

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

Rocky Mount Social Notes

BY L. H. PENNY

Rev. and Mrs. Clanton of Raleigh were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin Sunday. Little Miss Yvonne Moor accompanied them.

Mr. Rich and Mrs. Hawkins had as their guest Sunday Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Somerville.

Miss Ida Belle Hines left Thursday for Asbury Park, N. J.

Mrs. Lois Hagans was called home on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Jones.

MRS. MARY JONES

Mrs. Mary Jones died at her residence Friday morning. Funeral services were conducted from the home Sunday 3:30 P. M. with Rev. Williams, pastor officiating. Mrs. Jones is survived by a husband one daughter two sisters and two brothers and a host of relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. L. Mason continues ill at her home on E. Thomas St.

Mr. Hagans, family, Mrs. Martha Sumpter, Mrs. Mary Battle, Mrs. Alice Parnoles, Mrs. Essie Pitt, Levi Battle, Miss

Louis Battle, Miss Louise Whitehead Mr. and Mrs. Various bunch Jr. and others attended the funeral of Julius Wiggins in Spring Hope Sunday afternoon.

Miss Gladys Burke continues ill at her home 829 Myrtle Ave.

Mrs. Geneva Schey spent the week end in Tarboro, N. C. visiting her sister, Mrs. Lena Hill who is very ill. The dedicational exercises were held at the O. B. Pope Sunday 3 p. m. The speaker was Prof. Seabrook of Fayetteville Teachers College, W. A. Byers is principal of the school.

W. H. Gay has returned to the city after having spent some time in Richmond, Va.

Rev. W. L. Mason recently opened a candy store on East Thomas St. For good fresh candy by from the Mason candy store.

Beginning Sunday M. at 11 o'clock Rev. Mason will begin a series of sermons at St. James Baptist church on "The ascension of Christ" all are urged to attend.

James Pittman is ill at his home on Gay St.

CHARMS AUDIENCE

MISS LUE SWARZ

Famous "One Woman Show" artist, who charmed an audience of the National Bapt. Convention in St. Louis recently with her dynamic portrayal of the character of Sojourner Truth, in the interlude of the "Present of Progress" which was one of the features of the convention program. Miss Swarz is a national officer of Zeta Phi Beta sorority and Dean of Women of Douglass University, St. Louis. She plans a "One Woman Show" tour this fall and winter.

CHURCH NOTES

REV. MOORE PREACHES AT STATE CONFERENCE

Rev. T. J. Moore, pastor of the United Confessional Christian Church and H. K. Batton, represented the church at the historic North Carolina Christian Conference which held its session at the Mt. Zion Christian church near Rockingham, N. C. last week. While there Rev. Moore delivered the annual sermon. Rev. J. Q. Johnson, pastor of the host church, and his members as well as the friends in the community are to be commended for their hospitality.

ST. MARK STAGES STREET ASSESSMENT RALLY

Rev. S. E. Perry, pastor of the St. Mark Zion church has announced that beginning Tuesday, Oct. 18th and continuing through October 30, this church will sponsor what is known as a Mortgage Street Assessment Rally.

During this period there will be services each night as well as special programs on Sunday afternoons. There will be devotions beginning at 7:30 p. m. and the services each night will be in charge of the following visiting ministers:

Revs. T. A. Grady, T. J. Moore, R. O. Langford, E. R. Lipsey, J.

A. Valentine, Wm. Fuller, E. V. O'Byrant and T. C. Graham

MOXABELA CLASS MEETS

The Moxabela Class of the Saint Joseph A.M.E. Church met at the home of Mrs. Basile Wagstaff on Whitted Street Tuesday evening at 8:00 p. m.

The pastor's aid society of the St. Joseph A.M.E. Church, of which Mrs. Annie Alston is president, met with Mrs. Ross Royster of Grant street on Thursday

SALVATION ARMY AT SAINT JOSEPH

Wednesday night, October 19, the Salvation Army furnished an interesting and inspirational program at St. Joseph Church.

