ODH—I like your column very much and read it weekly. Tell me if I will be successful if I were to take up the course I plan. Ans: Yes—take up this course of study when you enter school this coming fall. It is very fortunate that you are to determine the career you wish to follow while so young. You will do well and make a good living in this line.

MB—Is there anyone else in the life of my husband and will he return soon. Ans: He doesn't care for anyone but yourself. He wasn't able to do for you as he desired and thought it best to get away from everything. Yes—he is going to return but not for several months. Get a job and go to work so that you two can pull together.

TU—Please answer my question in your column and tell me if I will ever get well. Ans: It will take quite some time before you are entirely over the condition you are suffering with but I do think that a bone specialist could help you a lot.

of the Clerk of the superior court of said County in the Courthouse in Durham, N. C., ten days after the 3 day of August, 1937, and answer or demur to the complaint in said action, or the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint. Jas. R. Stone, Ass't. C. S. C., Durham County This 23 day of June, 1937.

L. L. V.—Do you think that I have done the right thing by stopping with the short man and starting with the tall one? Ans: Both of the boys think a lot of you but will only be a matter of a few months before you give them both "the air" and begin to choose a new one. Don't continue on with anyone unless you really enjoy their company.

ECR—Does the person I have in mind really love me. Ans: Not the least bit—not do you love him. You are just in love with love and not any particular young man. Make up your mind to wait a few years before contemplating marriage with anyone or at least until you have finished school.

L. W.—I am sick and I want to know if there is a chance of my getting well? What should I do? Ans: See a doctor. Sure there is a chance of your getting over the condition entirely if you will just cooperate with your doctor.

R. C. W.—Is there a trip for me this year and should I go with the girl who has asked me to accompany her in her car? Ans: It will surely be a wonderful trip if you did TOUR THE WEST with the girl who asked you. You will just have to pay ANP—Please tell me if there is a danger for me by going with the woman I am going with? Ans: There is danger of your falling in love with her. Watch your step or you will be marching to the altar before the end of the year. I might add that she will make you a very charming wife and will be a loyal mate.

OH—I am anxious to know if I will see my oldest brother again. I sure you will. He is still place and he will wonder into wandering around from place to your city the next time he is next time he is in the east. If you desire a private reply send a quarter for my Astrology Reading and I will be glad to give you my free opinions on three questions privately.

Adjournment Of Lynch Bill May Be Blocked

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Even with the beginning of the debate on the President's supreme court proposal, the anti-lynching bill could not be kept in the background and this week, Senator Bennett Champ Clark, of Missouri, wrote the NAACP that he would vote against adjournment unless the anti-lynching bill is disposed of at this session.

With the mid-summer heat ahead and the pressure by the administration for the enactment of its legislation, coupled with the refusal of administration leaders to name a date for adjournment, the anti-lynching bill was thought by its enemies to be securely buried, but with the assurance of Senator Clark and other senators, it seems certain that no matter how long the session lasts the anti-lynching bill will be considered.

In addition to the letter from Senator Clark, the NAACP announced that it had a telegram from Senator Charles L. McNary, of Oregon, stating "I shall actively support Wagner-Van Nuys anti-lynching bill." Others who have again assured the NAACP of their support since July 1 are Senators Arthur Capper, of Kansas; Aukesting Lonergan, Conn.; Edwin C. Johnson, Colorado; Sherman Minton, Indiana; and Vic Donahey, of Ohio.
