EIGHT GAME SCHEDULE FACES EAGLES

N. C. College To Battle Lincoln Here Next Sat.

Coach William F. Burghardt of the North Carolina College has been hard at work for the past three weeks putting his squad in shape for the eight stiff games which are slated for this season and especially for the opener against Lincoln University in Durham on Oct. 1.

So far, about twenty-five men most of whom are new, have reported for drills. Among the old regulars who are back are Austin, Malloy, and Stroud, who will take care of the backfield, and Lightner, center. Others will put in their appearance during the week end.

The Eagles' schedule is as follows:

Oct. 1—Lincoln University at Durham

Oct. 8—Bluefield Teachers College at Bluefield

Oct. 15—St. Paul at Lawrenceville, Va.

Oct. 22—St. Augustine at Durham

Oct. 29—Shaw University at Durham

Nov. 5—Livingston College at Salisbury

Nov. 12—J. C. Smith University at Durham

Nov. 25—Thanksgiving day classic. A. and T. College in Greensboro.

Coming Season Question Mark For N. C. Coaches

(By "Smiling" Bill Tuck)

In a recent interview with William F. Burghardt, director of athletics and head coach at the North Carolina College, it was learned that his 1938 football squad has caused him to be in the same frame of mind as Jock Southernland, the wily Pitt Mentor. Like the Pitt Mentor, Coach Burghardt views his 1938 squad with alarm and will only say that the coming season is a big question mark.

Coach Burghardt and his assistants are faced with the task of replacing such men as Holden, guard and captain of the '37 eleven; Joe Slade, outstanding end; Dave Thomas, guard; McCullough, a tackle who was the bulwark of the left side of the Eagle line; Joe Hill, a hard driving back, and Nivins, center. In addition to these regulars lost because of graduation or because of having played four years. Two other veterans, Pope and Brewington will not be in school this year.

Captain Eddy Stroud is being groomed to fill the fullback berth held by "Big Train" Hutchins who as yet has not reported. However, he is being pushed closely for the position by two new men: Dick Mack of Kansas, and Walt Warmick of Peoria, Ill.

Several of the freshmen candidates are striving with everything they have to step into the half back position left vacant by Joe Hill and are pushing Austin, a veteran and one of the outstanding backs in the conference, hard for his position. Among these backfield candidate promise are George Mack, a Kansan and running mate of his brother Dick; Williams of Raleigh; Duchwilder of Roanoke, Va.; C. Lightner, of Raleigh, and "Shade" Green, pride of Hillside High of Durham, George Cooke and John Mallory, both old men, are again barking the signals.

On the line there are only four veterans. They are Lawrence Lightner, center; Peter Willie End; Edmund Johnson, Guard, and Steve Thomas, tackle.

Some of the new men who look best are: ends, Freeman of Lynchburg, Va.; Harrison, of Chicago, Ill.; Moore of Charlotte; Bryant of Emporia, Kansas, and Ennis of Smithfield. At tackle, it is reported that Stokes, Sophomore who is trying football for the first time, looks very promising, while Hall of Raleigh, Allen of Peoria, Ill., Taylor of Canton, Ill., are also developing rapidly. Guard candidates include Young of Raleigh, Washington, of Roanoke and Boney, who like Stokes is taking his first shot at Football. Colman a veteran of the '36 team is back again fighting for his old position.

Mitchell and Duke, freshmen are pushing Lightner for his position at center.

According to Coach Burghardt, the tackle situation is the most alarming and it is admitted by all who know the game that the strength of any team depends largely upon the strength of the tackles.

So in view of the above we can readily see that with Lincoln University and Bluefield to contend with on the first two consecutive Saturdays in October, the coaching staff of North Carolina College are justified in being somewhat worried. However, both Coach Burghardt and his assistant, John McLendon are emphatic in saying that N. C. State will be represented by a fighting flock of Eagles this year.

HERE COMES PLENTY TROUBLE FOR CHICAGO BEARS

READING from left to right, Madison "Tony" Doram, backfield ace whose ability to pass with either hand and kick with either foot will make him a marked man for the CHICAGO BEARS, Hirman "Blind Tom" Workman, stellar tackle whose diagnostic sixth sense made the outstanding tackle in the annals of Southern football, and Andrew "Cherry" Miles, sterling quarterback with hip twisting ten second broken field runs to annoy the BEARS, as they prep for the game of the century when the Collegiate All Stars meet the national football CHICAGO BEARS Friday night. DEAN LAUDS PAIGE AS GREAT HURLER

CHICAGO, Sept. 22, (ANP)—Cast another vote for Satchel Paige as the greatest pitcher in organized baseball. This time the ballot comes from none other than the great Dizzy himself, incapacitated ace of the Chicago Cubs pitching staff, who writes a daily column for one of the local afternoon papers. At the same time, Dizzy lamented the absence of star colored players from the big leagues.

