Ellis' Mills.

THE well known Saw and Grind Mills belonging to the subscriber, having undergone a thorough repair, are again in complete operation. The access to these Mills is easy; and the Proprietor begs leave to inform the public, that he will shortly have on hand a very extensive variety of the best Lumber, which will be sold on as favorable terms as can be obtained in any part of the county. He would also state, that such grain as is hereafter brought to his Mills, shall be ground and dressed in the best manner; and on account of the pressure of the times, the due shall be charged only one twelfth instead of one tenth, as heretofore.

JOHN ELLIS.
Ellis' Mills, March 19, 1823.

Run Away

FROM the subscriber, on the night of the 16th inst. a mulatto woman named Sylvia, about five feet five or six inches high, thick lips, rather slow of speech, and fine voice, aged about thirty years—had on a blue striped homespun frock. Also, her son about nine or ten years old named Henry, a very light Mulatto, with grey eyes, and remarkable white teeth—had on a dark homespun woolen coat, black and white striped pantaloons and good shoes.

A generous reward will be given and all reasonable expenses paid, to any person who will deliver them to me or secure them in Jail so that I get them again.

JOHN PUGSLEY.
Deer creek, Jefferson county, Georgia, March 17.
N. B. Perhaps she may have been taken off by some villain or villains—If so, One Hundred Dollars will be given to apprehend and secure them (with the negroes) so that they may be brought to justice.—Sylvia will no doubt make for Newbern, North Carolina, from which place she was brought in 1815, by a Mr. Bryant who kept a public house in or near Newbern.

Miss Bingham's School

MISS Bingham is thankful for the liberal encouragement which she has received since she has been keeping a private school. She informs her Friends and the Public in general, that she continues to receive scholars and instructs them in the following branches, viz. Reading, Writing, Aridmetic, Grammar, Geography, with the use of the Maps and Globes, History Logic, Natural and Moral Philosophy, Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, Drawing, Painting, & Needlework. Her qualifications as a Teacher being well known: having Taught six years in this town, (besides a long time at the North)—her unremitting attention, as well to the youngest, as the oldest pupils, make her confident that their improvement will be equal to the expectations of the scholar's friends.

Her Terms continue to be the same as formerly, viz. from three to 7. dollars per quarter, with the addition of a small tax of 25 Cents for Fire Wood, Water, &c.
