Annual Meet To Be Held Saturday

PETERSBURG — The second annual High School Athletic Conference Track meet has been set for Saturday, May 18, according to a release made this week by James A. Moore, director of athletics at Virginia State College where the meet is annually held.

Track events will include the 100, 220, 440, 880 and the mile; four lap relay and sprint medley relay. Field events will include the broad jump, high jump, discus throw, standing broad jump, and the baseball throw. In the spirit medley relay, the first man runs one lap, the second man runs one-half lap, the third man runs one-half lap also, and the fourth man runs two laps. In the running events, each contestant is limited to two events only. He may, however, compete in either one of the relays after competing in two other running events.

At the present time it is expected that all of the conference schools will send entries to the meet which represents the only meet of its kind held for the colored high schools of the state.

This year for the first time, non-conference high schools will be invited to participate. However, no high school will be registered for the track meet after May 13th.

The track meet is sponsored by the Virginia High School Athletic conference.

The Sports Bazaar By William Tuck

KING FOOTBALL was again ruler for a night last Tuesday at the North Carolina College dining hall where the college athletic council feted the Eagles with the BANQUET OF THE SEASON.

The old grads and well wishers of the team took time out from their various important duties to go into a bit of first class reminiscing about the "good ole day" of football. Tall tales really had the "green light", and the only award that was lacking was the one that should have gone to the winner of that "tall-tale contest." The committee was humane enough to fortify the athletes against those two hours of speech-making with a swell chicken dinner and that's why they could afford to be gracious enough to laugh at some of those "wiskered" jokes. In some instances we needed Fibber McGee's Molly to say: "tain't funny." However, a "good time was had by all."

But seriously, these speeches were not all JOKES; each one of them contained something which everyone present could well take home with him as nourishment for his very soul. For with such inspirations of men as Dr. C. C. Spaulding, G. W. Cox, L. E. Austin, Coach Burghardt himself, and even Hillside's Coach Herman Riddick, on the same program, there doesn't breathe a man with a soul so dead that he couldn't get some bit of inspiration from what they said.

Here are some BITS from the talks that some of these men made:
 E. R. MERRICK challenged: "What will you do in your community to represent your schools?"
 C. C. SPAULDING advised: "Keep healthy, young men, clean men are the ones who reach the top."
 R. L. McDOUGALD: "Your coach can't give you 'guts'—Mistakes will be made; let them be made in aggressiveness."
 In presenting the individual trophy to Ennis, the most valuable basketball player, he said: "with this, you can do nothing that is not honorable."
 GEORGE W. COX believes that the men who got together and published an All-American basketball team without mentioning any North Carolina players must have been the victims of the type operation which a certain doctor made and forgot to replace the patient's kidneys.

COACH J. B. McLENDON chose to put in a word for the third string men of the football squad. These are the men who made their teammates good by allowing them to "practice on" them. He also commended the favorable attitude and incessant level-headed spirit which made Ennis a good leader.

BASEBALL IN DURHAM THE OTHER CITIES of North Carolina seem to have the jump on Durham when it comes to seeing Negro baseball games. Although there are at least two good semi-pro baseball clubs here we fans are still waiting to see the first game of the season or to learn what they plan to do. Some of them slip out of town on week-ends to play, but they never let the PRESS in on their activities. Maybe the Durham baseball clubs are secret organizations. Some of the managers of these teams are harder to see than real executives and it is only now and then that they will let out any information.

THE SPORTS DEPARTMENT of the CAROLINA TIMES would like to work with the managers of the local baseball clubs in giving the Durham teams the publicity that they have been without for so long. There are doing and what your plans are for the season. Let us tell them for you. For newspaper service call N-7121, J-0413, or J-7871.

SOFTBALL is the rage at Hillside these days. Coach Riddick has purchased equipment and inter-mural teams have been organized. A team to represent the school has already made out a tentative schedule, the first game being between the Pearson town school and the HHS seventh and eighth grade boys' team.

When the Toledo Crawfords and the Ethiopian Clowns play their colorful game at Durham Athletic Park Sunday, May 12, Jesse Owens, "world's fastest human" will put on a special exhibition for the fans in attendance. Travelling as a special attraction, Owens, holder of four Olympic titles will thrill the Durham fans by racing a hundred yard dash against picked speedsters of the city, by doing the 120 yard low hurdles while his opponent runs straight-away without going over the cross bars by doing a novelty base-running act, and by performing many other feats which will prove his claim to distinction as the fastest human.

