IT'S TIME YOU KNEW --- by LAWRENCE

WHILE ATTENDING THE RACES AT SARATOGA, ERNEST TRUEX WAS MISTAKEN FOR A JOCKEY BY LILLIAN RUSSELL WHO GAVE HIM HIS FIRST PART IN A BROADWAY PRODUCTION, FOR WHICH SHE ACTUALLY WANTED A REAL JOCKEY. HOW LONG DO YOU THINK HE HAS BEEN AN ACTOR?

ALTHOUGH THE U.S. CONSTITUTION STATES A SENATOR MUST BE 30 YEARS OLD, HENRY CLAY WAS ELECTED TO THE SENATE AT THE AGE OF 29. WHAT PRESENT U.S. SENATOR WAS ELECTED BEFORE HE WAS 30?

THE BULOVA "PERISPHERE" WATCH WAS MODELED AFTER THE NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR PERISPHERE. WHAT WAS THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THIS GREAT STRUCTURE?

A WIRE, WRAPPED AROUND A PIECE OF ICE WITH A WEIGHT SUSPENDED FROM THE WIRE, WILL PASS COMPLETELY THROUGH-YET THE ICE WILL REMAIN IN ONE PIECE! WHY?

Answers to "IT'S TIME YOU KNEW" by Lawrence

Ernest Truex has been an actor for 30 years, from the time he appeared first in "Wildfire" to his present role in "George Washington Slept Here."

Senator Rush Holt was elected to the Senate before he was 30 years of age.

The "Perisphere" of the New York World's Fair, after which the Bulova "Perisphere" wrist-watch was named, signified the "World of Tomorrow" and inside it was shown a model of "Democracy"—the "City of Tomorrow."

The heat, caused by the pressure of the wire on the ice, will cause the wire to pass completely through, but the cut pieces will instantly freeze together.

stories about me all the time and I wish to know what I can do to make her stop and do better herself?

Ans: She has no intention of letting you a younger woman make a better showing on the job than she does. Since you are so dissatisfied with her it is suggested that you look around and try to find a better job yourself. You can't make her stop tattling.

CBH—I have been keeping company with this man for the past four months and he tells me he loves me and wants to marry me. Tell me please if I should do this or not?

Ans:—The fellow is quite sincere in wanting you to marry him and since you are in love with him I can see no reason at all why you shouldn't join together in matrimony. I wish you lots of happiness.

JTV—Please tell me about my friend lady. W were loving as could be for a long time but he of late I can't seem to get interested in her anymore and she hasn't done anything so tell me what to do?

Ans:—You don't love the lady and you can't force yourself to care for her. It is my suggestion that you make friends with some other desirable person for a sweetheart and just be friendly with the one mentioned. She is a wonderful person for a friend but if you don't love her, don't hesitate to admit the truth.

MT—We are interested in knowing if my husband is going to get employment in the near future? Also tell me just how long we will be here in this place?

Ans:—It is indicated to me that your husband will get work in distant city during the spring of this year you will follow him a few weeks later and you both will be happy in your new location. Insist that he keep right after the man who has promised him help.

When a man begins to tell you nice things about yourself, if you are a man, the worse is yet to come.

HOW TO BE YOUR OWN DECORATOR

By Helen Koues Director, Good Housekeeping Studio

Fixing Up Daughter's Room for Christmas

When daughter comes home for the holidays give her a surprise. Fix up her room for her as a Christmas present. Or, if she isn't off at school or college, take her into your confidence—as you must—and fix her room to her liking.

By asking a lot of questions, I found a few facts all girls agreed upon. If not sharing their room, they would like two single beds in it, so that they can ask a friend to stay with them. Even in a small room they want it. Then they want a desk of their own, and if not a desk, a table which can be arranged as one, with blotter, inkstand, dictionary, etc. A drawer is wanted if possible. A three way L.E.S. floor lamp placed between the bed and desk takes little space, and gives good light for reading in bed as well as writing at desk. In a small room more spaciousness can often be obtained by placing the beds, apart along opposite side walls of the room, and putting the table desk and lamp between them at their heads. Perhaps there is a window between the beds in front of which the table desk may be placed, giving a good light by day. This arrangement uses three wall space; on the fourth opposite the window, center the bureau with a mirror above it.

