Hobnobbing Charlotte—
 Maynard Wilson and Adolphus Brown according to reports from Concord are really doing fine as Supervisors of Recreation in that city. In closing I want to say that I hope you aren't salty if you saw your name in print; rather you should feel elated as we are really choosy as to makes our column. Remember it is not the way that you do it but rather the place you do it, and Charlotte isn't the place.

Hurt In Wreck

WARRENTON—Two Negroes, Bennie Williams and Wash Williams were badly hurt around 11 o'clock, Tuesday night when the cars driven by Bennie Williams overturned on the outskirts of Warrenton. Both men received scratches, bruises and cuts. They received medical treatment here. Wash Williams works for Powell and Drake Grocery of Warrenton and Bennie Williams is an employee for Mrs. Edmund White of this City. The car was badly damaged.

Charlotte Lose To Giants

CHARLOTTE—In a listless game featured by many errors the Charlotte Hornets lost by a score of 8-2 a baseball game to the South African Giants of Philadelphia before a large holiday crowd on labor day Monday at Haymitch's Park. Monday afternoon the giants had played a game in Lancaster S. C. and defeated their team by a score of 16-8. The game was a pitcher's duel with Clinton going the route for the Hornets. The Hornets are under the management of George Grier.

Features of the game were the clowning of the giants who were attired in fantastic costumes each wearing what looked like an abbreviated green skirt and with their faces fantastically streaked with paint and the prizes which were given away.

The prize a radio was won by Mrs. Estelle Sim of South Caldwell Street. The second prize a movie-matic camera was won by Henry Williams.
