CLASSES AT N. C. C. VISIT BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Wednesday morning, August 3, students in vocational guidance at the North Carolina College, under the direction of Professor A. Hummberg, visited two of Durham's better known business establishments, The Royal Tailoring Co. and Loftin's Bakery.

P. H. McNeil, manager of the Royal Tailoring Company re-interested talk on the various phases of the dry cleaning business. At the bakery Mr. Loftin interested the group with his description of the processes through which a grain of wheat is carried before it reaches the consumer's table as bread or rolls.

This group, which has already visited the Durham Dairy Products Company, has accepted the invitation to inspect the local Coca-Cola bottling plant Friday, August 12.

Members of the class, numbering 47 come from 25 different communities in North Carolina while one student is registered from Little Rock, Ark.

Hampton Scene Of 44th Annual Gathering

(Special to the Carolina Times) HAMPTON, Va. Aug. 10.—Virginia will welcome the 44th annual convention of the National Medical Association and its affiliated groups at a public welcome program in Ogden Hall, Hampton Institute, August 16 at 8 p. m. A representative group of Virginia's most distinguished citizens will extend the greetings.

The Hon. J. V. Bickford, mayor of Hampton, will welcome the association on behalf of the city. The welcome address from Hampton Institute will be delivered by Dr. Arthur Howe.

P. E. Young, editor, Norfolk Journal and Guide will deliver the welcome address from the citizens of Virginia. Greetings from the Women's Auxiliary of the Old Dominion Medical Society, will be extended by its president, Mrs. D. W. Byrd Norfolk, Virginia. Mrs. J. T. Given, president of the Woman's Auxiliary to the N. M. A. will respond.

Greetings From Nurses
Nurse Daisy Schley, R. N., will bring greetings from the Old Dominion Nurses. Miss Estelle Massey, president of the National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses, will speak on "The Nurse and Her Community."

Music will be furnished by the Hampton Institute Glee Club under the direction of Ernest Hays. Wesley I. Howard, Fellow Trinity College, London of the Hampton Institute faculty, will render, R. Nathaniel 'Delta' Roman' on the violin. Mrs. N. M. Watson of Memphis Tennessee, a member of the auxiliary to the N. M. A. will render a vocal selection. Mr. Hays will play the organ prelude.

The house of delegates of the National Medical Ass'n will convene on Wednesday, August 17, to take up a discussion of socialized medicine. Socialized medicine is the dominant question before all organized medical groups in the United States.

Two meetings are scheduled for this new department of the N. M. A. with Dr. G. Hamilton Francis, Norfolk, Virginia as chairman. The second meeting will be held on Friday. This group which forms the electoral board for the association, is composed of representatives of the various state medical societies.

President Of Group
The president of the National Medical Association, Dr. Lyndon M. Hill of Atlanta, Ga., was elected in Philadelphia in 1936 and came into office at St. Louis, August 1937.
