SAINT MATTHEW C. M. E. CHURCH

Miss Gladys Walker, president of the Mattie E. Colman Club, is sponsoring a Young Ladies Popularity Contest at the church. It will close Friday night at which time the winner will be announced. An interesting program has been arranged also.

Rev. Mrs. Cathryn R. Player, of national evangelistic fame, will conduct a ten or fifteen day revival service at the St. Matthew C. M. E. Church beginning the fifth Sunday, July 31, 1938. The public is cordially invited to attend all services at the church.

OAK GROVE FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. F. Cox, pastor will complete the rally being conducted by him at the Smith's Temple Free Will Baptist church, Raleigh, N. C., on the third Sunday July 17th. Due to the inclemency of the weather he was unable to complete on last Sunday as was planned. Choirs from Fuquay Springs, Whites Creek, and Durham will render music.

MOUNT CALVARY CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. N. E. Higgs, pastor of the Mount Calvary Christian Church was called to Mount Olive Church in Franklin County last week to conduct a revival.

BALTIMORE QUARTET AT MOUNT GILEAD

The male chorus of Mt. Gilead Baptist church presented the Twilight Four quartet in a program of soul-stirring songs and spirituals on Friday night, July 8. The quartet which has been in Durham about three weeks comes from Baltimore, Maryland. The capacity audience gave the singers a very warm reception and there was genuine enthusiasm for certain numbers because the type of music that was rendered on this program is not heard often. The quartet was enjoyed for the songs alone but likewise for the depth of expression which the singers exhibited. These men seemed to pour their very souls into their songs and the close rapport existed between performers and audience contributed greatly to the success of the program.

Bishop B. Johnson sang by the congregation "Get Right With God, prayer and solo Miss Mary Ruth Kirk. This radio program will be heard Sunday afternoon at this same time.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH

The Ten Day Bible Institute being carried on at the Second Baptist church will come to close Wednesday night. The 30 day Financial drive that has been conducted will be called off Sunday July 17, at which time the pastor Rev. C. E. Mc Lester will render a very interesting sermon to the congregation.

MOUNT OLIVE A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

A Program of Songs will be sponsored by the Twilight Four, quartette from Baltimore, Md. Friday night. The pastor Rev. E. B. Lipsey cordially invites the public.

EBENEZER BAPTIST CHURCH

Musical Program Given Miss Henrietta Withrow was very successful in presenting a musical program at the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Friday night, July 8. Those appearing on program were Miss Henrietta McIntosh, piano solo, Bright Star Quartet (Bernice Mann, Thelma Mann, Geraldine Mann, and Pauline Harris. Trio by the sister (Misses Lillian, Daisy and Eva Merritt) Solo, John Barbee, Solo, Miss Pauline Barbee, Solo, Johnnie Patterson accompanied by Mrs. Bettie Barrett Pianist. Remarks by the pastor, Rev. T. A. Grady.

MOUNT CALVARY HOLY CHURCH

Bishop Bronfield Johnson presented his regular radio program Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A very large audience was present to witness the affair, including many white people. The program was as follows: Theme song Joy of my Salvation, Scripture Lesson Miss Gladys Conn, Prayer by Mr. Walker, Testimonies Letters of appreciation by Miss Gladys Conn, selection of the Men's Glee Club directed by Wilson Barbee Song, Give Me that old Time Religion led by Miss Gladys Conn, Solo Johnnie Patterson accompanied by Mrs. Bettie Barrett, Solo Miss Gladys Conn, sermon: "A Clean Heart" by

Hill citizens to sign that much discussed petition unhesitatingly, even though they well knew that their so doing would bring down upon their heads wrath and misjudgment from many such as H. G. Hayes and perhaps also from some political figs. but Chapel Hill has braved criticism before and can do so again. It will stand to its guns, sure in the knowledge that it acted within its rights and in the cause of right which, in the end will inevitably prevail. In all sincerity, MARGARET VALE
