Catolima Oherifer

FAYEITEVILLE, N. C. THURSDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 22, 1827.

Auction Sales, December 4

FANCT GL.SSS.W.ARE,

David Shaw,

\section*{}    Tipers.  trish haikere,  porn wime,  wholesate, will thd ind to he assoniment on hand is consists of all the articles

Cheap Goods.

ALSOO,
choice Cogniac Brandy,
real Holland Go

Imperial and Hyson Tea,
Uork Crackers, Smoked Beef, se. &c.
NILLIAMS & FENN.
Aov. 1,
44-ff.
f all kinds,

|  |  |
| :---: | :---: |
| Leather. |  |
| Esuberiers wil |  |
| they will sell |  |
|  |  |
| Rening and lining do. |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

Trade, Sailor's Rights, and all your nonsense had nothing to do with it. The war was entirely owing to neighbor M's pig getting into neighbor T's garden. Hold stillbly, from the town of S-; now you know Burril and Howel were candidates for Uncle Sam's Senate, and every body was ating noses, Burril's friends thought all was safe, but when the votes were taken, T.,
though he was a good staunch Federalist,
antsate, but when the votes were taken,
though he was a good staunch Federalist,
and of course bound to vote for Burril, remembering the pig law suit, would not vote for him, so that Howel by voting for himself, got elected by one majority. Now, if it hadfor him, so that Howel by voting for himsel got elected by one majority. Now, if it had not been for the prg law suit, T. would have voted for Burril, and he wchosen Senator. Don't interrupt me, Ge tlemen-Now, you all remember that whe thethe Sena:e, Mr. Bayard moved to postponeland, and his motion you know was lost only one vote-one Jerry Howel voted a gainst it. Now if Burril had been there

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { gainst it. Now if Burril had been there he } \\ & \text { would have voted for the motion, and the } \\ & \text { declaration of war would have been defer }
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { red, Before six weeks expired, news arri- } \\
& \text { ved, that the Orders in Councit were repeal }
\end{aligned}
$$ ed, and thus the principal alleged cause

War removed. Of course if the delay had been obtained, war would have never been declared, and thus I have proved that neighbor M's pig getting into neighbor T's garden was the real cause of it." Marriage.-He that would gather the ses of matrimony should wed in the Miay life. if you wish sity thorns, why put it off ill september. "Pro

$\left|\begin{array}{l}\text { been hid under a half gallon measure. He } \\ \text { has often been seen roving the church-yard } \\ \text { to pick up bits of sticks, or busy lopping } \\ \text { his shrub or fruit trees, to make his fire }\end{array}\right| \begin{gathered}\text { ba } \\ \text { whee }\end{gathered}$ with wood and coal, which he could wot prevail on himself to use. In very cold weather he would frequently get by some of his neighbours' fire to warm his shivering limbs, and, when evening came, retire to bed for warmth, but generally limbs, and, when evening came, retire to bed for warmth, but generally without candle, as he allowed himself only the bit candle, as he allowed himself only the bit left of those provided for divine service i the church by the parish. He was neve known to keep a dop, cat, or any other living creature; and it is certain that the wh balf a crown a week for the last twenty years! and, as the fees exceeded that sump years. and, as the fees exceeded that sum, he afivays seved the whole of his salary, which never was more than £50 per annum which never was more than $£ 50$ per annum.
By constantly placing this sum in the Funds,
and the interest, with about $£ 30$ per annuim $\qquad$
$\qquad$
$\qquad$
Alams meetings in this State.- Notices have Adams meetings in this State.- Notıces have been published, calling public meetings in Carteret and Pasc̣, otank counties, for the arpose of concerting measures to form an Hectoral Ticket for Mr. Adams in this tate, and some of his friends appear to bo sate, and some of his friends appear to bo very sanguine in their anticipations of a favorable result But the signs of the times augur their defeat-the voice of the people predicts their disappointment. They may $\qquad$ compared with the Jackson Ticket, in point of numbers, we feel assured its support will numbers, we feel assured its support wilh we receive almost daily from every section of the State, from men of intelligence and undoubted veracity, is too ynfavorable to the cause of Mr. Adans, to deave roopm for momen *s doubt. The tide of public opin on is setting strongly against bim, and we are justified in the assertion, whatever may be the impression made on the public mind be the impression made on the public mind abroad by the nisrepresentations of tho press, and erroneous statements through other mediums, that no man here with sound sense and any thing like general informaon, considers him as gaining ground in North Carolina. On the contrary, it is our

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { when he first came to Blewberry, he for } \\ & \text { some time boarded with a person by the } \\ & \text { week, and during that time he was quite cor- } \\
& \text { pulent; but as soon as he boarded and lived }
\end{aligned}
$$ honest conviction that every candid man

will acknowledge that the cause of General $\qquad$petite, so that at last he became reduced al. $\begin{aligned} & \text { ger vote at the next, than she did at the }\end{aligned}$ most to a skeleton. He was atways an early riser, being seldom in bed after break of diay, and, like nearly all other early risers,

