RHEUMATISMS AND Inflammations Cured.

IT IS A FACT, THAT Rheumatism of ordinary kind can be almost infallibly cured, and Rheumatic Pains always mitigated, in a few hours, by the use of Dr. PIERRE E. BRANDE'S Anti Rheumatic Salve. This is the most valuable for its efficacy in Rheumatism, this Salve is probably not surpassed in the cure of Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Scalds, Blisters, sore Nipples, and other external Inflammations. A more valuable Family Medicine, it is prepared, has never been offered. Sold in tin boxes, at one dollar, with printed directions and certificate of its utility. Druggists will at present be furnished on commission or can be purchased at a liberal deduction. R. EDWARDS, Agent, At Charleston, for the Southern States. A few boxes of this invaluable medicine, for sale at the store of O. P. STARK, Fayetteville, April 17, 1823—6m.

Runaway.

MY man Jerry, copied on the 21st of March; he has an excellent countenance, very ready in his answer, and with considerable assurance; he is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, yellow complexioned, has a burn on his left arm, a high forehead and a head inclined to be bald; he had when he left, a variety of clothing, a suit of white Plains, and some homespun clothes, the color not recollected. He may attempt to pass for a free man, where he is not known, as he is artful. I purchased him of a Mr. Steadman, in Chat ham county, and it is likely he may be lurking about in that neighborhood. Any person apprehending said fellow shall be entitled to a reward of thirty dollars, if delivered to me, and all reasonable expenses paid; otherwise, if delivered in any convenient jail, and immediate information given, twenty dollars. Any information will be directed to Cheraw. Jerry is a blacksmith by trade. Charles T. Lide. Marlboro' District, S. C. April 28, 1823. 5 10:tf

MANSION HOTEL, FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

THE Subscriber having leased this Establishment, lately in the occupancy of Capt. Taber, is now in readiness to accommodate Travellers and Boarders. He tenders his warmest thanks to the public and the citizens of Fayetteville, for the former patronage and friendly support which he has received, and in soliciting a continuance of these favors, assures them, that every exertion shall be made, and due attention bestowed in order to the comfort and pleasure of travellers and boarders: His Rooms are numerous, being new, clean and large, are well adapted for comfort and health, opening upon a garden which presents a fine prospect; superadded, are the comforts of ease and amusement, which may be enjoyed in spacious Parlours by travelling families. This situation, standing on one of the most elevated streets, is healthy; attended with the advantage and convenience arising from the important and extensive business transacted on that street, which will make it the interest of Country Merchants and Planters to call;—it is constantly supplied by means of aqueducts, with pure water, issuing from one of the best fountains in the state. His BAR will be constantly supplied with the best and choicest Liquors, his Table with the best the country market affords; his stables shall and be attended by faithful, steady and best Ostlers. Other advantages are attendant upon this Establishment, rarely to be excelled in any other Public House in this state. DILLON JORDAN.

Coach & Carriage Making BUSINESS.

THE subscriber having purchased of Mr. A. McLauchlin, the establishment lately occupied by him on Person street, offers his service to the inhabitants of Fayetteville, and the public generally, in the above line of business. All work sent to his shop, shall be done in the best manner, at the shortest notice, and on the most reasonable terms; and he hopes from his general knowledge of the above business, to merit a share of public patronage. J. A. GIBBLEN. Fayetteville, July 23, 1823.—8w

North-Carolina Register, AND UNITED STATES CALENDAR.

A Small Work, bearing the above title, for the year 1823, was compiled by the subscriber, and published last winter, at the printing office of Messrs. Jos. Gales & Son. In the preface it was announced that should sufficient encouragement be given, a similar publication might in future be annually expected. The design of this publication was, to furnish the citizens generally with a convenient book of reference, containing within a small compass, and at a moderate price, much local information which could not without considerable trouble, be obtained from any other source. From the favorable opinion very generally expressed respecting the uncommon utility of this work, the compiler was led to believe, that public patronage would have equalled his expectation. This expectation, however, so far from being realized, has been more than disappointed. More than six months have elapsed since the Register has issued from the press—and the sale has not yet defrayed the expenses of printing. Thus, instead of being remunerated for their labor, the Editor and the Printer are both out of pocket. A very moderate compensation would have satisfied both; but neither of them can think of continuing a publication which must subject them to a loss. Preparations have been made for the publication of a Register for 1824; and for presenting it to the public in a state of considerable improvement; embracing the correction of several errors which could not well have been avoided in the first Register, together with an accession of valuable information, which the first did not contain; but unless some assurance of a more extensive sale can be secured, the project of continuing a Register for N. Carolina must be entirely abandoned. If such assurance can be obtained in a reasonable time, the work, now preparing will, in due season, be committed to the press. In such an event, it will appear by the time fixed for the meeting of the Legislature of this State; and such copies as may be engaged will be sent to the several counties by the return of their respective representatives. Those who feel interested in encouraging the work here referred to, are requested to inform the subscriber by letter, free of postage, of the number of copies they are willing to take; and it is desirable that this should be done with as little delay as possible—as the work, if printed at all, ought to be in the press before the 1st of September. COLIN McIVER. Fayetteville July 24, 1823. 9*