MOUNT GILEAD REVIVAL A SUCCESS

Rev. E. Wimberly, pastor of the Mount Gilead Baptist church has announced that the revival services held at his church during the week of October 10-16 were successful in every way. Under the stirring sermons of Rev. Rufus Underwood of Lenoir, there were numerous additions to the church and on Sunday night, October 16 about 25 persons were baptized.

PERSONAL

Miss Ophelia Daniels spent Sunday afternoon visiting Mrs. Ella Haakins of 1109 Fairview Street. Miss Daniels is a resident of Oxford.

Mrs. Vinnie E. Stroud, of 1201 Kent Street, spent the week end in Pittsboro, N. C. While there she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ella Christ.

John Lacy, Robery Minister and Eddie Bolden were hosts of the Three C's Club in the lobby of the Biltmore hotel. During the brief business discussion the present were presented a booklet to select either a club ring or pin. After the business discussion, the hosts served a delicious repast, followed by a card game with Marvin Dick and Carl Cosari, having the highest scores. James Reams and Albert Jones were honor guests at the meeting.

Mrs. Mollie Anderson, former resident of Durham, who now resides outside the city has been visiting her son, relatives and friends in the city.

Mrs. Lovie Jenkins is reported as in good condition at her home on Smith St.

The Happy Go Lucky Club held its second weekly meeting at the home of John Earbee on Wednesday night. The meeting was centered around future plans for the success of the organization.

Miss Irene Cineade of Littleton N. C. spent the week end with relatives and friends in the city.

Miss Margaret Shannon is visiting her sister and brother-in-law in Washington.

The Safety Patrol of the Hill side High School enjoyed a quiet entertainme social affair on Friday night October 8, in the school auditorium.

The series of sermons, on the "Seven Seals," as preached by

The annual anniversary banquet in charge of Mrs. Effie Cotton will end the observance on Monday, October 31.

the Rev. E. O. Langford of Mount CME Church, have been changed from the morning to the evening services in order to increase the crowd.

Rev. Langford was at his best when he opened the 15th seal on last Sunday evening his subject being "The Underperformed Martyr." Your presence is accepted to hear the sixth seal which he will open Sunday evening.

PEARSON PTA MEETS

The Parent Teachers Ass'n held its first public meeting Sunday, October 16 at 3:30. Prof. Alphonse Henningburg of the N. C. College was the speaker.

Music was furnished by the second grade rhythm band and the sixth grade chorus.

AWAY FROM YOU

(Dedicated to E. B. H. enroute to Edenton, N. C.)

Alone
In the midst
Of a twist
Of humanity.
You're not here
And I'm near
Tears of futility.
I'm going on
Without alarm,
Is sheer vanity.
Yet I don't heed
A heart that bleeds
Through stupidity,
I plunge on Alone.

Written by Lewyze Perry

NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE STUDENTS HEAR REV. GEORGE L. FISHER AT SUNDAY SERVICE

Rev. George Fisher, director of Saint Ambrose Episcopal Church of Raleigh, was introduced to the student body as a fearless fighter for Negro people. The theme of Rev. Fisher's sermon was, "The way out for the Negro." He developed his theme by pointing out to the congregation that the way out was not by might or power, but the spirit. It was further stated the Negro can only work his way out through christianity, economics, moral re armament, and repentance.

Grade Mothers Hold Meeting

The grade mothers held its first meeting of the year on Tuesday evening October 18, at the home of Mrs. Florence Jones 312 Powe Street. Officers elected were as follows:

Mrs. Ella Mumford, President
Mrs. Mary Horton, Vice Pres.
Miss Louisa Thompson, Sec'y
Mrs. Artia, Treasurer
Mrs. Timmons, Central Grade Mother.

A fine spirit of cooperation was exhibited by the twenty mother present.

Feeding undernourished children was selected as their project for the school year. Each mother present pledged to give various type of foods and utensils for the cafeteria. Mrs. Roland,

Chairman of the Advisory Board, Negro Division of Family Service Agency and Mrs. Dickerson, Supervisor, Negro Division of Family Service Agency gave interesting remarks. Mrs. Dickerson told of the work done by the Mothers' Study Groups in other sections of the city and related types of cases being helped by the Family Service Agency. She will organize a study group next Tuesday evening, 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Henry Faucett, 714 William Street. The next meeting of the grade mothers will be held Tuesday November 15 at the home of Mrs. Fannie Reid, 1024 Kent Street.

