MECHANICAL MAN ATTRACTS KIDDIES AT EXPOSITION

Among the most entrancing exhibits at the American Negro Exposition in Chicago is the mechanical man of the Labor Display, who at regular intervals talks to the assemblage on the status of the Negro worker. When he speaks, his eyes light up, his jaws and mouth and his head turns from side to side. Particularly interesting is the mechanical man to the kiddies, three of whom are watching him now. They are left to right, David Anthony Knight, 8, and Randall Jackson, 8, of Chicago, and Zeb Johnson, 9, of Nashville.

Miss Davidson Entertains

DURHAM — Miss Celia David son charmingly entertained, Tuesday afternoon August 20, at a Weiner Roast at her home on Pine Street, honoring her house guest, Miss Jeanne Pratt of Washington, D. C. The guests were invited for 5:30. Upon arrival each attractively dressed in slacks and shorts, was given a card on which to write her name and address. The cards were collected by the hostess and presented to the honoree to be put in her scrapbook.

Guests present were: Misses Jeanne Pratt, honor guest, Mary and Martha Nutall, Jessie Harris, Vivian Austin, Eva McLaurin, Beatrice Bynum, Dorothy McDougald, Audrey and L'lonia Ingram, Marjorie Payne Florida Spaulding, Ronald Foreman, John Harris, Xan Shearin, Ronald Scarborough, Mickey Michaux, "Mit" Martin, Billy Baldwin, John Lewis Lambeth and Thomas Hammie.

After several interesting "Back To School" games, the guests were sent to the fire to prepare their service of roast weiners and marshmallow toast. In the games, Ronald Foreman won first prize, Miss Vivian Austin, second and Miss Eva McLaurin third prize. Miss Pratt was presented a beautiful scrapbook. The prizes carried out the "Back To School" idea. Peanuts and mints cleverly tied in paper napkins were served at the conclusion of the party.