33 Receive Letters As NCC Eagles Are Feted

BY WILLIAM A. TUCK (SPORTS EDITOR)

DURHAM — The North Carolina football squads were the guests of the college athletic council at an elaborate banquet held in the college dining hall on the evening of Tuesday, April 23. Outstanding features of the occasion were the awarding of trophies to the basketball team and of letters to the outstanding players on both squads. Words of greeting and commendation were given these young men from members of the alumni as well as representatives of Durham's and the nation's leading business institutions.

Dean James T. Taylor presided as toastmaster and cleverly arranged that there was "never a dull moment" during the evening. At the end of the savory dinner which the committee had provided, the first person whom Dean Taylor presented was Coach Herman Riddick of Hillside Park High School who brought greetings from the student of Hillside as well as from the Durham chapter of the North Carolina College Alumni Association of which he is president. In response to Mr. Riddick's sincere expressions of commendation and admiration, William Peerman, star end on the football squad and regular forward on the court expressed for his fellow athletes appreciation for the honors of the evening and for the support which they received at all times during the respective seasons.

WORDS OF GREETING From the youngsters of Durham and from the Piedmont Board of Officials, F. G. Burnette, principal of Burton Elementary school, brought greetings. Among other things he stated at the North Carolina College basketball team has (among the officials) the record of being the cleanest team in the CIAA.

Next came E. R. Merrick, North Carolina Mutual executive who did a bit of reminiscing and closed with the admonition that the athletes do something constructive to represent North Carolina College in their respective communities as well as in athletic competition.

EDITOR STRIKES A SERIOUS NOTE

A serious turn was given to the testimonial banquet when toastmaster called on Editor L. E. Austin of the CAROLINA TIMES. Mr. Austin advised the young men of the varied and sundry obstacles that will face them after their school days and warned them of the increasing seriousness of the fact that Negroes are more and more becoming the victims of malicious discriminations, especially in the economic and industrial world.

SPAULDING PRESENTS HIS TROPHY

The highlight of the banquet was the presentation of a hand-some trophy.

Stage Relays April 27

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — The Alabama State Relays are to be initiated on Saturday, April 27 when the Alabama State Teachers College will be host to a number of visiting track representatives of Southern colleges for the first of what promises to be an annual occasion on the track calendar of the Southwest and of the College.

The Alabama State Teachers College will offer a very attractive setting for this event. The track has just been built within the past two years and has a very fast footing which has been given further treatment during the past three weeks under the personal direction of the world renowned David Albritton of the Hornet Track Coaching Staff for this season. The Hornet Stadium is an attractive setting in which to stage this event with the concrete stands in process of completion and with the quarter-mile track and the 220 straight away. The attractive Gymnasium will offer lodging accommodations for all the visiting trackmen on the ground floor and will be the scene of the gala social occasions on Friday and Saturday night when the graduate and undergraduate chapters of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity respectively stage their annual dances to which the visiting representatives will be invited.

There will be plenty of competition. The Hornet track aggregation under the capable direction of Coaches Elisha James, David Albritton and John Brown will be tough competitive hosts as evidenced by their showing in a dual meet at Tuskegee, in the Prairie View Relays and in the triangular meet with Tuskegee and Morehouse.

Turn Back Charlotte Hornets

KINSTON (Special) — In cold damp weather better suited for football than baseball the Kinston "Greys" nosed out a scrapping bunch of Charlotte "Hornets" here by the close score of 8-6.

The game looked as if it were to be a pitchers' duel between "Lefty" Hobgood and "Tommy" Heron of the Hornets, but wildness on the part of Heron soon caused his removal from the mound after the 'Greys' had tallied four time in three innings. Dawkins followed Heron to the mound and pitched well the final innings of the game.

The Kinston team led the Hornets the entire game but received a terrific scare in the ninth inning when the visitors scored four times on four hits and a trio of errors after one man was out and the game ended with the tying run on base.

Hobgood the Greys southpaw ace, was master of the game until the fatal ninth when he weakened but he managed to pull through before too much damage was done.

The Greys play another outstanding from the West Sunday April 28th, when they tangle with the Greensboro Blue Sox. Batteries: Charlotte; Heron, Dawkins and Tate; Kinston; Hobgood and Mills; Umpires: Grady and Whitehead.
