Send all letters to: ABBE WALLACE, care of THE CAROLINA TIMES, 117 E. Penobscot Street, Durham, N. Carolina.

FRJ—Will we get our house finished before this coming winter and if so about when?
Ans: Some incident will arise in the life of your mother that will make her CHANGE HER MIND and delay the repairs and finishing of the house. It is just going to be a matter of months until the place will be finished.

NCS—My husband is going with my best friend woman and she didn't know him until she met and I wish to know if I should stay on with him?
Ans: Yes. Running out because he is acting sorry will not help matters any. You have found out that this party is not a friend to you...if so she would not stoop to such conduct. Remain in your home for a while can't do more than slip around and see him occasionally and he will soon tire of her.

JWS—I read your column and like it fine. Please tell me if there is anything seriously wrong with my son and should he see a doctor?
Ans: His condition is serious enough for him to consult with a doctor. It is so foolish to take a chance with sickness when it is so easy and expensive to have the very best advice from a capable doctor. He will recover.

VMC—The gentleman that asked me to marry him, was he really sincere?
Ans: He was but not you. You should not think of marrying a man when you aren't in love. Return to school this fall and finish your education and don't get the marriage bug until you have finished your training.

VBJ—Should I live in hopes of our reuniting or should I try to forget him?
Ans: The logical thing for you to do is to stop thinking about him even though you do feel that you love him yet. The affair between you two just couldn't be worked out favorably and it is well that it was realized while you were both young.

GRS—Should I go home on my vacation or would it be better for me to stay here?
Ans: The trip home would do you good but you would be miserable while away worrying about your TWO SWEET-HEARTS. Decide for yourself whether you wish to go or not. It will not very much difference between you and these friends if you do leave for a week.

ARC—For the past few years, I have been a constant reader of your column. Now I have made up my mind to send my problems to you but I want them to come back to me in a private letter. Can this be arranged?
Ans: Yes. Send a quarter for my latest Astrology Reading covering your sign. Send your full name, correct birthdate and address along with three pressing questions, and I will send your Astrology Reading to you by return mail, along with my free opinion on your problems.

MLG—I suffer from a chronic condition and my sickness puzzles the doctors. Tell me what to expect?
Ans: A cure in time. The doctors are able to relieve you temporarily and if you do as they say and try to build up your resistance, it shouldn't be but a short time until you are on the road to recovery.

 equal to the one in the University of Missouri) appellant's constitutional rights will have been satisfied and therefore the writ should be denied. Although expressly conceding that the new act eliminates the discretion left to the curators and places on the curators an unconditional obligation to open new schools and new departments appellant (Gaines) says: "But assuming for the purposes of argument only that the curators did create some sort of a law school by September 1939 this court could not determine by judicial notice whether such law school satisfied the constitutional requirement of equal protection of the laws. That would be a matter of evidence to be presented to and weighed by the trier of fact in the trial court. In this we think appellant (Gaines) correct."

The Supreme Court of the United States said of former section 9618: "It appears that the policy of establishing a law school at Lincoln University has not yet ripened into an actual establishment and it cannot be said that a mere declaration of purpose, still unfulfilled is enough."
 "We are unwilling to undertake to determine the constitutional adequacy of the revision now made for relator's legal education within the borders of the state by the expedient of coupling judicial notice with a presumption of law. Ordinarily procedure requires that the question be submitted to and determined by the trial court in the first instance. If the facilities at Lincoln University to be available at the commencement of the next school term which is in September are in fact substantially equivalent to those afforded at Missouri University, the writ should be denied; otherwise it must issue, as a denial under those circumstances would amount to an arbitrary exercise of discretion. The judge is accordingly, reversed and the cause remanded for further proceedings in conformity with the views herein expressed.

Dr. Hunter reports that there were twenty six men in Chicago last summer registered from Texas.

