Entertainment.

DAVID D. ALLEN. RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally, that he has opened a House of Entertainment in the South-East corner of the Court House square—together with the buildings lately occupied by James D. Reay, Esq. a commodious and airy building, which will enable him to accommodate from 15 to 20 boarders. His tables will be supplied with the best of the market; his bar is supplied with the best Liquors, and he trusts from his acquaintance, those who in y favour him with their custom, to receive a liberal share of public patronage. Persons a ready count as well as Travellers shall always be accommodated, and every attention paid to render their stay agreeable. His Stables are good and furnished with every article in the above line. The greater care will be taken of Horses left in his charge. Fayetteville, Nov. 29. —42:1f

200 Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber or stolen, most probably the latter, in the month of September, 1816, a negro man SHADRACK. He is of common size, very black, about nineteen or twenty years of age when he left me, or was taken away; had a piece cut off of his right ear; large scar in the bend of one of his elbows, occasioned by a burn, and the hands much contracted; a scar on one of his legs, occasioned by a snag; a number of other scars on him, and much marked with the whip. The probability is his name is now altered. Fifty dollars reward will be given for the apprehension of said negro, confined in any goal, and information given to the subscriber, so that he gets him again, and all reasonable charges paid; one hundred and fifty dollars reward for the thief, with proof to conviction. Any person able to give me any information concerning said negro, will do me the kindness to write to me, addressed Fairfield District, South Carolina. JEPHTHA PICKETT. Nov. 19th 1822. —27:3w

Notice.

ALL persons matched to the late concern of Winslow & Haskie, are notified, that after the 1st day of February next, their obligations will be placed in the hands of Thomas C. Hoo, Esq. for collection. JOHN HUCKE, Surviving Partner. Dec. 26, 1822. —29:4w

TO BE LET,

For a Few Months, THE LAST WING OF THE MANSION HOTEL, Well calculated for a Store. Applied to T. TABER. Oct. 22. —22:1f

FOR SALE,

The Stage Line FROM FAYETTEVILLE TO TARBOROUGH, BEING PART OF The Norfolk Line,

WILL be disposed of at Auction, to the highest bidder, under a Deed of Trust, executed to the subscriber by the Proprietor thereof, for purposes therein mentioned, at the

TOWN HOUSE

On Monday, the 20th January next, AT 11 O'CLOCK, A.M.

The lot consists of THIRTY HORSES, AND FIFTEEN STAGES, AND HARNESS complete, all in excellent condition.

The travelling on this route the present year, fully proves the great utility and convenience of the stage, and there is no doubt the revenue arising from the establishment will increase. In addition to the Stage Boats from Norfolk to Baltimore, and the City of Washington, a very superior Steam Boat has recently commenced running from the former place to New-York, with the greatest success, which must advance the interest of the Stage Line.

Communications addressed to the Proprietor of the subscriber at this place, will meet with immediate attention, and all persons disposed to examine the Line, are invited to do so. TERMS liberal, and will be made known on the day of Sale. JAMES FOWNES, Trustee. Fayetteville, N. C. Dec. 3, 1822. —26:5d.

Runaway taken up,

AND committed to the Jail of this county, on the 13th of this month, a negro man who calls himself

PETER,

about five feet seven or eight inches high, dark complexion slender make, and appears to be about forty or forty-five years of age, and marked on each cheek; and had on when taken up, a waxed he respun coat, dyed with Madder, and blue e-laine pantaloons, and had lost all his fore teeth, and talks very bad English, only enough to know the master's name is Mr. Danlop, but can not tell what State or county he resides in. The owner would do well to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away. SAMUEL M. CUTSBY, Jailor. Fayetteville, July 18, 1822. —7:1

Notice.

AT December Term, 1822, of Cumberland County Court, the subscriber obtained Letters of Administration, with Will annexed, on the Estate of Moses Edwards, dec'd.—These indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the estate, are required to present them for payment, within the time limited by Law, or they will be barred of a recovery. JONATHAN EVANS, Adm'rx. with Will annexed. Dec. 19, 1822. —29:3w

Intending to leave this State in the Spring, the subscriber offers for sale his

Manufactory

STONE-WARE

With all the fixtures on the premises. The Factory is now in successful operation and is an object worth the attention of any person wishing to engage in a lucrative business.—The terms shall be made accommodating to the purchaser. GURDON ROBINS. Fayetteville, Dec. 1822. —28:1f

STOCK WANTED.

NORTH CAROLINA State Bank Stock. Cape Fear do. United States Bank do. United States Gov't Stock, By Robert Donaldson. Dec. 19, 1822. —29:1f

Notice.

WILL be sold, at Public Auction, at Simpson Court House, on the 10th day of January next, all my right and title to dower in the Lands of Wm. S. Clinton, dec. lying adjoining the Court House of Simpson. On these Lands, within one hundred yards of the Court House, is a large and commodious Dwelling House in need of repair, with good Stables and other out houses.

This is one of the most eligible spots for a Tavern in the lower part of North Carolina, and is a healthy and elegant situation. The terms of sale will be one fourth cash, the balance on a credit of twelve months, the purchaser giving bond with approved security. PATIENCE CLINTON. Nov. 28, 1822. —26:1ds.

Jordan's Hotel.

THE Subscriber, begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he continues at his well known stand, which he now keeps for the accommodation of Travellers His Stables are equal if not superior to any in this state, and are constantly supplied with Forage and Grain of all kinds, and attended to by faithful, steady Hostlers. DILLON JORDAN. Fayetteville, N. C. Nov. 25, 1822.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, two young Negro men, to wit: DAVE, formerly the property of Mr. R. Ford of Fayetteville—and LEWIS, formerly the property of Mr. Adam of the same place. It is supposed that they are about Fayetteville where they were raised. Any person lodging the said Negroes in Fayetteville Jail, will receive the above reward by calling on Mr. Peter Mallett, or fifteen dollars for either of them. JOHN DEWITT. Nov. 22, 1822. —26:9wpd

DISSOLUTION.

THE Co-PARTNERSHIP OF Brandon & McCorkle, existing in Wadesborough, N. C. is this day declared to be dissolved. Those indebted to the concern are called upon to make immediate payment, and those who hold claims against the firm, will present them for payment—either of the Co Partners are authorised to settle accounts and transact any other business relative to the firm. The firm hold a HOUSE and LOT in this place, which is one of the best stands for a Store in the Borough—Goods to a large amount could be vendid here, and for a great profit.—Merchants of Fayetteville would find it to their advantage to purchase this stand, and open a large Dry Goods and Grocery business; which would yield a handsome profit, as goods are scarce in this place.—Also, a Lot, on which is situated a Machine house and Screw, in the best repair. The above Real Estate will be sold on the most accommodating terms to suit purchasers. A. W. BRANDON, Wm. B. McCORKLE. Wadesborough, Jan. 1, 1823. (31:3w)

NOTICE.

A good opportunity.—The Proprietors of the Observer & Gazette, will sell a gr at bargain of their Printing Establishment in this place. From the many advantages in point of local situation, with the extensive patronage this paper now possesses, it promises to be ere long, one of the most profitable Journals printed in the State, and at the same time, to afford a good field for the display of useful talent. To a man of some capital, practically acquainted with the details of a printing office, such an opportunity seldom occurs. Further information may be obtained, by Letter, addressed to James Seawell, Fayetteville, N. C. * Editors who exchange with the Observer, will confer a favor, by giving the above notice a few insertions. Fayetteville Nov. 21.
