Do You Know When Do We Eat? This gorilla from one of New York City's zoos finds life terribly boring. Study this picture closely and you will undoubtedly start yawning too.

Paging Mr. Minsky—An idea for the grown-ups. Baby shows how to keep cool in the heat-wave.

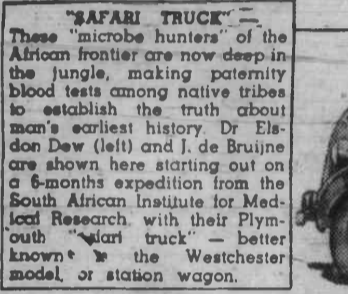

Charles W. Dressen, manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

"DING" and "DONG" Bell, the attractive Tennessee twins whose real names are Ruby Lee and Ruth Anna, know all about floral clocks. Here they are in the Rockefeller Center gardens checking their Gruen curves time with hulaip time, apparently with satisfactory results.

"LITTLE BRITS," That's what CORNELIA OTIS SKINNER calls her dramatic monologues, several of which she will present in a guest appearance on Harry von Zell's "Summer Stars" broadcast over the Columbia network, Sunday, August 1, at 7:30 p.m., New York Time. Here she is shown as herself, and in the role of Catherine of Aragon, first wife of Henry VIII.

"SAFARI TRUCK"—These "microbe hunters" of the African frontier are now deep in the jungle, making paternity blood tests among native tribes to establish the truth about man's earliest history. Dr. Eladon Dew (left) and J. de Bruijne are shown here starting out on a 6-months expedition from the South African Institute for Medical Research with their Plymouth "safari truck"—better known as the Westchester model or station wagon.

STARDOM AFTER 17 YEARS

CLINTON ROSEMOND, veteran actor, whose performance in stages and in films for 17 years, the sensational new Deep South anti-lynching film, "They Won't Forget," produced by Warner Brothers, has skyrocketed him to stardom. He has appeared on the Director Mervyn LeRoy said after "They Won't Forget" was finished that he had never seen "a greater Negro actor."

Dr. Mills Home From Medical Convention

Dr. J. N. Mills has returned the National Medical Convention which was held in St. Louis, Mo., last week.

While in St. Louis, Dr. Mills visited the Municipal Hospital, which houses 685 persons and is for Colored Charity patients only. He also visited the Homer G. Phillips Hospital which is controlled and managed by Negroes. The staff consists of Negro nurses and doctors. The building has seven floors and is well equipped from bottom to top. Out of the sixty-five physicians in St. Louis fifty-two serve on the staff of the institution.

The institution was stimulated by the voting element of St. Louis the cost being $3,160,000. The outcome of the hospital is largely due to the franchise of the Negro vote. St. Louis also has two privately operated hospitals for Negroes, namely, Peoples Hospital and the Catholic Hospital.

Dr. Mills stated that clinics were held every day and that every phase of medicine and surgery was discussed. Especially interesting was the steptococcal views on "How To Control Syphilis."

Miss Royster Goes North
Miss Lucy Royster of Umsted Street left the city on Friday for a tour of the Northern States. Miss Royster will visit in Atlantic City and Orange, New Jersey; New York, Boston, Mass. and the state of Maine.
