HPL—Am a follower of your column. My husband goes around a lot and don't take up much time with his family. Do you think he will ever stop bringing up my past? His past is worse than mine.

Ans: It seems that he must find something to fuss about and he can't very well accuse you of not doing your best right now, so he has to bring up things that happened before he knew you. Don't worry and fret about what he says as it doesn't mean anything. In time he's going to settle down and be a decent father to your three children.

LBB—I am planning on going to Chicago or either Indianapolis to live and want to know which would be the better place for me?

Ans:—You had better stick around until spring before making this change as long as you have a pretty good job and no debts, you are much better off than the average. A little excitement will come into your life this winter that will bring you happiness.

WRC—For two years now I have been living in the city and haven't done any good. I am disgusted and want to know what I should do?

Ans:—I feel that if you want back to the farm and took up where you left off, you would be happy again. You have very modern conveniences on your farm and your wife would enjoy being back out in the open and free to breathe again.

WCC—I am a married man and have fallen in love with a married woman and want to know if she will ever be mine?

Ans:—Not unless you force him to do so. It is his duty to help out with this baby talk over with your daddy and he will carry this matter to the courts if you like. This man will not offer to help unless made to do so.

LW—Am trying to make my home happy, will I succeed?

Ans: For a while yes.

Ans: Oh, what suffering some people bring on themselves. In the first place you shouldn't have encouraged her knowing you were married. Neither should she have accepted your attentions. Both of you are making the other miserable and the sooner you stop seeing one another, the better.

MT—Tell me if I should leave M. and go back home and my luck again?

Ans:—Move away from the party and establish yourself in a small place of your own. To go home wouldn't help matters any. Get a job and don't depend on anyone for your living and when the right man comes along, marry him and you won't be made unhappy.

CL—Please tell me why my six and arms hurt so bad at night for this worries me so awfully bad?

Ans: Probably a rheumatic condition go immediately to your doctor and allow him to examine you. He can find out the condition, and relieve you completely in a short time. Don't take medicines that are not prescribed by your doctor.

MLS—I have a baby girl by a man who isn't married. I stay with my father and I know he is getting tired of us. Tell me the child's father will ever help me support her?

Ans:—Not unless you force him to do so. It is his duty to help out with this baby talk over with your daddy and he will carry this matter to the courts if you like. This man will not offer to help unless made to do so.

LW—Am trying to make my home happy, will I succeed?

Ans: For a while yes.

Charlotte Softball Tourney Starts

BY JOE MAXWELL

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—The Fifth Annual Softball tournament started here Tuesday afternoon at three thirty at the Second Ward High School playground and at Morgan School playground. Denson and Jones are supervisors of the tournament.

The Second Ward playground featured a double header and drew far and away the largest crowd of the day. The first game brought together the strong Brooklyn Dodgers and the First Ward Tigers and the Dodgers won in a runaway, the final score being 14-1. Starring for the winning team were Tip Maxwell who played errorless ball in shortstop and battled 1,000 getting four hits for four trips to the bat, one of them being a screaming homer with two on in the fifth and Junior Neal, perfectly handling his 1st base assignment and hitting a homer with one on in the same fifth inning.

Allen Dawkins tall slender right-hander for the Dodgers pitched one hit ball in the game and was supported by exception at fielding on the part of Nathaniel Morrow, Junior Neal, Tip Maxwell and Harry Grier. Charles Hill was a tower of strength behind the bat for the Second Ward team.

U. L. Blakeney was the only play that did anything worth mentioning on the First Ward team, and his efforts at first

CHARLOTTE SPORTS ROUND UP

FLASH! Pete Denson, supervisor of the First Ward Tigers Soft Ball Team, has turned his boys into footballers with captains Barret, and Mackey pacing the way. We only hope they will play as brilliant football as they did softball.

Hazel Pettice, local bicyclist, is still winning races lately. There is whispering lately saying that if Charles Hill, Tip Maxwell and Harry Grier can hit a baseball, I can build a "stairway to the stars."
