At this meeting there were a few of the white citizens of Chapel Hill who are showing such sincere interest in the McNeil case, most of the visitors are members of the Southern Committee on Peoples Rights. Attorney C. O. Pearson presented Mrs. Howe who has written letters to the Herald-Sun papers and to the CAROLINA TIMES stating her interest and position in the case. Her letters are written under the name, Margaret Vale. Mrs. Howe told the audience that this case has stirred the feelings of the better white people of Durham and of North Carolina. During the Easter season the committee inaugurated a public egg hunt for the children of ham. The Airport issue was decisively defeated because of the work of the committee on Negro Affairs. They saw no logic in having a municipal airport before there are adequate school facilities and streets in the city for Negroes.
