FAYETTEVILLE HOST TO TENNIS STA

Lucky and Band Coming to Durham June 14

SPORTING WORLD HCRNETS RECEIVE LETTERS

To Play Durham the Stormy Weather Revue in the one and only Cotton Club in New York City.

"LUCKY" MILLINDER the dynamic and versatile leader of this mous band, will appear in person in Durham at the City Armory ing the Rex Theatre, Paris, for Priday night, June 14th was born in Anniston, Alabama in 1910 symbolising the peer of swing known, and from all indications and was named Lucius LeRoy Millinder.

Lucky's mother followed the theatrical profession. He inherits shility from her. His first desire to become a performer was instilled when he drove the car of Percy Venable, a noted Chicago ease producer, just so he could be in the vicinity and atmosphere of theatrical celebrities.

Originally studied auto mechsaics and completed a high hool course was quite an thlete and scholar. Made the rgrieus basketball, swimming, track and debating teams.

The first Attempts in the prosion was to produce shows in all o Chicago's best night clubs and theatree. In his first try at ing, Lucky staged the routines, designed the es, wrote the lyrics, direct d the orehestra and kept the how moving rapidly and smooth ly by acting as Master of Cere-

Among the celebrites starring the revue were Ethel Waters, my Hudgins, Chas. "Snow-Whittier, and Nina Mae sey. It was in Chicago, in this same revue, Lucky reveals, he was instilled with a feelof ease and confidence to before huge crowds. only handled the M. C. the artist originally falled to show up. So he is to "save his own he did-and how!

ed here and abroad it was

been successful.

Is 5' 6" tall weighs 135 pounds and has black hair his greatest thrill as a child leading a parade with an uncle drum m

The most exciting incident in his life was the sight of a shark while Lucy was swimming in the Mcditerranean Sea. His greatest extravagance is the purchasing of uniforms for his many stage appearances.

His most prized possession is silver baton given to him by ten orchestrat leaders while playconductors.

The funniest incident in his life happened in the Cotton Club, pite his nickname, he is naturwhen a Frenchman walked to ally unluckly. the band stand and cooly and dehperately kissed him or both cheeks for his spelndid work bein France, after starring in fore the band.

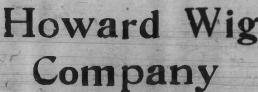

Monte Carlo, that Lucky became Lucky likes to be broke beinterested in a much repeated in- cause it makes him strive all the vitation to bring his band into harder to succeed claims, des-

HUMAN

REAL HAIR WIGS

Styled By Howard's, World's Largest Manufacturer of Negro Hair Goods

Located in the heart of Harlem

Special Accessories Including The Latest Creation-The Page Boy Bob...Bob and Imported French Wigs. Write for our FREE Fashion Book. It's Easy To Order from Howsird's!

141-143 West 125th Street, New York, N. Y.

Department B-6

Net Tourney To he loses his pep if he does. Imagines, while performing before an audience, that he is conducting a behearsal and the loses and the loses has pep if he does. Be Staged At conducting a hehearsal and the results he states, always have been successful.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. (Special) - According to information received from W. T. "Army" Armsrong, Director of Physical Educa- malle at the address. tion at Fayetteville State Teachers College, plans are fast taking shape for the annual North Carolina Open tennis championships scheduled for the historic. FTC campus beginning Tuesday, June 26. Nothing is being spared to make this year's meet even larger than the one held last year under Mr. Armstrong's guidance and it is generally conceded that the 1939 meet was the largest that the old North State had ever witnessed. Players from as fer south as New Orleans and Alabama and as far North as New York state were present to display take a shot at that has changed their wares. It was in this same tourney that such stars as Mc-Daniels Cohen, McCampbell and Russell made their presence these same boys will be back to hands as often at the meet has been held. ? .. -- -- ...

> VISITORS WILL BE ENTERTAINED

This year, every effort is being made to see that visitors and players alike will always remem-Fayetteville's hospitality.

34 Boys And Monday afternoon June 3, at 3 Queen.

p. m. The Aggies have an excellent record thus far this year Alexander Corbett, coach James Monday afternoon June 3, at 3 Queen.

DURHAM - A striking part Greensboro.

of the award day exercises at Hillside Park High school last Wednesday May 28, was the awarding of letters to 34 boys and girls who had made them selves vale, le on the football field and on the basketball court during the 1939 and 1940 seasons. Coach Herman H. Riddick. head of the athletic department and football coach, presented the letters after making remarks of commendation for the athletes' spirit and ability.

Football letters went to Joseph Graves, Willie Williams, Joseph Blount, Fred Brewer, Russell Burrah, R. J. Plummer, David Morrissey, James Thompson, James Carlton, Lawrence Perry, Linwood Purvis, Rot Lee, John Thompson, William Pike, Connie Williams, James Sellars, Hubert Robinson, Marvin Allen, Thomas Johnson, Frank Williams, Edward Lloyd, Warren Strudwick.

These boys received backetball letters Willie Southerland, Willie Williams, James Carlton, Willie Southerland, Albert Johnson,

David Morrissey, William Brock. Girls receiving letters for basket ball were Lizzie Pract, Maudell Watson, Janie Bell Jones, Mildred Leake, Margie Jenkins, and Not only will the visitors get a chance to visit the historic spots to be found in this city but many types of additional enter tainment will be offered. The social side of the meets has al ways been well taken care of but this year a moonlight swin on beautiful Jones Lake a few miles from Fayetteville will be added to the regular social affairs which were held last year.

Information regarding the tournament and entries should be made direct to the office of

W. T. Armstrong at Fayetteville

State Teachers College. Reservations for room and board may be Richlean Tucker.

As a special feature of the Shown on the picture are: front ommencement program at A row, read left to right, Lefy and T Aggies baseball squed will Evans, Charles Smith, Jesse play the Goshan Red Wings in Banner, Edwin Moore, Brennein a headliner at Memorial stadium King, James Griffin, and James with a total of six victories and Porter, assistant coach Dutch Clarke, trainer; George Waltz, The Aggie team will continue George Green, Sam Bruce, Aroperation this summer playing thur Maultaby, Edward Nance, many of the teams in and around John Winston, scorer and Jesse Holloway,

ARRANGING SPECIAL PROGRAM AT EXPOSITION

Head of the special events committee and of the department of fratrinal organizations, Major R. R. Jackson, former alderman, is shown here arranging for special days and programs at the American Negro Exposition in the Chicago Coliseum from July 4-Sept. 2. With him is Miss Elizabeth G. Williams, his secretary. Major Jackson plans to have special days for each state and organization as one of the many features of the event,

Now Open Under New Management

The LOG CABIN

GOOD ORDER GUARANTEED ORCHESTRA EVERY SUNDAY NITE

WILKERSON BOULEVARD 4 MILES OUT WAYNE BROADWAY, Prop.

SHELL

ANNOUNCES OPENING

New

Up To The Last Minute A SERVICE STATION

Pine and Proctor Streets

Prompt Courteous Service Authorized and Expert

Shell Lubrication

Proprietor - - Frank Wray