Q—I am going with a bus that my mother does not like very well. Should I go with some one else or go with him still? Does he really love me as he says he does?

A—Your mother has your happiness at heart and she knows that this fellow you now go with is not the type to put much confidence in. I advise you to have more respect for your mother's wishes as in this case is exactly right. The boy likes you—but he is not the type of boy you should choose for a husband.

AL—I had twenty dollars in my pocketbook. Who got it and where did it go to?

A—A woman is mixed up in the disappearance of your $20. This party knew you had the money and she felt that it was as much hers as it was yours and since you did not offer to give any she just took it. You know who I mean.

VM—Will I ever be successful in getting a job?

A—Yes—but you will have to go to town to find one. Jobs don't come knocking at the door of folks that live in the country. You will be lucky enough to find a job around Easter time and next year at this time you will be thinking seriously of getting married.

MT—My husband has lived with other women before he met me and treated them as Queens so I learned. He is now out of work and I believe he no longer cares for me. He likes to stay out at night and get drunk. What must I do?

A—Let him know that if he does not change his ways that you will walk out on him. As long as he can continue to loaf and pull your leg at the same time—he ain't never going back to work.

BS—Do you think I be successful in doing what I want to do? Ans: I don't think so—I know so. You will be able to carry out your plans and move into just the place you have planned on living in. This change will do you good for you are getting nowhere as things stand right now.

JLA—Does the girl that I am going with now love me and how long will we go together? Enclosed you will find a clipping from last weeks paper.

A—You know as well as I do James that your gal is nuts about you. When you whisper those cute things in her ear—she just loves it. Just as long as you continue to "sweet talk" her she and you will go together. More than one gal in your town is fond of you as you well know.

RH—Is my husband true to me?

A—Not as true as the bible tells a husband to be. Where do you think his money is going to lately. Sister—your old man is "stepping out."

GMW—I am a reader of your

What to Read - The Negro and His Songs

"TUESDAY NEVER COMES"

By Lida Larrimore
Caroline Perry has been in love with Jay Summerfield every since she could remember, but even in those days Jay has been in love with Caroline's sister Julia. But as often happens, the course of true love does not always run smoothly and before she realized what was happening, Julia found herself involved in a situation so complicated that she brought herself and family to the brink of disaster.

"IMPERIAL CITY"

By Elmer Rice
In this novel Mr. Rice presents an astonishing, kaleidoscopic picture of the lives of men and women of all races, creeds, of the highest social circles and of the lowest, whose destinies are directly or indirectly linked. And in particular he presents the great investment house of Coleman.

"UNOFFICIAL WIFE"

By Ruby M. Ayres
Can a man take an "unofficial wife" as a pure business arrangement without ensuing emotional and social complications? In this story Miss Ayres propounds the question. She has written an absorbing story full of understanding of young people's hearts.

"THE RAINS CAME"

By Louis Bromfield
This is a story of a group of people in India. Their nerves in a state of unendurable tension, waiting in the heat for the rains to come; then the rains come and with them come disaster, earthquakes and floods. Be sure to read how this catastrophe changed their lives.

"THIS IS MY STORY"

By Eleanor Roosevelt
Most fearless, direct, and amusing of all modern autobiographers the "Firt Lady" of the land sets down the story of her life from childhood to marriage and motherhood. It is a book of rich wisdom, the record of the maturing of a woman with one of the keenest social consciences of our time.

These books will be found at the Durham Colored Library. The librarians of the Durham Colored Library wish to remind you that there are many varieties of books, magazines, and newspapers at the library for entertainment purposes besides the variety of reference books, books of various languages, sciences, etc.

Has the negro singer succeeded more in his work than other peoples? The question is answered theoretically in the negative, and actually in the affirmative because the Negro has written his songs to fit his emotions better than the other races. The Negro singer can say and does say a vast amount and variety of things with art, humor, pathos and spontaneity.

4 OF RACE SHINE AS BENNY GOODMAN INVADES CARNegie HALL IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK (C)—"Swing" music hit a new high Sunday night as 3,500 people crowded into Carnegie Hall, 113 W. 57th street, to hear Benny Goodman and his orchestra in a real "jam session." Four colored men starred, being Teddy Wilson, pianist, Lionel Hampton, vibraphone, Jas. Mundy arranger, and Count Basie, guest artist. Daily newspaper critics were outraged that jazz should have the nerve to invade the nation's foremost temple of classical music, and succeed!

FIVE IMPORTANT BIRTHDAYS IN JANUARY

HARLEM "NUMBER QUEEN" SHOTS "BLACK HITLER"—HER HUSBAND!

NEW YORK (C)—The crowded 125th street shopping center was thrown into an uproar in mid-afternoon Tuesday as three shots rang out on the stairway of 209 W. 125th street, swanky office building, and Abdul Sufi Hamid, better known as the "Harlem Black Hitler," fell slightly wounded, and a smoking revolver was wrenched from the hands of Mrs. Stephanie St. Clair, formerly known as the Harlem "Numbers Queen." Sufi and Mrs. St. Clair were married in 1936, but the union hit the rocks two months ago. The wife charged, as she was boked for felonious assault, that Sufi bit her.

CATHOLICS PASS NEW RESOLUTION ON ANTI-LYNCHING FIGHT

NEW YORK (C)—The Catholic Interracial Council passed new resolutions on Monday supporting the Anti-Lynching bill in the Senate and sent copies to President Roosevelt, Vice President Garner, and Senate Majority Leader Barkley. The resolutions pointed out that the filibuster against the legislation is not representative of Southern public opinion, as expressed in
