, Husban, and Misses Morgan, Ray and Sellers are all teaching in the public schools in the rural districts, while Prof. W. G. Pearson, assisted by Miss Whitted, Misses Potia Whitted, Ella Ray, Karie Trueman, Nannie O'Daniels, and Miss Lillian Fitzgerald, keep the children in the town of Durham in line with the times. It is reported that the Graded School in Durham is the best in the State. They have a large school building with a nice assembly room, and the class rooms are also nicely arranged and well furnished. Prof. Pearson not only has an efficient and fine looking set of teachers to assist him, but he has a fine looking set of bright-minded boys and girls. Durham has many reasons to be proud of its city public schools.

Dr. Dodson's beautiful residence is rapidly going up. It is a two-story building with about ten rooms, and when it is finished it will be a very pretty one. The District Conference of the A. M.

E. Church convened at Rev. P. J. Jor dan's church, Greensboro, N. C., last Rev. G. C. Shaw's school of Oxford, N.

C., is very well attended this term. A much larger attendance is expected after Christmas.