The men who were in the original combine are known as the Old Guard and certain key positions are filled from this group. These are the men who see to it that although national in its scope (and embraces the BWI) it does not stray too far afield from those "Time" ideas and sacrifices that gave rise to its humble origin in a little sea shore spot on Chesapeake Bay, ent Elect; Dr. J. A. Jackson of Virginia.

Without a doubt the New York group under the chairmanship of Dr. Louis H. Fausch is presenting a constructive programme that will eclipse all efforts presented in the life of the Society.

The National Dental Organization was the dream of the late Dr. A. Ferguson of Richmond, Va. who called together a number of men from Md. Va. and D. C. in 1913. At that time an organization known as the Tri-State was launched. The activity presented such a terrific possibilities that in 1914 several men from North Carolina were invited to the meeting at Bayshore Hotel, Buckro Beach Va. Six men went and were tendered memberships. The six were the late Dr. Ed. Smith of Winston, the late Dr. G. G. Evans of Raleigh, Dr. Chas. A. Dunston, Raleigh, Dr. C. O. Lee Winston, Dr. W. H. Wallace formerly of Salisbury now of Phils, and Dr. A. S. Hunter.

The Charter was changed to read The Inter State in 1918 and operated as such until 1932 when it took on the proportions of a National activity. From the start the chief idea of the Organization has been one that would render the greatest aid to those in the practice of Dentistry. Following such a plan yearly clinics have been staged

An iron lung purchased through citywide contributions in a campaign sponsored by the junior chamber of commerce, composed of young white business men, has saved the life of Catherine Robinson 14 year old colored girl.

Several weeks ago South Carolina suffered an epidemic of infantile paralysis. First to be stricken was Catherine. An iron lung was needed immediately to save her life. They are expensive and there were no funds to purchase one nor time to petition or contact governmental agencies.

So the junior chamber of commerce ordered one. To raise the purchase price $15,000, jars were placed throughout city. On each jar was a picture of Catherine in an iron lung. Stories were carried the daily paper. And for 10 nights Jack keys secretary of the chamber, counted 2,000 pennies along with an equal number of nickels and dimes.

After saving this girl from death, the iron lung has had another occupant. She too is colored. The doctors don't yet know whether her life will be saved.

Prominent Gate City Couple Is Wedded

BY J. ARCHIE HARGRAVES

GREENSBORO, N. C.—In an impressive wedding ceremony characterized by simple dignity, Miss Francis Wallace became the bride of Alexander Corbett, of Lake Waccamaw and Greensboro, Wednesday evening Aug. 2 at 9 o'clock. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wallace of 222 N. Regan Street, Rev. J. J. Green pastor of the Church of the Redeemer assisted by Rev. Heritage of Charlotte read the impressive service of the Episcopal Church including the ring ritual.

The bride was escorted by her father W. T. Wallace who gave her in marriage. She had as matron of honor her sister, Mrs. Pearl Peace of this city. Little Sara Elaine Peace, niece of the bride was flower girl. Mr. Corbett was attended by John T. Speller of Laurinburg, as best man.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Anna Stewart rendered a program of nuptial music James J. Scarlett sang "Because." The traditional wedding marches were used as the processional and recessional. A choral group burst into song immediately following the solemnizing of vows.

A beautiful nuptial setting was created in the South living room by the use of an improvised altar flanked with tall cathedral candles which glowed amid the green of palms. At the rear mid section stood a vase of the post-impressionistic period filled with white gladioli and dahlias.

The bride made a lovely picture in her bridal gown of ivory satin misted with orange blossoms and fashioned in Princess design. Her veil of illusion fell from halo of orange blossoms. She carried a white satin prayer book showered with orchids and real orange blossoms.

Mrs. Peace as matron of honor or was costumed in yellow muslin de soire trimmed in turquoise blue. She carried a bouquet of yellow buds, white orchids and asters.

Little Miss Sandra Elaine Peace as flower girl wore a gown of blue muslin de soire over taffeta. She carried a basket this disgraceful situation.

Yours truly,

RUTH CULBERSON