Said Dean in Thursday's column:

"A bunch of the fellows gets in a barber session the other day and they start to argue about whose the best pitcher they ever see, and some says lefty Grove and Lefty Gomez and Walter Johnson and old Pete Alexander and Dizzy Vance.

And they mention Lonnie Warneke and Van Mungo and Carl Hubbell, and Johnny Corriden tells us about Matty, and he sure must of been great, and some of the boys even say old Diz is the best they ever see.

But I see all them fellows but Matty and Johnson, and I know whose the best pitcher I ever see and its old Satchel Paige, that big lanky colored boy. Say, old Diz, is pretty fast back in 1933 and 1934, and you know my fast ball looks like a change of pace along side that little pistol bullet old Satchel shoots up to the plate. And I really know something it, because for four, five years, tour around at the end of the season with All Star teams, and I see plenty of old Satch.

He sure is a pistol. Its too bad those colored boys don't play in the big leagues, because with the greatest stuff ever I they sure got some great play-

NAME ALL STAR LINEUP FOR GAME WITH CHICAGO BEARS FRI. NIGHT

Monday afternoon since some of the players had not yet reported. Stars who polled large votes but will not be seen in action include Fritz Pollard Jr. and Ed Williams. Both are ineligible as they have not finished their collegiate careers. Pollard, along with Horace Johnson, is preparing for his final season at North Dakota university and Ed Williams is a senior and main cog of New York U's backfield.

Coaches Kemp, Slater, and Williams will have around ten days to try their hand at forming a team capable of defeating or holding on even terms the Chicago Bears, champions last year of the Western division of the National Professional league and undefeated this year in three games. The Bears opened their season Sept. 1 in Providence, R. I. by defeating a team of college all-stars 26 to 14, then traveled to Birmingham where they ran over a Southern all-star team 32 to 18. They opened their regular professional season Sunday night by nosing out the strong Cardinals, 16 to 13.

Although they will not have enough time to develop much coordination, the all-star lineup can present a wealth of individual talent. Kelker was the star of the recent game in Cleveland which the Ohio All-Stars lost to the Cleveland Rams, another National league team. Reed at the other end, although not a flashy player, was recognized as one of Minnesota's greatest wingmen. DuValle, when playing at Loyola, was one of the most feared and respected tackles on the Pacific Coast.

The other linemen are from colored colleges. Workman, the Xavier tackle, was described by Coach Abbott of Tuskegee as the greatest tackle I've ever seen play in the South; Sowell and Drake were key men in the line of Morgan's undefeated team, and Portray comes highly recommended from Memphis.

Smoky Joe Lillard, only Negro back ever to play in the National league is a triple threat. When he was key man of the Cardinals' offense a few years ago, he did 90 percent of their passing, called signals, punted, place kicked, and was one of the league's best broken field runners in addition to crashing the line. He was headed for All-American honors while at Oregon university until he was barred because he previously had played professional baseball. Simmons has been described

Lewis Wins Over Adamick In Phila. Bout

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23rd, (ANP)—Although he was badly jarred in the last two rounds, Light Heavyweight Champion had piled up such a commanding lead in the first eight rounds that he won a decision over Jimmy Adamick of Midland, Michigan, before 12,000 spectators in a non title bout at Convention hall Thursday night.

Lewis, 184, clearly outboxed the white fighter who recently drew a year's suspension in Ill. and states associated with the National Boxing association because of a "queer" bout with lanky Jack Trammell. The light champ scored frequently with both hands to the face and body of 188 pound Adamick.

But in the ninth, Adamick landed a terrific right to John Henry's chin that brought the crowd to its feet yelling for a knockout. Lewis' knees buckled and he staggered to the ropes. Adamick missed with a left hook and they were in a clinch at the bell. The white boy also hurt Lewis with a solid left hook to the body in the 10th. The two judges, however, gave the fight to John Henry with Referee Matt Adgie voting it a draw.
