Providence Baptist Pastor Closes Eight Years Of Service

Greensboro — Beginning Monday night Providence Baptist church held a week of services, in appreciation of eight years of pastorate for the Rev. J. W. Tynes, Monday evening.

Rev. C. W. Anderson and the congregation of the United Institutional Baptist church had charge of the services Tuesday evening.

Rev. J. T. Hairston and Shiloh Baptist church Wednesday.

Rev. S. A. Seay and congregation of Trinity AME Zion church Thursday.

Rev. P. B. Bynum and New Zion Baptist church congregation Friday night.

Rev. F. A. Hargett of Saint Stevens Christian church and congregation.

Sunday morning a very unique and appropriate service closed the anniversary. Deacon J. Walter Snipes acted as Master of Ceremonies for the services which began at 11:15 a. m. After the usual morning preliminaries Rev. Speller of the Hayes-Taylor YMCA delivered a short sermon which was appropriate and filled with thought. After a touching selection by the Senior choir under the direction of Prof. E. Nathaniel Gatlin. Mrs. H. T. Emerson recited a poem, a tribute of appreciation for the pastor. Perry J. Brown, Mortician followed with a brief but splendid address commending the pastor for his high class christian service rendered in the community. R. I. Thacker, Supt. of the Sunday School spoke of the accomplishments and also gave a brief history of the church under Rev. Tynes's pastorate. President F. D. Bluford of A and T College made the presentation, he spoke in glowing terms of the pastor and his services. It was under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Tynes that the church was remodeled inside and outside and is now a beautiful structure facing East Market Street at a cost of more than $5,000. The church is progressing nicely from every angle. Several costly gifts were presented at the services.
