FOOD MARKET. Advice-

GOOD fishing weather characterized of the week before Lent so that plentiful supplies of FISH and SEA FOOD are available and prices are reasonable. EGGS are again arriving freely and they are very inexpensive. CHEESE supplies and prices fluctuate little. BUTTER remains reasonable. Meat Prices Higher Although BEEF wholesale prices are somewhat higher little change is to be noted in retail. LAMB and PORK, however, are costing the consumer more and VEAL continues high. FOWLS, often called stewing chickens or hens, are enough cheaper to be considered a good value. DUCKS continue to be low in price. Oranges Excellent Value Huge crops of both FLORIDA VALLENCIA and CALIFORNIA NAVEL ORANGES make this popular fruit available at unusually low prices for the season. APPLES and GRAPEFRUIT too are plentiful and cheap. If you want variety in your fresh fruits, PEARS, HOTHOUSE RHUBARB, STRAWBERRIES and PINEAPPLE are reasonable in price. When buying oranges plan to seek with them as well as use them for a breakfast fruit. Grated orange rind favors custards and other milk desserts, cake and quick breads. Orange juice and rind sharpened with lemon juice and rind and thickened with cornstarch or egg make a delicious pudding sauce or fruit salad dressing. Serve Lettuce and Tomato Salad ICEBERG LETTUCE is plentiful and cheap and quantities of TOMATOES are being shipped from Florida and Cuba. Other vegetables which are more plentiful than usual are GREEN PEPPERS, EGGPLANTS and LIMA BEANS. SPINACH is the cheapest of the winter green vegetables. NEW CABBAGE is somewhat lower. The ASPARAGUS season has begun but it will not be generally available for a few weeks more. Here is a menu made up of seasonal and reasonably priced foods. Orange and Grapefruit Cup Chicken-Fricassee with Dumplings Browned Yams Green Lima Beans Currant Jelly Hearts of Lettuce Chocolate Souffle Hard Sauce Coffee *This menu tested and tasted in the A&P Kitchen.

Marie Downing BEAUTY AND ROMANCE

SPONSORED BY LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION

The Larieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godefrey Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

The writer of the following column, Miss Naomi Walker of Wise, North Carolina, who is the third prize winner in my contest for letters on original beauty hints, strikes an interesting note. She puts beauty culture on the basis of artistic sculpture. You will be interested in what she says.

In this great world of ours men and women are demanding answers to certain questions. To be beautiful is the challenge that every woman in America must face. Great wood and clay and molding it into something that is beautiful. We, too, can do the same for ourselves with little expense. A pauper can easily possess that "priceless pearl" called beauty as well as a millionaire.

Every lady who desires to be beautiful should try controlling her voice. Try talking before a mirror or board and notice the sound of the voice. If it is harsh, change the tone because no lady is beautiful who is hoarse-voiced. Cultured, refined manners always add to the charm and beauty of a lady.

We always consider the face, neck, nails, and hands first. Too many ladies sit before a mirror and spend hours daily preparing these things—unsuccessfully. The best way to acquire that lasting beauty is by selecting the creams, powders, lotions and polishes that blend with your complexion. It is useless to recommend any particular preparation because the one I recommend might not suit every case. Therefore you must first study the texture of the skin and then purchase your cream.

We must beware of senile legs and rusty knees that are so common among us in winter. They drive the sheer silk stockings of their beauty. Why not try washing and greasing them gently, each night, to avoid embarrassment? When the face, hands and other things have been properly cared for, develop that pleasing personality that leaves a lasting imprint upon acquaintances.

So many women to whom nature has given beauty are unattractive because they dress unbecomingly. They wear red when blue will bring out the color better. They forget to add that scarf or pin that will brighten the eyes and cause the cheeks to look rosy. There is a little secret in the type of print which an individual wears. If an extra large person wears a dress with unusually large print it detracts from the beauty of the person and causes attention to be directed to the size. Shoes and stockings can either add or detract. Avoid cramping the feet because a cramped foot causes discomfort and one never looks one's best while in misery.

Finally, it can be concluded that the little things that many women neglect would add so much to their charm and beauty. When the great secret of beauty shall be revealed at last, the little things that are so easily forgotten will continue to add the finishing touch in charm.

In my next column Miss Beatrice Wooley of Chicago, the winner of the fourth prize, will be my guest.