As most rooms have two windows the chances are another window will come at the foot of one of the beds and a door to the hall on the opposite wall while the closet door is on the end wall to one side of the bureau. So much for the arrangement.

A table desk is arranged between two beds

Girls today have definite ideas about color and general atmosphere even more than the actual furniture. Therefore assuming that you will use the furniture wonders can be done with the walls, floor, curtains and bedspreads. No namby-pamby room for today's college girls. No indeed. They want something more sophisticated, a scheme that has dash and durability besides comfort. Wallpaper with a light ground will lighten a room if dark. On the other hand a light room may have painted walls of a chosen color, blue for instance, on the end walls perhaps with a light tone on side walls. Following the color scheme and remembering "no namby-pamby", use a rough-textured fabric of the same deep blue for the draw curtains and a blue inexpensive rug, relieved by a gay hooked rug in front of the bureau. Selection of correct bedspreads is important. They must stand hard wear and not soberly. The durable, blue-and-white striped material shown in the photograph harmonizes well with the rose-colored cover of the overstuffed chair and the pad of the Empire chair at the table desk. One small structural change was made: double four-foot bookshelves were put on this side wall over each of the beds. If the double book shelf over one bed is sufficient it is well to leave it at that. Pin-it-up crystal side lights flanking the bureau mirror give it needed light, as well as the floor lamp by the desk. Be sure the room has adequate floor space.

Gay...Giddy and Frivolous are these PARTY CANAPÉS and APPETIZERS

by Dorothy Greig

A large handsome grapefruit makes a good holder for Hot Mushrooms Ham Appetizers.

THOSE bright bites known as canapés and appetizers are certainly nothing to feed to the baby or to a man after a hard day's work. They belong strictly in the realm of wonderful nonsense. They are the sparkle in the rosy aura of expectation that hovers over the party refreshment table.

Since they are flavor bites, let's make them keen and tangy with maybe a touch of the unexpected. Serve them as accompaniments of tomato juice, punch or other refreshers, the prelude to the more substantial foods to follow. As our contribution to more and better parties we suggest:

- Hot Mushroom-Ham Appetizer: 1/2 cup condensed cream of mushroom soup, 1/2 cup fine soft bread crumbs, 1/2 cup ground ham, 1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce. Stir the cream of mushroom soup well. Then add soft bread crumbs, ground ham, prepared mustard and Worcestershire Sauce and mix. Shape into small balls about the size of a marble. For broiling: 1 egg, 2 tablespoons water, 1/2 cup cornflake crumbs (rolled very fine). Beat the egg slightly and add the water to it. Roll the appetizers in the egg mixture, then in crumbs.
- Rosy Cheese-Bacon Canapés: 1 package (3 oz.) cream cheese, 8 slices crisp bacon, chopped, 3 tablespoons condensed tomato soup, 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce. Cream the cheese. Then add chopped bacon, tomato soup and Worcestershire Sauce and mix well. Spread on toast or canapé crackers.
- Hot Shrimp-Mushroom Appetizer: 1 can (5 1/2 oz.) shrimps, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup, 3 tablespoons cream. Grated cheese. Clean the shrimps. Melt the butter and sauté the shrimps until delicate golden brown. Add the cream of mushroom soup and cream and mix well. Put into midget ramekins or shells, sprinkle with cheese and brown off under the broiler. Makes 8 hot appetizers.
- Smoky Celery Canapés: 1 package (3 oz.) cream cheese, 1/2 cup condensed celery soup, 1/2 cup salami, ground. Cream the cheese and add the celery soup. Then add the ground salami and mix well. Spread mixture on toast or crackers and heat under the broiler until golden brown.
