C. L.—I wish to know if with the experience I have had, can I make it through nursing school in one year and be successful in a job afterwards or what is best for me to do?

Ans.—Regardless of how much experience you have it will be necessary for you to spend the limited time in study if you plan to take up a course in nursing. If you finish the course, you will get employment.

W. P.—Will this girl that I have in mind get me into trouble and does she mean me any good?

Ans.—The young lady means you no harm, but she isn't in love with you. It would be well for you to choose someone your own age for a friend as she is much too young to take you seriously. No trouble will arise from your associating with each other.

J. W.—My boy friend and I get along terrible. He stays out all hours of the night and never says where and when he goes out and if I go out a while in the day, he gets angry. Tell me if I should stay here and take this stuff or go home?

Ans.—Go out and leave him flat. Find you a good paying job and get a boarding place by yourself as you would be better off. Make a visit home if you will be able to make a better salary right where you are now. In a few months you will meet your ideal mate.

B. W.—I am trying hard to get compensation from my husband's death and wonder what I must do?

Ans.—Get in touch with the local American Legion office in

Ford's Book—Wm. Pickens Raps Attack Of Jews

When Uncle Sam declared war on Germany, Ford like many Negroes was caught by the spirit of the times "Johnny" get your gun." In 1937 he got his gun and marched across the seas to help Uncle Sam settle accounts with the Germans. But there, too, he met with discrimination.

As a non-commissioned officer and radio engineer, he let his men in protest against the discriminatory practices of the white officers. After his return from the war, he was honorably discharged and received an appointment in the post office at Chicago.

Traced in its logical sequence here was a man rising above the prescribed position of his down-trodden people. It was an upward-struggle, and Ford was determined never to go under. In 1926 he joined the Communist Party and since that time has become one of its outstanding leaders.

He concludes his book on a note of high hope and confidence of the future, and who have a forging of the democratic front against fascism and the extension of that front until it reaches the goal of true democracy which is Socialism.

ed.—Your husband seems contented enough right where he is, and is going to make no attempt to get out until you get the place and establish yourself in it. Then he will follow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25th—The colored people of the United States should express their interest, emphatically to the 'm' b' r' g' o' against democratic Spain lifted."

This was the statement issued this week by Dea'n William Pickens, director of branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

"This embargo," the statement said, "prevents the Spanish people from getting arms and good to defend themselves against the attacks made upon Germans and Italians who are backing the Spanish rebel, General Franco.

ASKS THAT U. S. SEVER DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH GERMANY

NEW YORK, Nov. 25th—Senator William H. King (D., Utah), who asked that the United States sever diplomatic relations with Germany's Nazi government as a protest against the Jewish persecutions in a recent radio address, was asked to translate the same sentiment which motivated his making this speech into an active support of the federal anti-lynching legislation during the next session of Congress.

The senator from Utah on two occasions gave active support to southern reaction who led the filibuster which killed the Wagner Van Nuys Gavagan anti-lynching bill; once on Nov. 17, 1937, when he talked about conditions in the Tennessee

Their Essays on Tuberculosis Bring Prizes In Nationwide Competition Among 100,000 Students

WRITING on "Why I Should Know About Tuberculosis and What I Should Know," Esther Reed (upper left) of Florida A & M College, Tallahassee, and Charles Copher (upper right) of Gammon Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., each received a first prize for outstanding essays among Negro college students. Among high school students Odessa Redman (lower left) of the North Fork (W. Va.) High School won first prize. Second prize went to Gertrude M. Coutrier (lower right) of the Girls' High School, Brooklyn, N. Y. The essay contest was conducted by the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated organizations.

Six Nominated to NAACP Board Of Directors

NEW YORK, Nov. 25th—Six persons, prominent in business, political and social welfare field have accepted nomination to the board of directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People according to an announcement made by officials of the organization here today.

The nominations, which will be voted on at the association's annual meeting early in January, include:

Charles Poletti, Lt. Governor of New York; L. C. Blount, of Detroit, vice president and secretary of the Great Lakes

Valley Authority; and again on February 2 and 3, 1938, when he talked on conditions in the Orient.

The request to reverse this record of opposition to passage of anti-lynching legislation was contained in a letter from Walter White, secretary of the National Ass'n for the Advancement of Colored People.

CIO WOULD ABOLISH POLL TAX IN SOUTHERN STATES

NEW YORK, Nov. 23rd—Action by the CIO convention meeting in Pittsburgh, this week in passing a resolution calling for the abolition of the poll tax in southern states, and government action to insure voting by all citizens regardless of race or color was hailed here today by officials of the National Ass'n for the Advancement of Colored

CIO Urged To Support Anti-Lynch Measure

People as a "notable step taken by labor in America toward extending the democratic ideal in American life."

The resolution was passed by the convention after two southern delegates had told the body that labor organization cannot go forward without the active support of the Negro. The resolution favored the rescinding of all poll tax laws and urging the federal government to deny federal funds to communities or states which discriminate the right to vote "by virtue of race or economic condition."

The convention has already passed a resolution supporting the President's condemnation of the German Government, and this country's recall of Ambassador Hugh Wilson from Berlin.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 25th—The Congress of Industrial Organizations (formerly the Committee for Industrial Organization), which is holding its first convention here this week, was asked to "pass a resolution reaffirming its support of federal anti-lynching legislation, in a telegram sent to John L. Lewis by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The telegram reads as follows: "Hope it is possible for CIO convention to pass resolution reaffirming support federal anti-lynching legislation. Timeliness of such action could be pointed out in connection with Nazi barbarities against Jews—a necessity of United States stopping mob murders within its own borders as well as protesting mobism in Germany."