White Rock To Observe 72nd Anniversary

The Seventy Second Anniversary of the White Rock Baptist church will be observed from Sunday, October 23rd through Monday, October 31. This anniversary occasion will emphasize the life of the spirit through consecration and devotion. A definite effort will be made to have the entire membership rededicate their life to Christian service and to win the unchurched to have them decide to follow Christ.

Dr. W. L. Ransome, former pastor and now minister of the First Baptist Church, South Richmond, Virginia, will be the speaker. Special music for the occasion will be given by the senior choir under the direction of Mrs. S. Norfleet, the gospel chorus, Mrs. Ellen Lann, and the Junior Choir, Mr. Johnson. The public is invited to worship with the church during these anniversary services.

The two Sunday nights of the anniversary will be given to the work of the Community Center. On the fifth Sunday the pupils of the Pearson School will give the anniversary pageant. This is being directed by Mrs. Geneva Cheek assisted by Misses Cannady and Malloy, all teachers in the school.

On next Sunday night, Oct. 23, Walter D. Smith, dramatic reader of New York City, will be presented by W. J. Kennedy, Junior business manager in recital by the Center, Miss Hattie Mae Bridgeforth will sing a group of songs.

NEW YORK LASSIES GO TO OLD NORTH STATE

THESE NEW YORK LADIES

are members of the Bennett College (Greensboro, N. C.) student body. Reading from left to right they are, top row, Hattie Taylor, White Plains; Beatrice Fonville, White Plains; Dorothy Steals, New York City; second row, Jennie Williams, New York City; Anne Molley, Brooklyn; Du Donna Tate, White Plains; Dorothy Brown, Troy; and down in front, Ruth DeMond, Port Jervis; and Mildred Florence, Carmel.

ANYBODY Can Afford To Build!

Because conditions, concerning the planning, financing and actual construction of a new home have never been more favorable, there's absolutely no reason why you can't have the home you desire. Under the Federal plans you can build with the certainty of full ownership... a home that will be yours in 10 or 20 years. And your initial investment need be only 20 per cent of the value of your property! This new method of financing is easier, more convenient and more economical... Take advantage of this golden opportunity now.

COME IN NOW FOR ALL INFORMATION ABOUT FEDERAL LOANS AND HOME FINANCING PLANS

Specialists In

Fire Insurance - Rentals - Real Estate - Property Management - Automobile and All Kinds Of Insurance.

Union Insurance & Realty Co.

H. M. MICHAUX, Manager

Durham, N. C. Phone J-6521

D'ORSAY Beauty Salon

120 1-2 SOUTH MANGUM STREET PHONE F-2501

RUSH YOUR BEAUTY TROUBLES TO US

WE DELIVER THE GOODS

WE ARE PREPARED TO HANDLE ANY RUSH WITH

Six Efficient Licensed Operators

WAITING TO SERVE YOU AT ALL TIMES.

SPECIAL PRIVATE ROOM SET ASIDE FOR

Hair Dyeing ONLY

MRS. MARGARET BAILEY, Specialist in Fancy Curling.
MISS ELIZABETH BOOKER, Specialist in Manicuring and Pedicuring
MISS MILDRED COMPTON, Specialist in Shampooing and Pressing
MISS BEATRICE FREEMAN, Specialist in Marcel Waving
MISS VERA JEFFERIES, Specialist in Finger Waving and Facials
MRS. MARTHEMA SANDERS, Specialist in Eyebrow Arching and Personal Make-up.

N. C. MUTUAL

Life Ins. Co.

CONGRATULATIONS

And Good Wishes

To You

ON YOUR 40TH ANNIVERSARY!

Ellis Stone and Company has watched from the beginning the growth and increasingly important part the North Carolina Mutual plays in the making of Durham's prosperity and civic achievements. We wish to take this opportunity to commend you on your great work and wish you greater success year after year.

Ellis Stone & Co.

DURHAM'S LEADING STORE SINCE 1888